Don Vickers, the Eugene Y. M. C. A. wimmer, who finished second to Lewis The mas in the 100-yard event of the Oregon state championships last year, proved the most consistent performer in yesterday's swim, held under the ENGLAND AND AMERICA CLASH auspices of Multnomah Club as a Rose Festival aquatic feature, winning two 1913 titles, 100-yard and 200-yard.

At the conclusion of the Rose Festival swimming meet yesterday afternoon Frank E. Watkins, swimming chairman of Multinomah Club, announced that Dr. Lorne Manion, fancy diver, and Gus Mankurtz, middle-distance swimmer, will be the Multinomah Club entries in the Pacific Northwest Association championships at Spokane on Monday. Mankurtz will be entered in the 200, and 800-yard swims, but may start in but the last two. Mankurtz is one of the veteran swimmers of the club and while he was defeated yesterday by Collister Wheeler, Watkins decided to send him to Spokane. Manion is twice Oregon state champion fancy diver. Arthur Cavill, Winged "M" swimming instructor, will leave Sunday with the two athletes.

Last Year's Times Stand.

The time in all events did not approach that of last year, but the course was exact, instead of short. Lewis Thomas went the fastest 100 of the day, negotiating the course in 1:17 1-5 in the 100-yard handleap. Thomas was handleaped six seconds over the first starter and ten from the time the gun was fired. E. F. Pautz won the race in 1:20 1-5, but Thomas, carrying a four-second handleap over him, was only one second behind.

Collister Wheeler, the Multnomah Club distance man, won the 500-yard swin, beating Gus Mankurtz of the same club, by 25 yards. This made Wheeler's second successive victory in this event and gives him permanent possession of the valuable Hamblett challenge trophy. Mankuriz won the cup in 1912.

Dr. Lorne Manlon was the second repeater of the day, the Multnomah Club fance diver who carried off high honors in 1912 winning the champlonship for the second successive time.

of Talent Unprecedented.

With 89 athletes, representing 16 organizations of the Northwest, and including Northwest, Pacific Coast, National and international champions, competing, the 1913 track and field championships of the Pacific Northwest Association of the Amateur Athletic Union will be held on Multnomah Field, commencing at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Field, commencing at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The banner outdoor event of the Northwest athletic season, today's meet brings together an array of talent never before seen in a P. N. A. championship competition, with five squads struggling for team supremacy and the deciding portion of the 138 points represented in the 17 events.

The class of talent may best be judged by the prediction of William Schmitt, Multnomah Club track and field manager, and director of the huge meet, that at least nine records of the association will be broken. This prediction is considered over-optimistic by many, but at least half a dozen marks, track and field, are expected to go, particularly if no more rain falls to slow up the track, which is described in, the usual trite terms of "lightning fast."
