C. H. JONES ELECTED

Baptists Choose Seattle Man to Head Foreign Missions.

ADOPT CHURCH PLATFORM

Conference Goes on Record as Favoring Right to Organize, Living Wage as Minimum and One Day in Seven for Rest.

DETROIT, May 27.—The following officers of the American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society were elected today at the Northern Baptist convention:

President, Carter H. Jones, Seattle; first vice-president, Dr. Edward Judson W. Hunt, Granville, Ohio; recording secretary, George B. Huntington, Boston; home secretary, Fred P. Hamgard, Boston; treasurer, Ernest S. Butler, Boston.

Resolutions were adopted by the convention setting aside the first Sunday in March of each year to be known as "denominational day."

Church Declares Platform. The attitude of the church in matters relating to labor, the home and family and social service, was set forth in the report of the Social Service Commission. The commission presented a declaration of principles which are to be adopted by the church as its platform in dealing with the subjects.

The principal planks are: Right of both laborer and employers to organize is recognized. Adequate means of conciliation and arbitration are urged. Release from employment one day in seven demanded. A living wage as a minimum in every industry. For gradual and reasonable reduction in hours of labor to the lowest practical point. Conservation of health and protection of the worker from dangerous machinery, occupational diseases and mortality.

Old Age Provided For.

Suitable provision for workers in old age and for those incapacitated by injury.

The right of all men to the opportunity for self-maintenance and for protection of the worker from the hardships of enforced unemployment. For a new emphasis on the application of Christian principles to the acquisition and use of property and for the most equitable division of the product of industry that can be devised.

For the protection of the family by the single standard of purity, uniform divorce law, proper regulation of marriage and proper housing.

For the fullest possible development of every child, especially by the provision of proper education and recreation. For the abolition of child labor.

For such regulation of the conditions of toil for women as shall safeguard the physical and moral health of the community.

For the protection of the individual and society from the social economic and moral waste of the liquor traffic. The adoption by each church affiliated with the convention of a constructive programme of social service and to seek to enlist its members directly in some forms of practical social service.

Theological seminaries to have courses in social service that shall train pastors and workers for church leadership in community betterment. Increase in social service commission from 15 to 18 members, the three new members to be women, and that one woman member of the commission be elected each year.

PORTLAND CASE ARGUED

Action Heard by Supreme Court Involves Million in Property.

SALEM, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court today heard arguments and took under advisement the case of the Pacific Milling & Elevator Company against the City of Portland and others, which involves property in Portland extending from the highwater mark to the harbor line, valued at more than $100,000. Other river bank property valued about $20,000,000, which the city desires for public docks, is indirectly involved in the suit.

The plaintiffs contend that they are the owners of the property under an act passed by the Legislature many years ago, while the attorney for the city asserts that the Legislature never had a right to give the property to individuals. Attorney-General Crawford, in a brief, asserts that the wharf property in Portland belongs to the state and it will give it to the city, if the decision is favorable.

WAR ON "DRYS" ON

German Editor to Fight Plan of Seattle's Mayor.

CIVIC OFFICE IS RESIGNED

Jacob Schaefer Quits Library Commission That He May Work Freely Against Cotterill's Anti-Liquor Proposed Amendment.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—Declaring war to the hilt on Mayor Cotterill's plan for a campaign for state-wide prohibition, Jacob Schaefer, publisher of the Daily Washington States Zeitung, of Seattle, and three other German newspapers in Puget Sound cities today tendered their resignation, effective immediately, from the City Library Commission, of which he has been a member four years. Mr. Schaefer was appointed by Mayor John F. Miller. His term would have expired in 1916.

As president of the German-American Alliance of Seattle and organizer of the Personal Liberty League here, Mr. Schaefer finds himself out of sympathy with the Mayor's announced intention to submit a constitutional amendment at the general election to make the entire state "dry." Mr. Schaefer today said: "As a matter of principle I have always been opposed to the restriction of personal liberty and the policy of Mayor Cotterill to submit a prohibition amendment to the people is one that I cannot conscientiously endorse. To vote this state dry would, in my opinion, be equivalent to the confiscation of private property and large capital investments in the state without offering any return by way of remuneration. Not being in sympathy with Mr. Cotterill on this important policy of his administration, I feel that it is my duty to resign as a member of the Library Board. I expect to have something to say on the prohibition issue in my newspapers should the campaign be inaugurated and it will not be in favor of any such amendment proposed by the Mayor."

Army Aviator Killed.

MONTROSE, Scotland, May 27.—Lieutenant Des Mond Larthur, of the Army flying corps, was killed today near here while practicing aeroplane reconnoissances with other officers. He was flying at a height of 3,000 feet when the wings of his machine collapsed.

"JOSIE HARPER" IS DEAD

Roadhouse Keeper Told of in Jack London's Story Dies in Poverty.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—(Special.)—Josie Harper, at whose roadhouse Jack London got his first glass of wine when he was a boy, is dead at the Alameda County Infirmary. Years ago the woman kept a saloon at Thirty-ninth street and Telegraph avenue in Oakland. In his "John Barleycorn" serial Jack London has the following to say of her: "Big, jovial Josie Harper ran a roadhouse at a certain avenue and Thirty-ninth street. Here for a year I delivered an evening paper until my route was changed from the water front and tenderloin of Oakland. The first month I collected Josie Harper's bill she poured me a glass of wine. I was ashamed to refuse, so I drank it, but after that I watched the chance when she was not about so as to collect from her barkeep."

PRICE OF WOOL DESCENDS

Pendleton Sales Made at Figure Lower Than Last Year.

PENDLETON, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—Smythe Bros. yesterday disposed of their Arlington clip to J. P. Dufour, receiving 15 1/2 cents for coarse wool and 12 1/2 cents for fine wool. The total clip was 200,000 pounds. This is one of the largest individual clips in Eastern Oregon. For a similar clip last year Smythe Bros. received 18 cents for coarse and 13 1/2 for fine wool. Tariff agitation is said to be the cause of general depression in the wool market.

BRIDGES ARE THREATENED

False Piers Are Carried Away at Lewiston and Trains Halted.

LEWISTON, Idaho, May 27.—(Special.)—All the false piers of the Northern Pacific Clearwater bridge at Spalding have been swept away by the high water and its bridge at Kamiah is also out of line. The Holbrook Island bridge at Lewiston over a branch of the Clearwater is also expected to go out at any minute. Hundreds of cords of drift are piled against the Spalding bridge and dynamite is being used to loosen the jam.

No trains passed over the bridge today and Superintendent Burt, with two pilots and a workman is on the scene directing the work. Both the Snake and Clearwater rose rapidly yesterday and untold damage may follow if present weather conditions continue.

SUFFRAGE BILL IS VETOED

Governor of Wisconsin Gives Reasons for Killing Measure.

MADISON, Wis., May 27.—Governor McGovern today vetoed the bill ordering a referendum in 1914 on the question of extending the ballot to Wisconsin women.

The Governor objects to the bill on the ground that, suffrage having been defeated by a majority of 92,000 in Wisconsin last November, another referendum on the subject so soon would be unwise and would result only in a more emphatic rejection.
