Everyone believed that it was a hot day yesterday and fans and shirtsleeves were in evidence, although as a matter of fact the thermometer did not climb above the $7 mark. This, however, was enough to make it the nottest day of the year thus far. The "hot and sultry" symptoms did not begin to develop until 1 o'clock, when the thermometer rose from 80 to $2. In the next hour it went up to 85, then to 85, and for two hours it stood at 87. before dropping suddenly at 6 o'clock to 84 degrees.

The parks were crowded all day. "Keep off the grass" signs lost their terror in a short time.

The forecast indicates that fair and warm weather will prevail today also.
