Old residents of Portland will remember James Terwilleger, Pioneer of 1845, his maternal grandfather; and Thos. Richardson, former Police Commissioner and member of Portland's first Water Board, and Port of Portland Commission, his father. They were good and dependable citizens. Of such stock is Frank J. Richardson, candidate for Commissioner. He is a graduate in law and is president of the Terwilleger Land Company, besides having other large interests in Portland realty on both sides of the river. A vote cast for him will be one to conserve your own interests. Mr. Richardson stands for public betterments at lowest cost; for lower taxes; for reliable work and materials; civil service and efficiency. Has no entanglements. Paid for 1912 taxes, $2327.61. Can't you consistently vote for such a man 7

If you have decided on your first choice and have not included his name, you will do well to vote for him on second choice.

Signed,

E. J. JEFFERY
