"BIG FOUR" WILL DEFEND POLO CUP

Whitney, Milburn and Two Waterburys to Play on American Team.

BETTING FAVORS BRITONS

Challengers Have 40 Ponies Valued at $100,000 and Have Pick of 2000 Players of United Kingdom for Big Matches.

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., June 8.—The "Big Four" of American polo—Whitney, Milburn and the two Waterburys—will once more defend the international trophy against the British challengers.

The executive committee of the National Polo Association decided today that the injury which kept Poulton Keene out of the international contest made it imperative also to withdraw the team Keene was to captain.

Old Positions Taken. The cup defenders will play in their old positions. Devereaux Milburn, James Keene, H. H. Waterbury and J. M. Waterbury; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury; back, Devereaux Milburn.

With this sum the world outside of the United States, has been hurried for world's championship play.

Woodmen Unveil Monuments. Albany, Or., June 8.—(Special.)—Monuments to the graves of William R. Hand and D. W. Myers, both Civil War veterans, were unveiled this afternoon by the members of the local Woodmen of the World.

Vives y Tuto Has Breakdown. ROME, June 8.—Cardinal Vives y Tuto, prefect of the congregation for religious affairs, who according to certain reports had become insane, is suffering only from neurasthenia, and by the advice of physicians has retired to a monastery at Frascati, near Rome.

United Kingdom, is a most formidable polo four. Captains Cheape and Edwards were members of the challenging team of 1911.

Cup in America Since 1909. The silver cup, the struggle for the possession of which has aroused such international sporting furore until recently was known as the English vault in New York City.

High-water rumors and threatening weather interfered to some degree with the crowds, and no season records were broken.

Presentations were made to the evening program, and the evening program, and the evening program, and the evening program.
