OPTIMISM REIGNS AMONG MERCHANTS

New City Officials Talk Over Conditions With Business Men at Dinner.

FALSE RUMORS 'SHOWN UP'

Continued Prosperity for Portland Seen in New Administration, Growing Crops and Aggressive Trade Tacties.

The optimism that sprang from the meeting of the contributors to the promotion fund of the Portland Commercial Club a few weeks ago, had its echo in the meeting of the Retail Merchants Association at its monthly dinner at the Commercial Club yesterday.

In the general feast of optimism, the new administration of the City of Portland Joined, Mayor-elect Albee and Commissioners-elect W. L. Brewster, Will H. Daly and C. A. Bigelow, and Auditor Barbur being guests of the retail merchants. Mr. Dieck was out of the city.

Saloon League and a resolution was passed adopting the programme of the Anti-Saloen League for the repeal of the so-called home rule amendment to the constitution in 1914 and an amendment to the constitution for prohibition in 1916.

HEUSNER STILL ACTIVE

A look into the future and predictions of municipal conditions better than ever before, was in the speeches of the new Mayor and the other city officers, just as in the addresses of G. F. Johnson, of the Promotion Bureau of the Commercial Club, and of Will Young, of R. G. Dunn & Co., was the prediction of growing business prosperity, not for Portland alone, but for the whole empire that lies about and tributary to it. A look into the future and predictions

George F. Johnson rehearsed the oc-urrences at the recent meeting of the outributors to the promotion fund of he Commercial Club, at which busi-mass men pledged, within a few min-utes, $21,000 a year for three years to-ward the promotion work which the club is to carry on.

"From the $5 men who went out from that meeting," he said, "has ema-nated in the weeks that have followed a said; that has stamped out a smirt a spirit that has stamped out a spirit of pessimism that seemed to be rising before. There is nothing visible that can prevent the Northwest from having a wonderfully successful year."

Rumers Shown to Be False.

Mr. Young supplemented Mr. Johnson's predictions with definite statements based upon investigations made by R. G. Dun & Company within the last few weeks. When rumors of bad business conditions begun to be circulated some weeks ago, letters were sent out to merchants and business men in all lines throughout the city to ascertain whether there was any real foundation to the vague rumors that were affeat.

AUTO OVERTURNS: 1 DEAD

George W. Rice Killed and the Rev. F. E. Dorris Hurt Near Rainier.

CENTRALIA. Wash., June 6.—(Special.)—George W. Rice, manager of the Northern Pacific lunch counter in Centralia, was almost instantly killed and Rev. F. E. Dorris, pastor of the Centralia Presbyterian Church, is in a precarious condition as the result of the overturning of Rice's automobile three miles up the Skaokumchuck River from Rainier last night.

The two men were returning from a fishing trip. The car was running down hill, when it skidded, shooting up the bank and overturning. Mr. Rice was pinned under the machine, but Rev. Mr. Dorris was hurled through the windshield.

In this city, is one of the largest and most constructive in its history. Bishop Bell's masterly address each evening, together with the report of the committee on social service, have awakened and set the conference far ahead in its sense of interest and responsibility in civic, social and industrial needs and possibilities of our times and our country.

By the addresses of Dr. H. Schooklect and Dr. C. C. Polling, as fraternal delegates, respectively, from the Evangelical Association and of the United Evangelical Church, on the matter of federation and actual church union has had a large place in the attention of the conference. Ringing resolutions were adopted favoring the most rapid progress toward union, consistent with nermannt results. progress toward union, consistent with P. O. Bonebrake, D. D., was for the P. O. Bonebrake, D. D. was the third time elected superintendent, election being made unanimous, after the fourth ballot.

Bishop Bell addressed a crowded house ast night. His subject was "Inconguittes in Our Modern industrial Life." With simple explanation of the great changes wrought in our civilization by the introduction of steam and electricity paralleled by the introduction and spread of democracy. He took his audience forward with irresistible logic to the need of a speedy and effective readjustment.

its final meeting this month of the franchise which was sent up for advertising last December, but which Mr. Heusner did not accept because of his belief that he could secure a more favorable franchise by appealing to the people under the initiative.

The inititive measure failed to pass at the last election. This leaves the Heusner franchise problem where it was last Fail, when Mr. Heusner apparently gave up the idea of securing a franchise from the Council. Almost as soon as it was learned that the peoa franchise from the County as soon as it was learned that the people had voted down the franchise, Mr. Heusner asked City Auditor Barbur to advertise the measure which was before the Council last Fall.

This Mr. Barbur refused to do, declaring that Mr. Heusner practically had refused to account the franchise and had refused to accept the franchise and that the time for publication had expired. Mr. Heusner then advertised the franchise in the official newspaper of his own accord.

Whether or not an advertisement

such as was inserted in the newspaper such as was inserted in the newspaper by Mr. Heusner will hold is a question, owing to the fact that the City Auditor had nothing to do with it.

If the advertisement is official Mr. Housner, it is believed, will ask for a special meeting of the City Council the last of the month, so the franchise can be rushed through before the new administration takes the reins.

Councilmen Menefee and Wallace, who are known to be favorable to the franchise, visited Mayor Rushlight yesterday to arrange a special meeting of the Council for the consideration of the franchise.

Although no public mention is being made by George F. Conditions Are Questioned.

Following Mr. Chapman's address members of the conference expressed themselves on the matter of "booster" literature in general. While not ques-tioning the quality of the matter, nor the method of circulation that is to be adopted by the Oregon Immigration Commission, one delegate declared that he believed all immigration advertising is done in clear violation of the Federal immigration laws. Another said that the sole and express purpose of such literature is to profit by the sale of land.

"In many localities right now there are thousands of people who would like to get back to the land," declared P. A. Dowler, of Seattle, "but owing to present conditions they are unable to do it. I know of no good reason why we should be asking Europeans to come in to remedy these conditions.
