VERACITY OF BUNGO MEN IS ATTACKED

Sharp Clashes Feature San Francisco Police Graft Charge Hearing.

CONVICT BATTLE CENTER

"You Are a Professional Liar, Aren" You?" Asks Attorney for Former Detective Accused of Collusion With Criminals.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. - Lively clashes between counsel for the defense and the District Attorney's assistants and a determined effort of the former to discredit the veracity of hunco men witnesses marked the first day of the trial of ex-Police Detective Frank Esola on a charge of larceny, growing out of allegations of police collusion with eriminals.

Mike Gallo, a convicted member of the bunco gang involved in the graft scandal, was the witness over whose head the tide of legal battle surged and swept. The entire day was taken up in the direct and cross-examination of this witness, and the defense made de-termined assaults upon the truthful-ness of the convict. Mike Gallo, a convicted me senting Escia.

An objection to this question was sustained, but the cross-examination continued along a line frankly intended to discredit Gallo's testimony.

Gallo told of his connections with Esola and of his financial dealings with him when Esola was a member of the Latin squad of police detectives. At times the witness lost his tem-per and flew into a heated denuncia-tion of the defendant.

CONTROL FIGHT IS SEEN Receivership Proceedings of Frisco Line Has New Angle.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—James Campbell, vice-president of the St. Louis and San Francisco, and chairman of the North American Company, on whose petition the receivers for the tailrend were appointed, said today that "there were no differences of opinion between the present management of the Frisco and B. F. Youkum, chairman of the board of directors."

"Mr. Youkum," he continued, "did the best he could under the circumstances."

It was intimated in financial and

It was intimated in financial and railway circles here today that the receivership would result in a contest for the ultimate control of the property. At present no further demands will be made on the Federal Court for the appointment of a third receiver.

President Winchell, of the Frisco, who is one of the receivers of the parent line, said today that the receivership of the Frisco and of its subsidiary, the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, did not necessarily mean the divorce of the properties. Interviews with railway officials, however, indicate that this point is to be determined.

Gaul's "Holy City" is quite a favorite with church choirs and small choral societies, because of its fine religious sentiment and adaptability to church choir use. Pieces to Be Shown to Public Will Total 4100-Numbers of Paintings Are Now Held in the London Art Gallery.

NEW YORK, May 28,-(Special)-Although the precise value of the Morgan art collection at the Metropolitan Museum was not obtainable today, it was learned that it had been insured by J. P. Morgan as executor of his father's will for $20,000,000.

This figure, however, does not represent the full value of the collection, but only the maximum of insurance procurable throughout the world on that particular risk in that particular building. Agents of the Morgan estate have

Agents of the Morgan estate have been trying throughout the world for additional insurance without success, and have now come to the conclusion that they have obtained about all the insurance possible on the collection. It develops that the late J. P. Morgan never insured his art objects or seemed to see any necessity for doing so. The $22,000,000 thus obtained in insurance, however, does not cover the total insurance on the art collections left by Mr Morgan. An additional $10,000,000 of insurance has been obtained, on the art collection in Mr. Morgan's private gallery on Thirty-sixth street.

Morgan's private gallery on Thirtysixth street.

Another $10,000,000 of insurance has been obtained by Mr. Morgan as trustee on the art collection in his father's London house at Princess Gate. This would bring the total of insurance so far obtained on the chief Morgan art collections up to $40,000,000.

The insurance obtained on the various collections covers only loss by fire. There has been no attempt to get insurance against burglary or theft, so far as could be learned last night.

The art treasures are to be placed on view for the American public as soon as arrangements can be completed, it was announced today at the Metropolitan Museum of Art The art objects, numbering about 4,100, will be exhibited temporarily in one of the museum's new wings, early in 1914, according to present plans.
