

CROWDS AWAITING FESTIVAL OPENING

Roseburg Dons Gay Attire to Preside Over Feast on Strawberries.

MOOSE START FUN TODAY

Lodge Ceremonies, Speeches, Bronco Busting, Sports, Barbecue and Parade Are Parts of Programme for First Day.

ROSEBURG, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—With the streets of the city decorated in thousands of yards of bunting and emblems of Douglas County's most auspicious annual occasion, all is in readiness tonight for the opening of the fifth annual Strawberry Festival and Rose Show tomorrow. Although hundreds of visitors arrived here during the day the great influx of guests will occur early tomorrow. Reports received from various parts of the state indicate that crowds will be larger this year than ever before. Tomorrow is designated as "Moose day" and on the occasion the town is expected to be crowded with members of the Moose lodge from all sections of Southern Oregon.

The festivities open early tomorrow, when delegations of the local lodge will meet the incoming trains and welcome the arrivals to the city. Among the visitors will be the members of the Eugene Radios, who telegraphed tonight that they will arrive 75 strong tomorrow. Following an exchange of greetings and a banquet of welcome, the Moose will be escorted to the local temple, from which place the lodgemen will parade the business streets of the city. Following the parade, which promises to be one of the grandest pageants ever witnessed in Southern Oregon, the procession will halt at Bellows' West End restaurant, where a barbecue will be served.

In the afternoon addresses will be delivered by District Attorney Brown and Senator Neuner, followed by a programme of sports, including the latter feature will be exhibitions of bronco busting by members of Tillier Wild West aggregation.

Tomorrow night's festivities will close with a grand ball at the Armory and the initiation of 50 candidates into the Moose order. The band and Riddick bands will furnish music tomorrow, while the Chemawa Indian school band will furnish music on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Strawberries and strawberries will be served free of charge during the festival.

EUGENE RADIATORS TO MARCH

First Appearance of Club in Uniform to Be at Roseburg.

EUGENE, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Twenty-five members of the Eugene Radiator Club, the first of its kind in the state, will go to Roseburg tomorrow morning to take part in the Strawberry Festival celebration.

This will be their first appearance in uniform.

WOMEN ORGANIZE LEAGUE

Aid for Sisters Fighting for Ballot, Aim of Local Workers.

Following the lecture before the Women's Club of Portland at the Y. M. C. A. last night, Judge Gohardt, who had closed the series of addresses for the present season, women who had served as clerks in the recent election and others who are interested in the extension of woman suffrage met and organized a Suffrage Extension League for the purpose of assisting in the suffrage movement in other states.

Miss Helen Gillespie was elected president, Mrs. George McMillan secretary and Mrs. W. P. Strandberg treasurer. The members declared that they intend to make the organization statewide and will carry on a campaign to increase the membership at once to 1000 in Portland alone. Several of the women who served in the recent election turned over the money they earned in that way to the fund for the extension of the suffrage movement in other states, and others announced their intention of doing likewise. Women who serve in the coming election are planning to make the same use of the money they receive for their services at that time.

In the suffrage extension movement from Oregon, active steps have been taken in several other states. More than 200 pounds of literature, pennants and other material have been sent to Pennsylvania and a large amount of suffrage campaign material has also been sent to Texas.

The lecture that preceded the organization of the women dealt with the preferential ballot under the new charter and Judge Gohardt gave a talk on the methods of computing the results of the election. His statements were disputed by W. C. Benbow at the close of the lecture, when the meeting was thrown open to questions, the dispute being over the interpretation of the term "majority" as used in the charter.

EX-BANKER SUED ON NOTES

Douglas Grand Jury May Investigate Acts of T. R. Sheridan.

ROSEBURG, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Representing a dozen or more local creditors, District Attorney George M. Brown today filed a suit in the Circuit Court in which he seeks to recover approximately $20,000 from T. R. Sheridan, until recently one of Southern Oregon's best-known bankers. The money is alleged to be due on promissory notes, some of which are alleged to have been executed in favor of Mr. Sheridan just prior to his departure for California a few months ago.

In addition to civil actions, it is understood here that a number of creditors will present evidence before the grand jury this week in hope of having Sheridan indicted on a criminal charge. Mr. Sheridan had resided here for many years, and it is believed his liabilities will total $75,000 in Douglas County.

Prior to leaving Roseburg, Mr. Sheridan was president of the First National Bank of this city. For years he was prominent locally.

Clark Spud Seeks Light.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—In an effort to reach the light, a potato vine stretched itself to the extraordinary length of eight feet three inches at the farm home of J. N. Pullman, of Fruit Valley. The vine was found by his son, Edward Pullman; it had grown through a hole under the

CITY SHAKE-UP NEAR

Spokane Commissioners Will Wield Ax, Is Report.

NEW LINEUP CAUSE GIVEN

Hindley, Fairley and Hayden, in Control, Threaten to Reduce or Discharge Coates' Men—Coates Plans Counter Move.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 20.—(Special.)—At least three city department heads in important positions are slated for removal from office as a direct result of a new City Council lineup, which throws Commissioners Hindley, Fairley and Hayden into control at the City Hall. As an indirect result the removal or reduction to subordinate positions of six other department heads and employees, including the chiefs of fire and police, is more than a probability.

While they deny that there is an avowed agreement among them to make any changes whatever in the city government organization, it is believed to be a tacit understanding that Commissioner Hayden, when he becomes head of the public works department under the secret agreement divulged Monday, will not only discharge A. W. Swanson, superintendent of the public works department, but will remove Grant O'Kieffe, general street foreman, and F. M. Hiatt, head of the municipal asphalt plant. Coates has already threatened to remove Chief of Police Doust and appoint Swanson in his place, and will, it is believed, reduce or discharge Fire Chief, Chief Building Inspector George Mackie, Plumbing Inspector Chisholm, Electrical Inspector W. A. Davis and other lesser employees not mentioned in the agreement. Weeks and Chisholm cannot be removed from the city service entirely, but merely reduced to the ranks, since they are protected by civil service and the subordinate positions which they held before promotion to heads of departments.

SAFETY LAW DEMANDED

TRAINMEN WANT MORE COMPREHENSIVE PROVISIONS.

Declaration Made That Provisions as to Hours of Service Are Evaded by Roads.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—More and better safety appliances are the object of a resolution of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. The resolution contemplates an effort to obtain more comprehensive Federal laws on this subject, through the Interstate Commerce Commission. One improvement particularly desired is a coupler that will operate from both sides of the car, as the trainmen declare they are subjected to great risk at times in operating the couplers now in use.

A more rigid Federal law regulating the number of hours a railroad man may be worked is the purpose of another resolution. The present law compels a company to give a man 16 hours' rest after each shift of 16 hours, but it is asserted that men often are worked for much longer periods, under the pretense that the train has been idle a considerable part of the time and actually moving only 16 hours. The railroad men would have the law limit their services to 16 hours' continuous duty, regardless of all other conditions except those brought about by a wreck.

Another movement set on foot today is intended to bring about legislation placing a minimum of $100 on fines for violation of the full crew law.

Governor Sulzer of New York was commended in a resolution for having signed the full crew bill recently passed by the Legislature at Albany, making it necessary for a train to have one engineer, one fireman, one conductor and three brakemen. It was announced that New York is the nineteenth state to adopt such a law.

Besides Sacramento, which entered early into the field for the 1915 convention, Cleveland appeared today as a serious contender for this honor.

PERMANENT ROAD SOUGHT

Concentrated Effort Hoped by Roseburg and Myrtle Point.

ROSEBURG, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—That one permanent road should be constructed and maintained between Roseburg and Myrtle Point to replace the two so-called trails now linking Coos and Douglas Counties, was the unanimous opinion of a half hundred good roads advocates who assembled at the Roseburg Commercial Club rooms Monday.

It was argued that it is better to maintain one good road than two half-traveled highways that could only be traveled with comfort during a few months in the year. To this end it was suggested that the old Marshfield road be abandoned as far as the two counties were concerned and that a concentrated effort be made to improve the Myrtle Point road that it may be traveled with ordinary ease during 12 months of the year.

While it was practically decided greatly to improve the Myrtle Point road it was deemed necessary to appoint a committee of 18 men to work out the preliminary details and there by ascertain the most feasible way to bring about a materialization of the project.

On this committee were appointed L. A. Roberts, A. D. Morrison, Judge Coke, Hugh McClain, Ira Bartle, George Tepping, O. A. Trowbridge and E. E. Weekly of Coos County, and Henry Harsh, O. P. Conroy, Henry Booth, A. C. Marsters, Lee Wimberly, C. D. Shoemaker, E. B. Stuart and George Houck, of Douglas County. The committee probably will meet and work out its plans within the next two weeks.

MEDFORD GREETSS LODGE

OREGON ODDFELLOWS ARE IN ANNUAL SESSION.

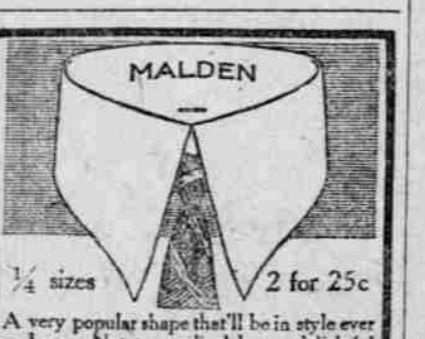

G. A. Pogue, of Ontario, Chosen Grand Patriarch—McMillanville Seeks Next Meeting.

MEDFORD, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—With the bands playing, three diminutive locomotives tooting and 1000 delegates cheering from eight flat cars and two freight cars and two passenger coaches, the most interesting event in today's session of the Oddfellows and Rebekahs' state convention was a pilgrimage to Jacksonville, where one of the first lodges of the order in the state was established. The delegates looked over this town, one of the oldest in Oregon, and after refreshments and entertainment by Jacksonville lodge, the unusual train, including the entire rolling stock of the Rogue River Valley Railroad, wound its way back to Medford, where, at 7 o'clock, there was a meeting for degree work and at 8 the exemplification of subordinate lodge degrees.

The election of officers in the grand lodge this afternoon resulted as follows: Grand patriarch, G. A. Pogue, Ontario; grand high priest, G. W. Wright.

PLEASURE - plus - REVENUE

From Portland to the Sandy River lies one of the most fertile valleys on the entire Pacific Coast. Surpassing in its advantages any territory adjacent to any other city in the United States.

Its good roads are arteries of trade and avenues of pleasure. Broad, macadamized, well-ballasted avenues reach out in all directions, bringing even the most distant parts in close touch with Portland.

Electric trains, with rapid service, make this beautiful and fertile valley one of Portland's most accessible suburbs.

In this valley there is no gambler's fortune. The conditions are so favorable that success is certain—the prices are based on what the land will produce. They are so reasonable and terms are so easy that the crop returns will pay for the land before and leave a surplus.

Send for our six-page illustrated booklet "From the City to the Sandy."

Williams, Frewater; grand marshal, Solomon S. Walker, Oregon City; grand outside sentinel, D. S. Young, Newport; grand representative, G. P. Rieckley, Harrisburg.

The election in the department council of the Patriarch Militant of Oregon resulted as follows: Brigadier-general, H. W. Beckwith, Portland; president, Colonel E. Ward The Dalles; vice-president, Major J. C. Jameson, Portland; secretary, Captain W. E. Wadsworth, Portland; treasurer, Brigadier-general F. A. Hanks, Baker; chaplain, Major P. G. T. Smith, Gold Hill; aide, Captain F. G. Snedcor, Medford; officer of the day, Captain F. L. Snodgrass, Eugene.

The election of the Rebekah lodge occurs tomorrow. McMinnville is being put forward as the next meeting place in 1914. People of that city came in force last night and have the largest delegation present. They are supplying everyone with badges of their city and are leaving no stone unturned to take the convention for 1914.

The Klamath Falls delegation is another large one and their object is to create sentiment favorable to their city for the 1915 convention.

To Light All Bridges.

All the bridges across Sullivan's Gulch are to be illuminated with lights placed close together, beginning with the Union-avenue bridge and closing with the East Twenty-eighth-street bridge. The wires and posts have all been placed and the wiring will be completed soon. Councilman Menefee, of the Ninth Ward, was instrumental in having these bridges lighted.

OREGON P. E. O. IN SESSION

Delegates From Chapters of State Meet at Multnomah.

The Oregon Grand Chapter of the P. E. O. Sisterhood are holding, in the peacock room of the Hotel Multnomah, their second annual convention. Delegates from the various chapters all over the state were in attendance yesterday when the formal session opened. Mrs. Edith Davis, president of Chapter A, gave the address of welcome, and the response was made by Mrs. Dorothy Seymour. Mrs. Samuel Shaw Parks, supreme president of Chicago, also spoke. A new charter was presented to the recently organized chapter of Eugene, the acceptance being in the hands of Mrs. Stockton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer Godding read a paper on "What Our Educational Fund Is Doing for Others and What We Are Doing for the Fund.

She spoke of this branch of the work being young, the first loan having been made in 1908, but that there were now 72 beneficiaries—worthy and ambitious girls who are being helped to fit themselves for their life work. These girls would otherwise have to go without educational benefits were it not for the help secured.

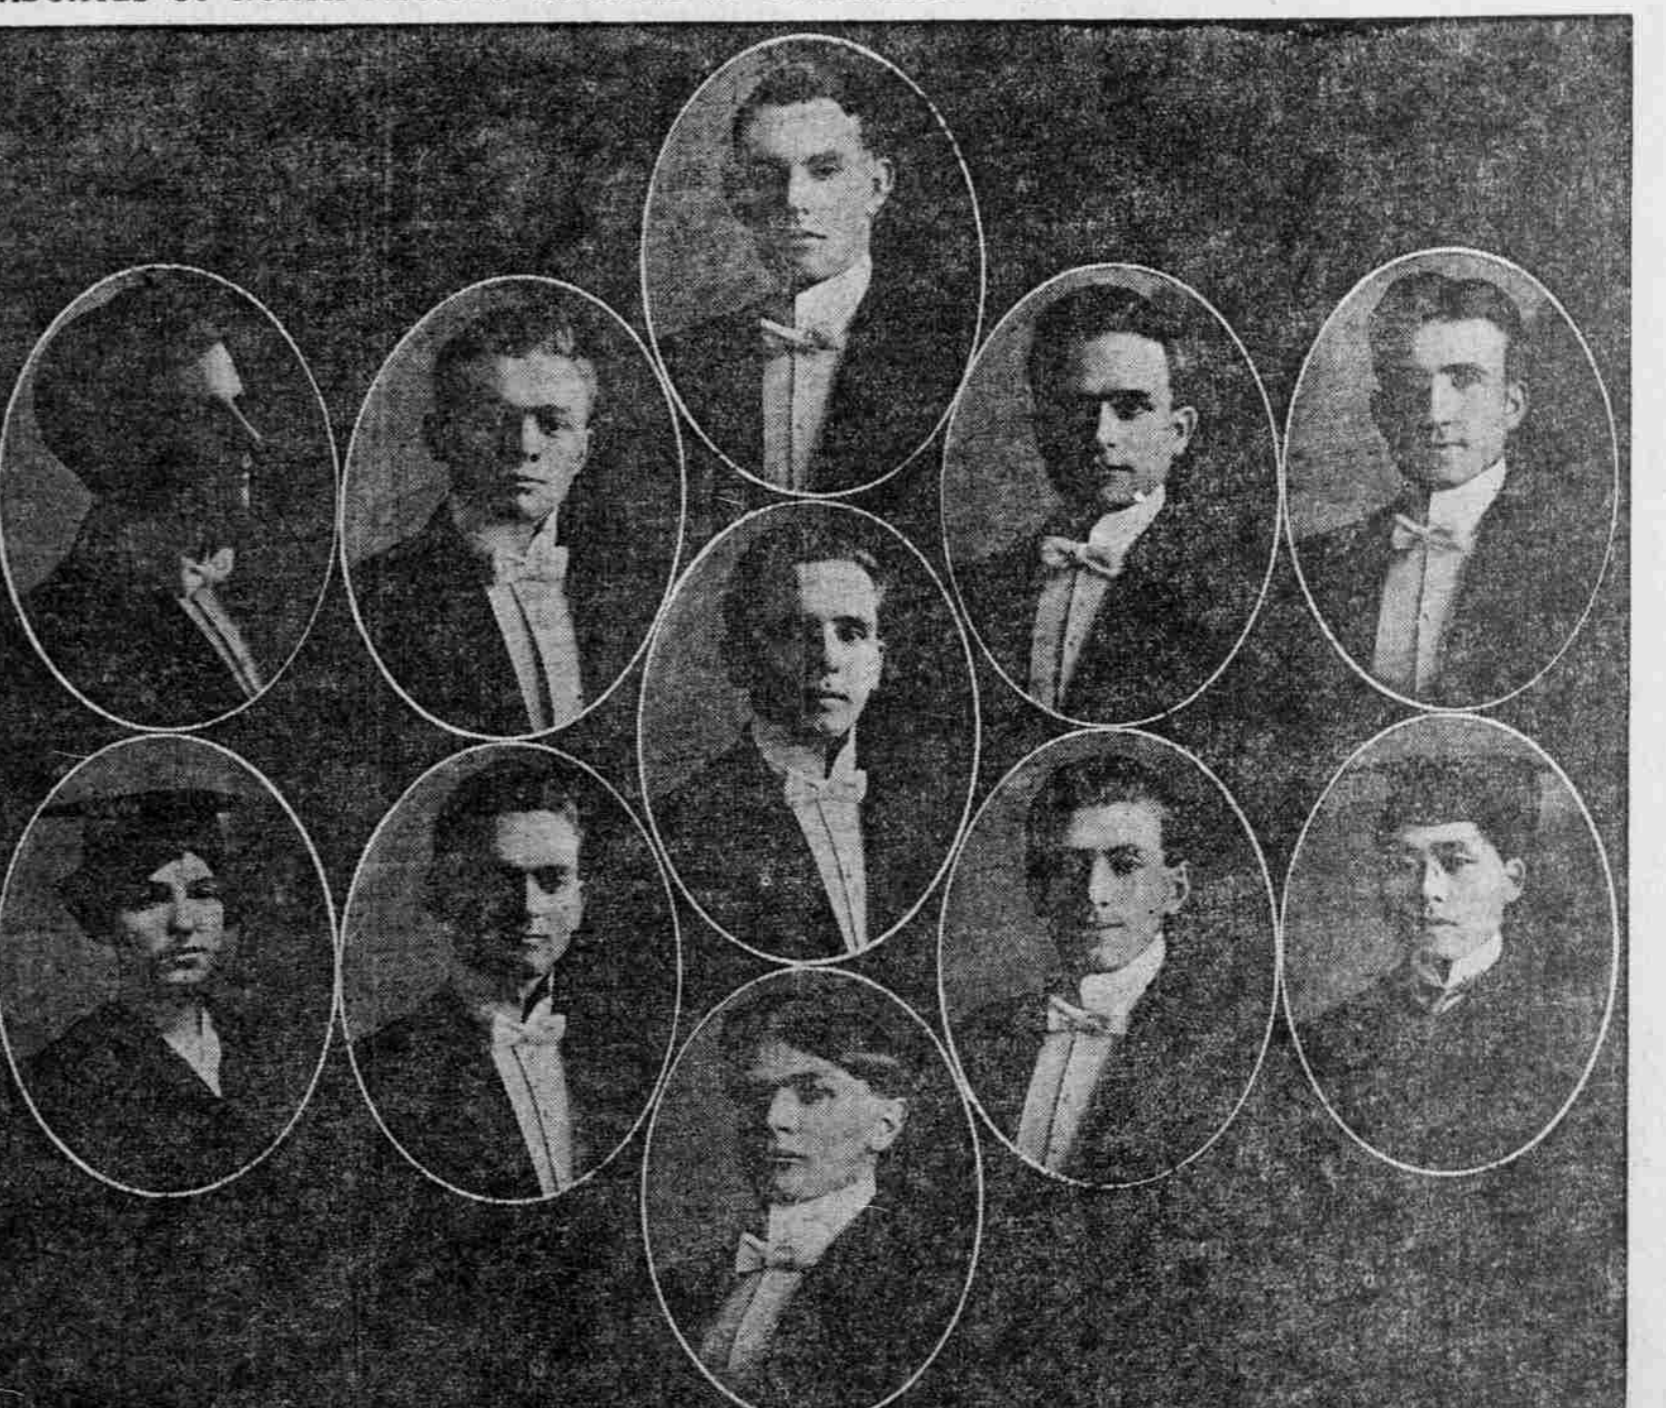

The members and their friends were entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. H. R. Albee. Among those who are assisting in arranging for the pleasure of the visitors are: Mrs. C. H. Davis, Mrs. E. E. Thomas, Mrs. S. H. Morgan, Mrs. C. E. Patterson, Mrs. Lone Townsend Wells, Mrs. W. P. Jones, Mrs. G. F. Peck, Mrs. Guy Rogers, Mrs. Thomas Edwards, Mrs. J. P. Jaeger and Mrs. J. C. Mann.
