JONES SEEKS TO MATCH LAD AGAINST CHAMPION.

SAN PRANCISCO, June 6 .- Tom Jones, miniager for Ad Wolgast, re-turned tonight from a conference with Lightweight Champion Ritchle's manager, Billy Nolan, and reported that Nolan and Ritchle were willing to take on Wolgast for a 20-round fight July 4, provided Promoter Graney would concede the purse of $17,500 he offered Ritchie for the fight with Joe Rivers. SAN FRANCISCO, June 6 .- (Special.) Bud Anderson, the Vancouver, Wash., light weight, is looming more and more likely opponent for Willie Ritchie in the championship fight to be staged in San Francisco July 4. The proposed fight between Ritchie and initely declared off today, when the initely declared off today, when the men finally failed to agree on the weight question. Ritchie insisted that the weight should be 134 pounds at 9 o'clock the morning of the fight. Rivers would not concede more than 134 pounds two hours before the bell. Promoter Grancy then declared the bout off and at once began a hunt for some one willing to most the chambles. one willing to meet the champion at Ritchie at anything other than 133 pounds ringside.

Ritchie thereupon gave up the idea of meeting Wolgast and it is believed here that the powerful young Vancouver fighter will be taken on Anderson, it is said, would prefer to fight at a little over the recognized lightweight limit, while Freddie Weish, the only other possibility considered for the big Fourth of July championship mill, is a legitimate lightweight and it is believed he will offer as serious objections as does Wolgast to giving sway several pounds to the champion. Bud Anderson, since his decisive defeat of Joe Mandot, of New Orleans, has been especially touted by Medford, Or., fans., for the bout. Telegrams have been passing back and forth between Medford and San Francisco all day. Word was received late tonight that Medford fans had subscribed a bonus of $1000 to Nolan if the match should be made. Promoter Graney at once telegraphed Manager Donald, who is with Anderson at Medford, telling him that he was doing everything in his power to secure Ritchie's signature to a contract to meet Anderson.

Ritchie, however, it is indicated from to a contract to meet Anderson.

Ritchie, however, it is indicated from remarks around the champion's head-quarters, would far rather meet Freddic Welsh, whom he fought a 26-round draw as a novice. Welsh is now in Vancouver, B. C.

There is a strong movement on foot

There is a strong movement on foot here and in San Francisco, it was reported on Spring street today, to force Willie Ritchie either to defend his titio at 133 ringside, the accepted lightweight limit, or dechare himself a welterweight and get out of the lightweight class entirely. So strong is this sentiment, it was said, that overtures had already been made to Ad Wolgast and Joe Rivers looking to a meeting between them at Vernon July 4, at the recognized lightweight limit, 133 pounds ringside, the winner to be declared the champion and given a belt embiematical of the title.

The fuifiliment of this plan, it was said, depended upon the future demands to be made by Ritchie as to weight. If, within a reasonable time, he does not come down and agree to meet some boy at 133 ringside, the Wolgast-Rivers match will be advertised as the legitimate lightweight championship battle and Ritchie's chaims will be ignored.

The programme was of a high order and was heard by many farmers as well as city people. Their chief speakers for the day were Professor E. J. Krause, of Oregon Agricultural College, and Mrs. Orla Buxton, of Forest Grove, who represents the new department of woman's work of the Oregon State Grange; Editor Shephard, of the Better Fruit, of Hood River, and Harry B. Miller, of Eugene, were also among the speakers. N. M. Newport, of this city, presided and introduced the speakers.

The horse show orought together a fine collection of draft animals, coach horses and roadsters. The berries are at their very best and the visitors who saw the exhibits and also were driven out to the berry fields, claim that the abundance of the berries grown to the acre here is a revelation to them. Editor Shephard stated that he did not fully believe the stories he had heard of the large number of crates produced here to the acre until today, when he saw with his own eyes the growing berries, and he is now ready to believe almost anything about the Santiam Valley.
