

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES.
Prestige Room... Main 7070. A 6000
City Circulation... Main 7070. A 6000
Managing Editor... Main 7070. A 6000
Sunday Editor... Main 7070. A 6000
Composing Room... Main 7070. A 6000
Superintendent Building... Main 7070. A 6000
ORPHEUM THEATRE (Broadway and Taylor) - Vaudeville. This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.
BAKER THEATRE (Broadway and Morrison) - Vaudeville. This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.
EMPEROR THEATRE (Broadway and Yamhill) - Vaudeville. This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.
ANTHONY'S THEATRE (Broadway and Alder) - Vaudeville. This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.
LYRIC THEATRE (Fourth and Stark) - Vaudeville. This afternoon at 2:15 and tonight at 8:15.
PEOPLE'S STAR ARCADE ON JOY, TIVOLI AND CRYSTAL - First-run pictures. 11 A. M. to 12.
HOLBEIN THEATRE (Eleventh and Washington) - Continuous first-run motion pictures.
GARDEN AMUSEMENT PARK (near First and Alder) - Royal Italian Band and vaudeville. Afternoons at 2:15 and 4:30 P. M.
RECREATION PARK (Twenty-fourth and Vaughn) - Baseball. 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.
TRAINING SCHOOL MUST RECEIVE BOY - Juvenile Judge Gatens has written a letter to W. S. Hale, superintendent of the State Training School at Salem, telling him that he has no right to refuse to receive Earl Riley, a particularly obstreperous Portland youth, and that the boy will be sent to him.
CAPTAIN CRESSWELL ARRIVES - Captain Milton Cresswell arrived Saturday from San Diego with his wife in an automobile to remain until after the Rose Festival. Captain Cresswell makes a same trip every year to Portland to be present at the festival.
CHILDREN TO BE SCORED - The weekly democratic Parent-Teachers Educational Bureau tomorrow afternoon will include the weighing and measuring of children under 4 years, and scores cards will be filled out and given to mothers.
BAR ASSOCIATION TO MEET - The regular monthly meeting of the regular monthly meeting will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in Judge McGinn's courtroom, on the fifth floor of the Courthouse.
CHURCH RAISING ORGAN FUND - The First Universalist Church, East Twenty-fourth street and Broadway, is endeavoring to raise $1200 for the pipe organ.
MRS. WEATHERED TO SPEAK - Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered will address a company of women at the home of Mrs. C. W. Wender, near Peninsula, Friday.
ALMA MATER CONFERENCE ANNOUNCED - The Mount Scott Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a silver jubilee essay contest today at the Friends church at Leita, on the topic of "Industrialism vs. Purity."
PORTLAND OFFICERS RETURN - Deputy Sheriff Charles Fuller returned from McNeill's Island yesterday after safely placing five Government prisoners behind the bars.
WORTH GETS COMMISSION - E. G. Worth yesterday received his commission as surveyor general of Oregon, in accordance with his recent appointment by President Wilson.
W. R. BISHOP LAID TO REST - Rev. E. Nelson Allen Pays Tribute to Late Minister.
"Be of Good Cheer" was the text used by Rev. E. Nelson Allen in his sermon yesterday at the funeral of W. R. Bishop, which was held at the Haworth Park Presbyterian Church, East Twelfth and East Taylor streets.
PORTLAND'S BEST LUNCH - Served at the Holtz Store.
DECORATION DAY - At Gearhart "By-the-Sea."
NATIONAL WINE & SPIRITS COMPANY - Your Vacation Pictures.
FRIEDLANDERS - Beg to announce that they will include in their 25 Per Cent Reduction Sale a shipment of the latest up-to-date sterling silver novelties for wedding presents.
WATCHES DIAMONDS - Before investing compare our prices. We can save you money. Cut Glass, Art and Leather Goods at actual cost.
OREGON LIFE - Best for Oregonians.
SOL DUC HOT SPRINGS HOTEL - In the Heart of the Olympics.

LINCOLN MAN ARRESTED - William Lett, living in the hills back of the Linn quarry jail, was arrested Saturday night by Marshal A. L. Treber, of Linn, and is being held in the County Jail.
MILK FOUND POOR - Washington Dairy Supply is Declared Insanitary.
AVERAGE PERCENTAGE 46.5 - Inspector Finds That, With Scarcely Exception, Dairymen Fail to Live Up to Terms of Milk Ordinance.
A Fraudulent Title - May harass but one person in a thousand, but that one person has a mighty unpleasant and expensive experience.
A NEW THOUGHT BY EXPRESS - Pure silk hose for men—blue with white dots and ties to match.
STORE CLOSED ALL DAY FRIDAY "DECORATION DAY" - We want the day off, so please get your "fixin's" early.
LION CLOTHING CO. - "The Steinbach Store" Morrison at Fourth.
We Will Deliver for You - Here's the schedule: Call up Main 6499 or A 4499, and your orders will receive prompt attention.
New Bills Open at the Vaudeville Houses - Of course it was Bud. "our Bud," at all times, despite the quality of the other attractions.
W. R. BISHOP LAID TO REST - Rev. E. Nelson Allen Pays Tribute to Late Minister.
"Be of Good Cheer" was the text used by Rev. E. Nelson Allen in his sermon yesterday at the funeral of W. R. Bishop, which was held at the Haworth Park Presbyterian Church, East Twelfth and East Taylor streets.
PORTLAND'S BEST LUNCH - Served at the Holtz Store.
DECORATION DAY - At Gearhart "By-the-Sea."
NATIONAL WINE & SPIRITS COMPANY - Your Vacation Pictures.
FRIEDLANDERS - Beg to announce that they will include in their 25 Per Cent Reduction Sale a shipment of the latest up-to-date sterling silver novelties for wedding presents.
WATCHES DIAMONDS - Before investing compare our prices. We can save you money. Cut Glass, Art and Leather Goods at actual cost.
OREGON LIFE - Best for Oregonians.
SOL DUC HOT SPRINGS HOTEL - In the Heart of the Olympics.

LINCOLN MAN ARRESTED - William Lett, living in the hills back of the Linn quarry jail, was arrested Saturday night by Marshal A. L. Treber, of Linn, and is being held in the County Jail.
MILK FOUND POOR - Washington Dairy Supply is Declared Insanitary.
AVERAGE PERCENTAGE 46.5 - Inspector Finds That, With Scarcely Exception, Dairymen Fail to Live Up to Terms of Milk Ordinance.
A Fraudulent Title - May harass but one person in a thousand, but that one person has a mighty unpleasant and expensive experience. You will do well to protect yourself with a Guaranteed Certificate of Title. It tells you where you stand. Investigate. Call for booklet. Title & Trust Co., 4th and Oak sts.
ever, Miss Loftus presents her impression of Maud Allen in a Spring song dance with interpretative music.
Miss Loftus' act is of the highest artistic worth and is a delightful study. She has a deep, throaty voice with delicious thrills in it, and her personal charm is evident.
Second place is filled by two singing comedians, Matthews and Al Shayne. They have a tabloid fantasy called "A Night on the Bowery." A street scene is depicted, with lights and a Chinese lodging-house to sing in a fine baritone, a tuneful melody, "In Dreamy Chinatown." Then the other chap, in top hat and dress clothes, comes along. He is a Hebrew dialectician, and has one song, "Foi-de-Roi-de-rol," that goes great. The two have a "laugh-getter in the guise of a chat about Dreamland, the land of the poppy. Then they do a bit of opera burlesque and some real singing. Their act is a big hit.
Harry De Coe, the man with the tables and chairs, is also a man who flirts and coquettes daintily with the grim reaper. To the imminent risk of his neck, he is coupled with the rare novelty of the act, gets a windfall of appreciation.
After Irene Hershey plays rag time the audience applauds the head off. Until then her playing on the cymbal—a cross between a spinnet and a xylophone—is confined solely to rhythmic accompaniment.
Rejoicing solely in the title "The Girl from Chicago," a great big beautiful doll type of girl sings well-selected airs in a voice also great, big and beautiful.
The five Hurleys are speed boys and girls in an exciting act of acrobatic black face comedians, "politely" profane, a sketch called "The Detective and Cain" wanting to learn the business. The denouement is clever. The Edison talking pictures complete the bill.
Lyrice.
SPASHED all through with tuneful melodies sung by folk with good singing voices is the operetta comique at the Lyric this week. It is entitled "The Girl from Chicago," which suggests, but does not completely convey, an idea of the ingredients that go into its composition. Whether the lines and comedy situations are worked out and the songs interpolated, or the song revue made up and the dialogue made to fit it, is not discernible from the composite showing.
Whichever way they constructed it the effect is telling. It makes for comedy that is lively, and a warble of wit and it's all highly diverting. The story told briefly is rearrangement of the dilemma of the bachelor who has a wealthy father and a poor wife and a baby in order to secure more allowance from the old man. When father decides to visit the son a wife and baby must be borrowed hurriedly. To complicate matters a bit a mother-in-law also must be secured up from somewhere since her existence has been mentioned often in the comedy.
The present company at the Lyric abounds in good voices and every musical number was applauded. The Romig twins, as alike as peas in a pod, were recalled a half dozen times with their singing and dancing specialty. A trio of male voices was heard in a delightful "close harmony" minus orchestra accompaniment.
Acting honors appertain evenly. Paul Stanhope "comedies" about merrily with a fine voice and a rolling guttural in his voice. Tiny Snyder and H. Guy Woodward "get away" in excellent style respectively with a surprisingly fine "tummy" and a warble of wit and dandy parody on "Insanity" with local politics for its subject matter. Vera Alwyn, whose soprano is melodious and soars with great ease and purity, sings a ditty, too, with the chorus of the chorus. It is all there, with a plentiful supply of new steps. When something else isn't doing there's a dash of the chorus of "robbers" to come on and surprise in something new. "The Love Cure" will continue all week, with matinees daily and performances every night.
EMPEROR.
WILLIE RITCHIE, champion lightweight of the world, is the most important of the many excellent attractions offered in this week's bill at the Empress. In "Fun in a Gymnasium," Ritchie does some clever stunts, putting up a good, clean and entertaining show. At yesterday afternoon's performance he closed his number with a two-round boxing bout with "Spiker" Hennessy. During the week other local celebrities will be supported by the young champion. He is supported by his manager, Billy Nolan.
Hal Stephens, a character actor, was seen in selections from several well-known plays. His interpretation of Shylock's speech in Act III, scene 1, of "The Merchant of Venice," George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes. The fun centers around one of the party, who is billed as "He is a man or monkey." He is a whiffo as a gymnast, climbing up ropes and around the railings of the boxes and balcony and starting the occupants of the front seats, causing them to gasp at his daring. He is supported by an agile acrobat and a woman in a muchly-spangled gown.
The Four Melodians, George Reed, Charles T. Coolidge, Mark H. Hamel and Al Hickey, sing and play the piano in a care-free, breezy way. Their songs are original and their tunes catchy.
The Natral Trio makes things lively for a few minutes.