As Developer of College Stars, Professional, Olympic Meet Champions and Track Men Great Coach Was Peerless.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—Michael C.
Murphy, famous as a developer of athletes, died shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Never a robust man, "Mike" Murphy had been practically aying for the last 15 years. About eight years ago he was at death's door, but he pulled through and he was able later to render great service in his chosen calling, Murphy was born in Natick, Mass, in 1860, and early in life became prominent as a trainer of athletes. He had charge of the American teams at three Citymple meets, the last being the victorious one of last year.

Many of the best college athletes in America have been developed by Murphy. To his wonderful knowledge of the conditioning of men was due his selection as the trainer in charge of the three foreign invasions, all of which turned out successfully. He had charge of the combined teams of the New York Athletic Club and the University of Pennsylvania which represented America in the Olympic games in Paris in ica in the Olympic games in Paris in 1906, the American teams to the London Olympics in 1908, and the American team to the games in Stockholm in 1912.

Murphy also was the trainer of the New York Athletic Club team which defeated the London Athletic Club in a dual track meet in 1895.

During his career Murphy was a follower of all kinds of athletics. He became physical director of Yale in 1887, and since then had been considered the greatest coach of track men and trainer of men in other branches of sport that of men in other branches of sport that America has ever known. He had three years of success at Yale, and in 1890 accepted the offer of the Detroit Ath-letic Club to become its trainer, but after three years returned to Yale. Later he came to the University of

He remained in Philadelphia four years and then went back to Yale, but returned here in 1905 and had been at the University of Pennsylvania ever since. Murphy never had a team finish worse than third in the intercollegiate track competition, and for five years straight he won the championship for Pennsylvania.

Before he was 25 years old he became the trainer of John L. Sullivan, After one year with the great pugilist Murphy conceived the idea of finding a man able to defeat Sullivan. He searched for a year through the wilds of Canada and the lumber camps of the great Northwest, but he falled to find the man.
