BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Finite skill, lurking in the cunning right wing of Hi West, proved too much for the refurbished, renovated San Francisco Seals. The Portland Coast Leaguers celebrated their homecoming by defeating the visitors 4 to 1, driving the giant spitballer, Douglass, off the mound under heavy cannonading in the fourth inning.

Only four hits did the cool-headed, lion-hearted West yield to Howard's slugging cohorts. Two of these were infield and the other two for extra bases. West immediately tightened and twirled immaculately.

Sacramento, San Francisco and Portland are now practically tied for fourth place in the league, only eight points separating.

Threatening weather kept the crowd home, but 750 loyal fans on hand made enough racket for a boiler factory. And they witnessed a classic game in which the Beavers showed off to excellent advantage.

Beavers' Hitting Is Timely.

McCredie's minions banged out but seven hits off Douglass and Doc Thomas, but they placed them where they could do the most good, interwoven with some fine bits of inside strategy. Rodgers, Kores, Krueger, McCormick and West all whacked safely in the pinches, West contributing to his own pitching victory by cracking safely on two occasions.

Portland scored first blood, last half of the initial frame, on Cartwright's error, Rodgers' stolen base and a single to center by Kores. Captain Bill made the journey from second to home with the velocity of a bit of scandal. The Seals tied this in the second on Zimmerman's two-bagger to center, a bunt by Hogan and an infield out.

In the third and fourth came several productive punches by the Beavers, and, but for a decayed decision by Umpire Bush at first base, four tallies would have been chalked up in those two stanzas instead of a trio. Bush was hooted and sizzled by the leather-lunged bleacherites from then to the finish.

Decision Is Disputed.

Chadbourne opened the third by beating out a bunt. Derrick sacrificed him down and he scored on Rodgers' hit through third. Bill was nabbed trying to stretch his hit to a double, but Kores walked and stole second and was in a position to score on Doane's out at first. This was the disputed decision. Doane appeared safe by a stride.

Two more tallies poured across in the fourth. Krueger begun the jamboree by a sizzling two-bagger into right field. McCormick sent him across by a well-placed single, and himself scored on West's hit to right. Thomas was bequeathed the flinging task in the fifth frame and held the Beavers safe to the finish.

Seals Threaten in Ninth.

The Seals did not register a hit in the final three innings, but they did threaten in the ninth when Derrick's ludicrous error and a wild heave put two men on the bases. West responded by fanning Sepulveda.

Charles, the new Milwaukee infielder, played second base for the Seals, and was easily the fielding star of the game. West and Chadbourne both suffered from his dazzling manipulations. Chadbourne was the hard-luck athlete of the day, going to the morgue on three liners, each of which looked good for a single.

Catcher Schmitt, of the Seals, is suffering from a split hand, and Manager Howard telegraphed to Tub Spencer at San Francisco last night asking him to hasten north on the first train. Spencer has been ill for a week. The score:

Notes of the Game.

The hard-hitting Kores got one hit and two walks yesterday. Art is not in the best of shape physically. He is playing with a bad arm and a crippled leg.

Sepulveda caught for Vancouver in the Northwestern League last season. He used good judgment in guessing the hit-and-run signals yesterday, but his throwing to bases was poor.

Krueger's cunning in playing for batters is almost uncanny.

Del Howard batted for Douglass in the fifth and received a walk. Corhan opened that inning with a screaming triple to left center, but got no farther.

Douglass pulled a freaky one in the fourth inning. When Sepulveda threw to second to catch Chadbourne, Douglass reached up and intercepted the throw. Presumably he forgot there was a man trying to steal.

Johnston and Douglass were purchased from the Chicago Americans this Spring.

Bill Rodgers played great ball around the keystone yesterday and was there in the pinch with the bludgeon.

Bill James will likely oppose Cack Henley on the mound today.

KOESTNER BAFFLES ANGELS

Venice Wins Opening Game of Series Against Chech, 5 to 0.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—Elmer Koestner was too much for Los Angeles today. His delivery yielded the Angels, but three scattered hits and Venice won the series opener 5 to 0.

Chech was pounded freely by the Gondoliers and after the bases were filled with none out in the fifth, he was relieved by Rogers, who was touched for two hits in that inning, three men scoring. Koestner received sensational support and his team also had all of the luck in getting close decisions. The score:

Philadelphia 8-7, Washington 0-1.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.—Philadelphia won both games of the double-header from Washington here today in rather easy style, the first resulting in an 8-0 shutout and the second 7 to 1. In the first game Washington was helpless before Plank, who allowed but two singles and but 28 men faced him. Not a Washington baserunner passed first base and but one was left on the sacks. Three double plays by the Philadelphia infield helped cut down Washington runners. Philadelphia batted Engle from the box in the third. Hughes was batted from the box in the fifth inning of the second game. Bender never had to exert himself. Oldring's hitting and baserunning featured the game. Scores:

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—(Special.) The Seattle Tilikums offered feeble resistance to the victorious rush of the Portland Colts this afternoon and were beaten 5 to 0, with their champion strike-out pitcher dealing the cards and several of the crew mussing them.

If clubs were trumps, our bold heroes forgot to play them at the right moment.

Vancouver won an exciting 10-innings game from Spokane, coming from behind and slipped into frst place again, while Portland, by taking their eighth consecutive victory, crawled up within two and a half games of Seattle.

Bancroft Out of Game.

Portland, minus the services of their star infielder, Bancroft, played steady, intelligent ball behind the invincible pitching of Stanley. In the early part of the game Dell's ptching was all right, but his support was poor. In the later going Portland hit the Weiser giant enough to earn their victory.

Portland's first two runs were gifts, being the result of a boob play. Melchoir had walked and Speas had singled. Heilmann advanced them to third and second respectively on a sacrifice. Williams topped the ball. Wally pegged at Shaw, who muffed. Dell came up to protect the plate. Melchoir turned and hotfooted for home. Hunky fired the ball over the runner's head. Wally jumped in the air and tried to spear the pellet. He missed, but succeeded in disconcerting Dell. The ball rolled to the end of the Portland bench, while Wally stopped to tell Dell how it all happened. While they talked Speas scored.

Colts Bunch Hits.

A double by Speas and singles by Heilmann and Williams yielded one in the fourth. Stanley's single in the seventh, Frits' hit and an infield out counted one.

Heilmann led off with a single in the eighth and two were down when Fries' drive put him across wth the fifth and last run. Score:

Three-Run Lead Held by Indians Overcome in 10-Inning Game.

SPOKANE, May 27.—Vancouver made an uphill fight in the game today and finally landed on the long end after overcoming a three-run lead obtained by Spokane in the second inning. BOB BROWN IN "GOOD" AGAIN

Vancouver Manager's Suspension Is Raised After Fortnight.

R. P. Brown, president and manager of the Vancouver club in the Northwestern League, belongs to the "In Good" Club again.

President Fielder A. Jones, of the class B. circuit, raised the fortnight's suspension on Brown yesterday.

The red-headed Canuck baseball man was set down by President Jones for an assault on Umpire Eddinger at Seattle. Eddinger, too, was suspended, but only a few days, as he was not the aggressor.
