Brooklyn and Red Sox Making Bid for Honors in Their Respective Leagues.

GIANTS TRIFLE WOBBLY

World's Champions Hit Gait and Cause Stir in American Circuit—Yankees Begin to Develop Into Real Team.

NEW YORK, June 22.—With New York and Philadelphia engaged in a hot contest for first place and Brooklyn again playing superb ball and sprinting rapidly toward the front, the National League race has entered one of the most interesting phases of the season.

Philadelphia Take Brace. In the National League, the Philadelphiaans were in a fair way to lose their lead.

Thursday night the Giants, who had won 12 out of 13 games on the road, were almost bound.

Pirates Continue to Lose. The inability of Pittsburgh to win consistently is still the puzzle of the league.

Aside from the Boston's showing and the slump of Philadelphia and Cleveland, the brace taken by the New Yorks perhaps was the most interesting development in the American League race.

The chief burden of the pitching for the Senators is falling, as usual, on Walter Johnson, and he is bearing up manfully under the strain.

The Detroit, with Cobb as their cleanup artist, pitching hard, and poor pitching frequently neutralizes their work with the bat.
