SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—(Special.)—"Big Bill" James had the Seals helpless today and the Beavers behind him more than did their share by knocking "Deck" Decannier, the Vancouver southpaw recruit, out of the box in the second inning with a five-run rally and finishing up on Cack Henley for three more tallies. The final score was Portland 8, San Francisco 1, but even that does not indicate what a one-sided game it was. James might have pitched a no-hit game, but he let down in the closing innings, four of the Seals' five hits being registered in the last three frames.

Gus Fisher, who starred at bat, one of his three hits being a homer with two on, split a finger in the seventh inning and may be out of the game for a week or two.

Umpire Bush Exonerated.

Umpire Bush has been exonerated of the charge of drunkenness, the San Francisco club, which preferred the charge, failing to show up this morning to prove the allegations.

Fanning and Hagerman or Krause are slated to pitch tomorrow.

The Beavers went right after Decannier in the first inning. The Beavers are supposed to be weak against a left-hander, but, judging from the manner in which Deck was touched up, that idea was somewhat dissipated. Chadbourne, a lefthander, singled over second and was sacrificed by Derrick. Rodgers flew out, but Lindsay, another lefthander, beat out a tap to McArdle. Chadbourne would surely have scored but he thought the runner had been called out at first and started for his position in centerfield.

There was no question about the runs in the second. Kores fanned as a starter and Speas got a life on Cartwright's fumble. Lober's single up against the rightfield put Speas on third and he scored on Fisher's drive to right. James was there with another drive to right and when Mundorff let the ball go through him Lober tallied. Chadbourne singled to left. A passed ball, Derrick's single to right and Mundorff's overthrow of first accounted for three more runs.

Henley Bumped Hard.

It also scored the finish of Decannier for Henley was rushed on the mound. He got the next two men and retired the side without further damage.

Even with the five run lead, the Beavers were not satisfied and counted three in the third. Kores walked, Speas sacrificed and Lober walked. With two on the sacks, Gus Fisher lifted the ball over the rightfield fence for a home run.

That gave the Beavers eight runs and robbed the game of interest so far as the Seals were concerned. "Big Bill" was pitching too tight a game for the locals even to hope. Furthermore the Northerners' infield pulled three fast double plays that killed off the few Seals who did get on sacks.

San Francisco's lone tally came in the eighth. Sepulveda scratched a single over James' head and came home on a wild pitch. The score:

TIGERS SWAMP ANGELS, 12-4

Wrangling, Listless Play and Trouble With Umpires Mars Game.

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—Wrangling and listless playing marked a one-sided contest today, Venice defeating Los Angeles 12 to 4. An altercation between Johnson and Brashear in the first inning resulted in the banishment of both players and Hosp was forced to retire when he was spiked on the hand by Moore.

"Dutch" Reuther, the St. Ignatius College boy, made his initial appearance for Los Angeles. He issued six passes, hit one batsman and made a wild pitch in three and a half innings. Score:

Pittsburg 7, New York 3.

PITTSBURG, June 20. — Pittsburg hit three New York pitchers at the right time and the loose fielding of the visitors enabled them to win easily, 7 to 3. O'Toole pitched splendid ball and errors behind him figured in the scoring of all three New York runs. Wood and Coleman, Pittsburg recruits who are filling in for crippled absentees, starred with the bat. Each scored two runs and had three hits, Tesreau seemed to suffer from the intense heat and was hit steadily for four innings. Score:

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

This is another story of joy, a story of Portland's fourth consecutive defeat of Spokane, a story of an eighth-inning flare-up in which Spokane broke a 29-inning, no-run record, tying Portland, 3-3; a story of a ninth-inning "he who laughs the latest" episode, wherein Justin Fitzgerald won the game for Portland by a single to left field with two out and men on second and third.

Think this over and after a little ruminating it will begin to break through on you that Portland again walloped Spokane's Northwestern League cellar champs 4-3, and that Fitzgerald earned his dinner checks by driving in the winning run.

But that doesn't tell it all.

Storm Breaks in Eighth.

Mahoney did the flinging for Portland and was sailing along with the score 3-0 in his favor, when the storm broke in the eighth inning. Singles by Million and Wagner and Bancroft's error filled the bases, and then Pappa, of St. Mary's College, drove out a screaming double and bunched the game, 3-3.

Murray opened the ninth for the Colts by a clean single—any other kind would have been inappropriate for ladies' day—and then, after everybody had given up hope, due to the Coltrin and Mahoney fatalities, Bancroft stepped to the plate and slapped a line drive into left.

Murray was held at third, but Fitzgerald picked out a fat one, and, with two out and two strikes on himself, drove it viciously into left field, winning the game.

Kraft pitched for Spokane and was banged for 10 lusty clouts.

Hellmann and Guigni Connect.

Doubles by Heilmann and Guigni gave the Colts one run in the first inning. Two more filtered across in the fourth, when Coltrin drove a liner over second. Peters had preceded by a slashing triple to the centerfield fence, Mohler furnishing the other run morsel on a dead ball.

Now you have it all just as 1500 wildly enthusiastic fans "lamped" it at Recreation Park yesterday afternoon. The game was fast and snappy and with enough of the tingling in the final stanza to send everybody home happy, except the hosts of J. P. Cohn.

Bancroft, Coltrin, Yohe and Coltrin starred in the field. Yes, and there was another feature. So far as is now recalled, Third Baseman Yohe went through a full nine innings without running from under his cap. He usually bats .980 in the hat-lifting league. Every time Yohe goes after a fly he hoists his chin somewhere up around the summit of Mount Hood and quite naturally the skypiece does a ski-slide from his serried dome.

Notes of the Game.

Southpaw Stanley will pitch for the Colts today, and Sam Daly may be shunted back again to the Colts. Owner Cohn plans to pitch Olmstead, his Oakland recruit, in the Sunday game.

Harbison stole second base in the seventh inning and went to third when Murray's throw bounded off his cranium.

Fitzgerald's ninth-inning swat was in the nature of an atonement. Fitz made a poor heave in the general direction of the diamond in the eighth inning and allowed Couison to score from first base when the ball bounded badly through Coltrin.

Spokane had not scored a run since the fifth inning of Monday's game until the eighth yesterday.

Mahoney has a fast breaking spitter. He worked like the champion of the world until the eighth, which was his one bad frame.

Fielder Jones' wisdom is acting as mascot of the Spokane tribe. Owner Cohn has togged him out in a miniature Spokane uniform.

GIANTS WIN LISTLESS GAME

Holderman's Batting Is Feature of Seattle-Tacoma Contest.

TACOMA, Wash., June 20.—Listless playing by the locals gave Seattle a 9-to-1 victory today. Holderman hit safely four times out of as many times at bat. McMullen, who was shifted from third to short, made five errors. Dell was wild but effective in pinches. Score:

CANUCKS BEAT BEES TWICE

Meek Starts Rally in Ninth of Second Game, but It Is Too Late.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 20.—The Canucks took both games of the doubleheader here this afternoon and evening from Lynch's Bees, winning the first game, 8 to 1, while the second victory was secured, 4 to 3.

Schmutz was invincible in the afternoon game, while Kantlehner was erratic at times and his support miserable.

Hall outpitched Smith in the evening, but by a batting rally in the ninth the visitors nearly won out.

With the score 4 to 2 Meek opened the ninth with a stinging two-bagger to center. Swain singled to center and Meek scored when Alberts sacrificed. Delmas singled to center, Swain going to third. Delmas stole second, but Hall pitched himself out of the hole by fanning Shea and forcing Smith to hit an easy grounder to Heister for the final out. Score:
