

JOE DAY AWAITING REAL JACK LEWIS

Detective Insists He Will Take Von Klein to Portland for Using That Name.

CASE IN STRANGE TANGLE

Slueth Dines With Prisoner and Quarrels—Unpaid Board Bill May Keep Star Witness From Marriage Swindle Hearing.

CHICAGO, May 23.—(Special.)—Jack Lewis is a mighty unlucky name. One man who is said to have used it must answer to Miss Ethel Newcomb for marrying her and stealing her diamonds. Another in the same case, ate too much and did not pay for what he ate, according to an Elgin restaurateur. He, too, is headed for durance vile.

When the real Jack Lewis, of Minneapolis, arrives in Chicago Monday as Miss Newcomb's star witness against E. C. Von Klein, whose marrying her is said to have advised "Rock Lewis," he will be asked about his appetite and arrested at the instance of Robert Roberts & Brother, of Elgin.

Board Bill Worries Slueth. The real Jack Lewis, of Minneapolis, and his wife were residents of Elgin for several months. Lewis posed as a broker and was a solicitor for the American Loan Society. He made friends rapidly and, in parlance, "cut a swath about town," but the board bill mounted to $25. Then Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left.

Joe Day, detective sergeant who has come to Chicago to take Von Klein back to Portland, received many promises from the real Jack Lewis that he would appear as a witness. When he heard of the board bill today he wasn't quite so sure his witness would come.

Day is an old-timer among sleuths. The first day he reached Chicago he had a "run-in" with Von Klein and called him a grafter. Since then the detective and the prisoner have been good friends. They dined together day after day at Smiley Corbett's Lamb's Club. The white-haired sleuth—he's about half as big as Von Klein—cleaned over the table. The argument was becoming heated.

Detective and Prisoner Quarrel. "You're going back with me," cried Day and he shook his finger under Von Klein's nose.

"I'll not go back with you," yelled Von Klein and he shook his finger. "Bring your grip to the courtroom, young man, for you'll never get a chance to get it if you don't," was Day's comeback.

Then dined at other tables began to look up and Day and Von Klein left the place. Day says he doesn't care whether the real Jack Lewis goes or not, that he identify Von Klein as the "Jack Lewis" who married Ethel Newcomb, and then he'll buy two long tickets for the City of Roses. Judge Kersten is going to give a final decision in the case Monday.

VON KLEIN CASE IS SET

Extradition Chances Are Considered Hopeful.

Prospects for the extradition of E. E. C. Von Klein from Chicago to answer a charge of stealing the jewels of Ethel Newcomb, his purported wife, are growing brighter, according to a dispatch received yesterday from Detective Day, who is in Chicago, seeking the custody of the prisoner. Day writes that final hearing of habeas corpus proceedings has been set for May 26, and he believes that the writ will be dismissed. Von Klein's attorneys, it is said, already advised him to cease fighting, but the prisoner has insisted upon a hearing.

Three years ago a young woman calling herself Mrs. George B. Lewis complained to the police that her newlywed husband had abandoned her at the Portland Hotel, taking her jewelry valued at $2500. No trace of the man was found until six weeks ago, when the woman herself encountered him in Chicago and caused his arrest. Since then attempts have been made to identify him as the deluder of half a score of women in various parts of the country. Detective Day was sent after Lewis, or Von Klein, but met with one of the longest extradition fights in police annals. The prisoner is backed by wealthy relatives, who have furnished a bond of $1000.

Western Democrats Plan to Make Showing on Tariff.

SENATORS ASKED TO HELP

Mock Amendment, Giving Wool 15 Per Cent and Sugar One Cent a Pound, Not Designed for Ultimate Adoption.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 23.—Western Democratic Senators who are embarrassed by the free wool and free sugar provisions of the Underwood bill have proposed to the Senate leaders in the hope of lessening their embarrassment that the tariff bill be amended before being reported by the financial committee so that it will carry a duty of 15 per cent on wool and retain a permanent duty of 1 cent per pound on sugar. It is part of the proposal that the Senate shall agree to these amendments, probably by a combination of Republican and Western Democratic votes with the understanding that when the bill is sent to conference for an adjustment of the differences between the Senate and House the Senate ultimately will yield on these items and agree to free wool and free sugar.

A girl employed at Nugents' department store testified that she got $6 salary and commission that increased her earnings almost to $8 a week. When ill recently she paid $4 a week for a room in a hospital, in addition to the doctor's bill. She received no salary during her illness, but drew $10 from a beneficial aid organization in the store, to which she contributed 20 cents a week.

A waitress who makes $4 a week from 11 A. M. to 3 P. M. was asked if she ever went to the parks on Sunday.

"I do if someone takes me," she replied. "Not on my own money. I can't afford it. I'm lucky if I have carfare to go to work."

STRIKE PAYMENT TRACED TO WOOD

Court Admits Checks as Evidence in Trial of Woolen Company Official.

TREASURER IS WITNESS

Offer of Atteaux to Help Arrange Settlement of Textile Strike Referred to—Wood Present at Citizens' Meeting.

BOSTON, May 23.—Two checks, one of which was in payment of "expenses incurred during strike at Lawrence," were traced to the offices of the American Woolen Company at the dynamic conspiracy trial today. The checks were issued on the authority of William M. Wood, president of the company, and were payable to Frederick E. Atteaux, a dye manufacturer, who with Wood and Dennis Collins were charged with conspiring to "plant" dynamite at Lawrence, to discredit the striking textile operators during the industrial troubles of 1912.

It was a check for $605, issued May 22, 1912, the voucher for which explained that the payment was for expenses incurred during the strike. The voucher corresponding with a second check for $2100, dated June 23, 1912, for $2100, showed that it was issued "in full for all claims and demands to date." The $605 check was signed by Wood as treasurer. The $2100 check bore the signature of William Dwyer, Jr., treasurer of the company. Both vouchers had been approved, William M. Wood, president.

Payment Ordered by Wood. Treasurer Dwyer, who was called as a Government witness, testified that the check signed by him was issued at the direction of Wood. He said Atteaux had volunteered his services to President Wood to help arrange a settlement of the strike. The examination of Mr. Dwyer occupied the greater part of the day and he will be heard again when the trial resumed Monday.

In admitting the checks and vouchers as evidence, Judge Crosby ruled that they would not be competent unless other evidence should be introduced later connecting the document directly with the alleged conspiracy. These papers furnished the first evidence introduced so far in the trial that connected Wood with the case.

In the course of the testimony today Dwyer said the meeting between Wood and Atteaux, at which Atteaux offered his services to help with a settlement, was the only meeting of the greater kind about which he knew. He never learned whether Atteaux' offer was accepted by Wood, though the payment of $505 to Atteaux led him to believe that Wood had engaged his services.

Wood silent. News. Leonard E. Bennick, of Lawrence, who was a member of the citizens' committee appointed at the time of the strike, said he attended a meeting of the committee at a hotel in Boston. Several Lawrence mill men, including Mr. Wood, were present. At the meeting the witness was called to the telephone. When he again joined the other he said:

"Gentlemen, something terrible has happened in Lawrence. I have just received a message from the Mayor saying that dynamite has been found in different parts of the city."

"What did Mr. Wood say?" asked Prosecutor Pelletier.

"Nothing," answered Bennick.

The witness said that at a later time he and two others of the citizens' committee went to Mr. Wood's house to talk over the situation. Mr. Wood was ill in bed. Atteaux was present at this meeting.

power. If the United States government should deliver a state over to the mercies of a flood of aliens from any Nation, then I maintain that the Federal Government would have prostituted its authority. Is the mere announcement of this principle a declaration of war?"

Sisson made a long argument purporting to show the possibility of incorporation control of land, which would be made possible by allowing the importation of "cheap alien labor."

"Many of these large employers of labor," he said, "would be delighted to have the Federal Government, through its treaty-making power, let down the bars and let the alien come in. What would become of the American farmer if the great corporations of the country should buy all the best lands and cultivate them with Mongolian, Chinese, Hindu, Japanese and other cheap alien labor?"

REPORT NOT FAVORABLE

CHIEF WIRELESS INSPECTOR VISITS SAN FRANCISCO.

Government Official Rules That None Other Than Experienced Operators May Be Employed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—(Special.)—J. C. Krumm, chief of the United States Wireless Inspection Service in the Department of Commerce, arrived in San Francisco today to take part in the hearing of the wireless jurisdiction of the Pacific Coast in the strike of wireless operators. Chief Krumm called on Collector of Customs Stratton today to talk over the issuing temporary permits for wireless operators during the strike. Collector Stratton informed the chief inspector that only three special permits had been issued and that he had informed B. H. Wolverton, in charge of the San Francisco Government wireless inspection bureau, that none but experienced and qualified operators would be permitted to take positions on ships.

Chief Inspector Krumm was sent by the Department of Commerce as a result of a report submitted by a special agent who visited the Coast several weeks ago and is said to have made a report unfavorable to the manner in which the Pacific Coast Government wireless supervision was being conducted. A committee representing the strikers has arranged a meeting with Mr. Krumm to explain the grievances and to ask fair play on the part of the Government.
