their strongest lineup in the game for the first time in many weeks, admin-istored a 5-3 drubbing to the Los Angeles league leaders.

It was Friday, the 13th, fish day, ladies' day, and, with a Crabb in the box for the visitors, there could have been no other legitimate result. Mag-gart of Los Angeles poled out a home run over the right wail in the third in-ning, driving Ellis ahead of him and giving the Angels a 2-0 lead, but Mc-Credie's minlons were not to be denied. giving the Angels a 2-0 lead, but Mc-Credie's minions were not to be denied. They started after Crabb the last of the third, and timely litting, great base running by Derrick, a squeeze play with Doane on third and Berry at the bat, and all-around good offensive play earned a victory.

It was the first defeat for Dillon's devastators in Portland this season.

Crown Goes to Lober.

Crown Goes to Lotter.

If there was any one individual entitled to sarn a headache from totling around a glided crown it was Elmer Lober, the southpaw outfielder secured from the Angels last week. Lober played sensational bail in the field and at bat. He secured a double and a single in four times up, his two-bagger almost clearing the left field force. single in foor times up, his two-bagger almost clearing the right-field fence. Meantime Art Krueger, the other half to the trade, went through another game without a hit. Romeo hasn't once connected safely in his first four games with Los Angeles. Art reminds of the Butterscotchmen who pursued Davy and the Goblin. The latter were fairly safe from harm because the Butterscotchmen couldn't run until they got warmed up and they couldn't get warmed up until they ran.

But such is the lot of the once famour.

It may seem like carrying coal to Newcastle to bestow praise on Chester Chadbourne. Chadbourne negotiated a couple of catches in center that were thrillers. He pulled down a drive by Crabb within a yard of the deep centerfield fence, crimping a run or two. Goodwin of Los Angeles also starred.

uped on the rocks.

McCredle hastened Al Carson to the warming pan, but Al wasn't needed. West struck his stride the fourth inning, and five lifts the remaining six frames was the best the Angels could do.

Lindsay's Hit Needed.

Bill Lindsay, far-famed slugger, combed but one hit in the game, but he inserted it in the fifth when a hit meant a run. His clout over second put Portland ahead. Chadbourne's walk and Derrick's hit preceded. The Beavers added two more runs in the sixth, bringing the total to 5-2, Doane walked, Lober singled to right and sent Doane to third, and Doane scored on a beautiful squeeze bunt by Berry.

Yesterday's Results.

At Vancouver—Vancouver 3, Portland 2 (11 innings). At Victoria—Seattle 8, Victoria 3. At Spokane—Spokane-Tacoma game post-poned, rain.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 13 .- Spe cial.)—Konnick's long sacrifice fly to left in the 11th inning sent "Toney" Waish to the plate with the winning run at the ball yard today and the Brownles won again from the Colts, to 2. It was undoubtedly the most intensely interesting argument staged at the new lot, although an error by Brinker in the ninth, when he dropped Mahoney's fly to left, allowing the visitors to score the tying run, somewhat marred the matince from a local standpoint. However, with victory coming as it did in the 11th the "bobble" was forgotten.

"Kiddo" Wilson pitched masterly ball for the Brownies throughout and de-served to win inside the limit. He allowed but three hits up until the ninth and inning after inning he sent the opposing batsmen back to the bench in order.

With the score 2 to 9 against them Speas started the ninth by getting in the way of a fast one Mohler doubled to left and Speas went to third. Murray struck out but Coltrin responded with a sacrifice fly to Frisk and Speas crossed. Guigni was sent in to hit for Stanley and drew a pass, Mahoney then, hitting for Bancroft, poled out a long fly to Brinker, but the latter dropped it and Mohler scored the ty-But for a sensational throw by Kip-

Mohler was hit and Murray followed with a single to center Kippert fielded the ball cleanly and by a perfect throw to the plate nailed Mel-choir by at least five feet. A pass to Heister in the first inning, coupled with a sacrifice hit and a wild Crabb within a yard of the deep centerfield fence, crimping a run or two. Goodwin of Los Angeles also starred.

West had men on second and third during both the first and second innings, and it looked like a bad day for the eptimista.
