

O'ROURKE'S PONY IN BEARS' JAMES

Beavers Lose to Venice, 2 to 1, in Hard Pitching Battle, Koestner Winning.

PASS TO TIGER IS FATAL

With Two Out in Eleventh, Portland Hurler Walks Hops, Who Steals and Scores on Patsy's Liner. Derriek Is Beaver Star.

Pacific Coast League Standings.

At Los Angeles—Venice 2, Portland 1 (11 Innings). At San Francisco—Oakland 7, Los Angeles 4. At Sacramento—Sacramento 6, San Francisco 4.

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—(Special).—Patsy O'Rourke for the second time won for himself and the undying gratitude of Eddie Maier. In the 11th inning today, with two men out, he landed on the ball for a single to right which scored Hops and won the game for the Venice Tigers. Score: Venice 2, Portland 1.

Both the Beavers and the Tigers tallied in the first frame of today's game and from then until the fatal 11th, James and Koestner battled for supremacy, each sending their opponents to the bench in the one, two, three, or four. In the seventh, with two out, James allowed Hops free passage to first, and Hops stole second. Patsy now strode to the plate, determined that James would not purposely send him to first by the rambler route, as he had in the ninth, and sent the sphere over Rodgers' head for a single and even honors in the hit column, but Koestner had the advantage in the passes, permitting two men to reach first while James walked three. In the first inning, Derriek reached first on Carlisle's miscue and annexed second. Koestner singled to center, scoring Derriek.

In the Tigers' half of the same frame Kane singled to right and went to third of Bayless' single to the same locality. Hops fouled out to Derriek, Bayless going to third, showing some speed. In the second the Beavers made a valiant attempt to score but Koestner knocked up today's game. Derriek and McCormick had reached third and second, fanning James. Chadbourne's long fly, which, if only one had been out, would have scored Krueger, then went for naught. Score: Venice 2, Portland 1.

VAN BUREN BREAKS UP GAME

Home Run with One on in Ninth Gives Wolves Victory Over Seals.

SACRAMENTO, May 23.—Deacon Van Buren broke into today's game as a pinch hitter with one man on base and the Sacramento Wolves one run in the hole, and responded with a home run drive to left field, scoring two runs for a ninth-inning finish that left the Wolves 5 to 3 winners over San Francisco. The rally came with two men out when Tennant rapped out his third hit of the day, and Van Buren's home run came after two strikes had been called on him.

Hallinan, playing his first game with the Wolves, pitched two runs and helped along another. Score: Wolves 5, Seals 3.

OAKS BUNCH HITS ON CHECH

Angels Make 12 and Commuters 11, but Mitze's Team Wins.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Heavy sticking generally, marked the game today between Oakland and Los Angeles, which was won by the Oaks, 7 to 4. The Oaks got 11 hits for their share and the Angels took an even dozen. Chech pitched four air-tight innings, but after that the Oaks began to find him pretty frequently, the result being that the runs came in bunches. The score: Los Angeles 11, Oakland 7.

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—(Special).—The Oaks won today's game against San Francisco, 7 to 4, at the Mission. The game was won by the Oaks, 7 to 4, with two men out, James allowed Hops free passage to first, and Hops stole second. Patsy now strode to the plate, determined that James would not purposely send him to first by the rambler route, as he had in the ninth, and sent the sphere over Rodgers' head for a single and even honors in the hit column, but Koestner had the advantage in the passes, permitting two men to reach first while James walked three.

Ex-Northwestern League Pitcher Too Slow for Boston Nationals.

NEW YORK, May 23.—(Special).—Lucien F. Gervais, a former Northwestern League pitcher, has been found too slow for fast company and the Boston Nationals have sent him to Buffalo in the International League. Gervais pitched twice for Vancouver last year and was sold through Joseph Cohn, of Spokane, to Boston.

OSBORNE IS BUCK STAR

Pendleton Pitcher Makes 4 Hits; Allows Seven.

THE WALLA WALLA BEARS celebrated their return to the home quarters by defeating La Grande, of the Western Tri-State League, 14 to 5, Friday. Pendleton beat Boise, 6 to 3, and Baker won over North Yakima, 8 to 7.

The Walla Walla game was characterized by heavy hitting, nine twos being hit. Gervais, pitcher, for the bears, pitched a good game for five innings. Then he weakened and seven men came in with no outs in the sixth. Druhot went in and allowed two runs in the seventh. In the eighth the team batted around and all but one scored. The score: R.H.E. Walla Walla 14, La Grande 5 12 4. Batteries—Laird, Kelly and Brown; Fitcher, Druhot and Peterson.

BEES AGAIN DEFEAT INDIANS

Risberg's Bad Play Costs Spokane Hard-Fought Game With Victoria.

VICTORIA, May 23.—Victoria won a tough uphill battle from Spokane today in the ninth inning, Risberg making a bad play by lobbing the ball to second, on which he grounded out. When a fast play might have cut down two and retired the Bees without a run. Score: Victoria 3, Spokane 2.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—Philadelphia won today the third straight game from Cincinnati 4 to 1.

The Phillies' victory was due to a home run drive into the bleachers by Almeida. Three double plays were made by the home team. Only four batsmen faced Brennan. Brecher, who made a pair of doubles, was the only man, in addition to Almeida, to get as far as second base.

Today's game would not have been called a "woodville" next week if it were not for the sport that behoveed the Beavers to wallop the tar out of San Francisco. Otherwise the box office would have no show to make a bid for the silver.

of the third. McVoor held the Browns at his mercy from then on. Vancouver scored her three runs in the third inning, when Clark was safe on Jackson's error. Brinker singled to left but Bennett forced Clark to third. Kipper walked, and then Frisk tripled to center, scoring Bennett and Kipper. Walsh's single to center scored Kipper. McVoor hit the ball over the right-field fence in the fifth inning for a home run. This is the first time a homer has been made over this fence since last league opened. Score: Vancouver 3, Seattle 1.
