More records of candidates for Commissionships at the June election are presented herewith by The Oregonian. The information has been secured in various ways. These reports are prepared by The Oregonian and have nothing to do with the investigation, report or findings of the Committee of One Hundred.

Clyde's Votes Aid Saloons. Ralph C. Clyde—Further investigation of the record of Councilman Ralph C. Clyde in regard to the liquor interests have revealed the following: In no way antagonistic to the saloon interests. Is evasive in the matter of liquor licenses. Is not an attendant of meetings of the Liquor License committee of the Council regularly. The license committee meets at 2 o'clock on each Thursday preceding Council meeting. The liquor license committee meets at 3 o'clock the same day. Clyde is a member of both committees. Often evades liquor license meetings by remaining in the license committee meetings. Other times absents himself when important questions are up for consideration. Signs the committee reports of saloons after many occasions. Council records of July 26, 1911, show that Clyde voted in favor of the granting of a license to W. P. Parker who conducted a saloon on Third street. The saloon a short time before was shut down by the police and the license revoked. It was necessary to amend the general liquor ordinance of the city to make it possible for this place to get a new license. It was said by the police to be a notorious saloon. Clyde supported the proposition favoring the saloon with his vote. Over the protest of residents on North Union avenue a license was granted September 13, 1911, for a saloon at 700 Union avenue North, with Clyde's approval. Same thing occurred on September 27, 1911, on a saloon on Holladay avenue and Adams street. At a meeting of the Council October 19, 1911, he voted in committee of the whole to revoke the license of John Schlenk and Fred Sechem. In Council meeting did not oppose the indefinite postponement of the revocation. On October 19, 1911, voted for the transfer of a license of Tony Arnold to George W. Fuhr. At a later meeting voted against the indefinite postponement of any transfers from then until Frank Minto. Also at same day approved the transfer of ten other saloon licenses. Did not oppose the granting of any transfers from then until December 27, 1911, when he went on a two months' trip to California. After return in February not recorded as favoring preventing any saloon license transfers. There were 101 transfers in that time. Voted to revoke the license of Emil Glitch, who held license upon which the notorious racketeer in the basement of the Yeon building was conducted. Went to the front July 24, 1912, to give H. Meister a saloon license at 610 Williams avenue. Is accused by other Councilmen of remaining neutral on saloon license questions until he is on the winning side. Voted in favor of the ordinance doing away with free lunches in saloons. First made sure by letter and otherwise that the majority of the saloon people were in favor of such action.

Maguire Against Free Lunches. James Maguire—Born in Ireland in 1854, of Scotch-Irish parents. Received a common school education. Ran away from home when a boy and landed in Boston at age of 17 years. Worked for time in factories of New England and attended high schools. Studied law 13 months. Learned engineering trade. Came to Portland in 1886. Worked first on streetcars and later in logging camps and other places. Was employed for time by Weisbach Brewery. In 1906 went into the real estate business with nominal success. Was elected to the City Council in June, 1911 in the recall election against ex-Councilman Ellis. In the Council has been one of the minority members. Has been accused of grandstanding and playing to the galleries. Is sharp in his remarks and has a temper. Mixes with labor union affairs and poses as champion of the working man. Is radical in ideas regarding public service companies. Is not considered antagonistic to the liquor interests. Was author of the anti-free-lunch ordinance, which the majority of men favored. Was candidate for Republican nomination for Mayor in the last primary election and ran third in the race. Political strength centered in his own district. Quizzes are not popular. No serious factor at any stage of the game. Taxes—Pays $110.50 on real estate.

Davis Successful Lawyer. James N. Davis—Attorney. Born in Illinois in 1858. Educated in public schools, high school and the law school of the Illinois State University. Resided in Kansas from 1861 to 1890. Practiced law in Lawrence and Topeka until 1890 when he came to Oregon. Since coming here has practiced law continuously. In 1896 was elected to the State Legislature of Oregon. There was no session and he had no chance to serve. Was a candidate in the election of 1908 for District Attorney. Was defeated. For nine years from 1892 to 1901 was member of the law firm of Davis, Gantenbein & Veazie. Has handled many important law suits in which the city has been either plaintiff or defendant. Is considered a good attorney and successful in his practice. Is well spoken of by associates and acquaintances. Political strength considered limited to his own personal following. Candidacy not seriously regarded. Taxes—Pays personal tax of $3.80 and $129.80 on real estate.

Wilson's Resident. John D. Wilson—Investment. Born in Oregon City in 1857. Educated in public schools and Portland Academy. Came to Portland in 1865. In 1874 entered the United States service as an engineer. Was in that work for six years. Later was bookkeeper in the First National Bank for a short time. In 1880 went into the real estate business. In 1884 studied law in the office of the late John H. Mitchell. Afterward went to the Hastings Law

PAIR WED 10 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme Receive on Anniversary.

HOME BOWER OF BEAUTY

Bearer of Ring at Wedding Also Assists at Observance of Tenth Year—Vocal and Instrumental Music Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prudhomme entertained a large number of friends last night at their hospitable home in Irving street. The occasion was the tenth anniversary of their wedding. The house was a bower of beauty with Scotch broom banked in the music-room, pink carnations and pink roses in the drawing-room, and white sweet peas and maidenhair fern in the dining-room. The table was artistically decorated and all the appointments carried out the color scheme of the room, green and white. Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Mary Norden and Mrs. J. T. Edwards. Those who presided in the dining-room and assisted were: Mrs. A. D. Monteth, Miss Lucille Delahunty, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Irene Flynn, Miss Mamie Helen Flynn, Miss Lorena Prudhomme, Miss Frances Norden, Miss Mabel Beck and Miss Elizabeth Willis served at the punch bowl. Many handsome gowns graced the reception. Mrs. Prudhomme was attired in a becoming robe of peach satin crepe elaborated with Venetian lace with drap of lemon chiffon embroidered in pearls. Throughout the evening an orchestra, hidden behind palms, played delightfully, and a number of solos were contributed by J. J. Flynn, Miss Irene Flynn and George Hotchkiss Street. An interesting coincidence was that Miss Delahunty, who assisted at last night's reception, was ring-bearer at the wedding ceremony ten years ago.

Mrs. J. T. Edwards, who has been the house guest of the Prudhommess for several weeks, will leave this morning for her home in Medford, Wis. She will be accompanied by Miss Lorena Prudhomme, who will pass a year there. Mrs. J. H. Valentine and daughter, Miss Elinor Valentine, have just concluded a month's visit in Portland, where they have been widely entertained.

Miss Mabelle Peterson has returned from a visit to Eastern Idaho. The younger set are anticipating the entertainment to be given on Friday evening at the Jefferson High School. The affair will take the form of a little comedy entitled "The Private Secretary," and the cast will include several members of the graduating class. Miss Mabel Van Zante, Miss Echo Zahl, Miss Ruth Cushing and Miss Marian Niel will have attractive parts. Clever work will be done by Frank Russell, Alex Lange, Frank Simmons, Robert Murray, James Read, Herbert Kimball, Harland Littlejohns. Raymond Buckley and Edmund Simmons are attending to the business preliminaries. The La Hoa Club will give a shirt waist party on next Tuesday evening.

In Christiansen's Hall. Invitations will soon be issued. This will be the closing dance of the season.

Mrs. G. Parrish entertained the members of "Der Unterhaltungs Verein" yesterday at her beautiful country home, "Five Acres." The guests enjoyed the day in the ideal garden. Mrs. Nathan Harris, the leader of the interesting little German club, was presented with a handsome present by the members.

Miss Frances Brady, a popular member of the younger set, is at St. Vincent's Hospital where she underwent a serious operation yesterday.

Mrs. Walter Yerlan's bridge tea for Miss Irene Flynn on Monday was a delightful affair, the appointments being most attractive. Among those who shared the afternoon's pleasures were: Mrs. George Schott, Mrs. George Boschke, Mrs. Frank Butler, Mrs. Guy Standifer, Mrs. Walter Gearin, Mrs. Joseph Mauss, Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. Dorothy Moulton, Miss Mildred Moulton, Miss Ruby Creighton, Miss Mamie Helen Flynn, Miss Gretchen Klosterman, Miss Katherine Hunt, Miss Henriette Rothschild, Miss Irene Daly, Miss Alma Lauritzen, Miss Mabel Weed, Miss Katal Brandel, Miss Lucille Dunn, Miss Elizabeth McCarthy, of Pueblo, Colo., and Mrs. Roland Chapman. The party took place at the home of Mrs. Horace Luckett.

Tomorrow Miss Dorothy Moulton will give a noon luncheon followed by an auto trip and in the evening Mrs. J. C. Costello will preside at a dinner party, both festivities being planned for Miss Flynn.

Miss Bertha Witt, whose engagement was announced recently, was given a linen shower at her home on East Couch street last week. Those present included the Misses Laura Furlap, Helen Gardner, Olga and Olga Haltingley, Hazel M. Kosterman, Hattie Mulkey, Sigrid Munson, Marie Meyers, Mabel Olson, Ida Peterson, Lottie Sharp, Mrs. O. W. West, Beatrice West.
