

PINKERTON COMES TO MAKE CHARGE

New Accusation in Prospect Against E. C. Von Klein, Alleged Robber of Women.

PRISON RECORD IS EXPOSED

Incarceration at Toronto Said to Have Taken Place When, Following Quarrel With His Father, He Left Home.

With the arrival of William Pinkerton, head of the great detective service which bears his name, and due to reach Portland in a few days, a new charge is expected to be made against the door of Edmond E. C. Von Klein, now under indictments charging him with polygamy and stealing the diamonds of Miss Ethel Newcomb. The new information will also present the first record of the debarred prisoner's being served time in jail under a conviction.

In a letter to Detective Joe Day, received yesterday by that officer and by Superintendent Himes, of the local Pinkerton agency, Mr. Pinkerton says that Von Klein served a term at Toronto, Canada, for burglary, in 1899. The details of the crime and the record of imprisonment were not known to the writer but will be forwarded by his Chicago office. The evidence, properly authenticated, will be admissible as evidence against the prisoner, whereas the numerous other charges of which he has not been convicted are not admissible.

Confidential Information Given. Mr. Pinkerton writes that Von Klein, then about 20 years old, quarreled with his father and left home, going to Toronto, where he was arrested for stealing a watch and jewelry from a place where he was boarding. He gave the name Jacques Morrin, but told a police inspector privately that his true name was Edmond E. C. Von Klein. The confession was made as confidential at the time, but in view of recent developments the Toronto authorities thought themselves justified in releasing it.

This alleged exploit came about a year after Von Klein's first known appearance in police hands, when he was arrested at Galesburg, Ill., charged with having a stolen diamond in his possession. The charge was not pressed, but an authentic picture of the youth was taken and is in the hands of the Pinkerton detectives.

Marriage Is Sensational. It was three years after the Toronto episode that Von Klein, under the name of Dr. Harry Kohler, burst upon Minneapolis, eloping with and marrying Miss Louise Illstrup. The intervening years are a blank to the authorities, as are the succeeding nine years between his arrival in Minneapolis and his alleged appearance in Portland as George E. Lewis.

Since her departure, more than a week ago, nothing has been heard from Mrs. Rena B. Morrow, the Chicago woman who appeared last covertly to befriend Von Klein and returned to Chicago, ostensibly to procure bail for him and search for evidence to implicate Miss Illstrup. Her husband, however, an effort to reduce the $50,000 bond required of him has been fruitless.

SCHOOL MAY GET TRACT

East Side Club Favors Purchase of Land for Woodlawn Pupils.

Purchase of the tract occupied by the Woodlawn school gardens was strongly favored yesterday by the East Side Business Men's Club. L. M. Lepper, one of the garden inspectors, introduced a resolution recommending arguments for the purchase of this tract. It was set forth in the resolution that the Woodlawn school won the local and National garden contests in 1912, and also for the present year. It ought to be bought, declared the resolution, in recognition of the achievement of the Woodlawn school and Principal T. J. Newbill, for setting a high standard in the garden work of the city.

O. M. Plummer, newly elected director, commended the work of Principal Newbill and the children of the Woodlawn school. The resolution was adopted, with the proviso that the tract should be purchased through condemnation proceedings. There are about 14 lots in the tract.

Mr. Plummer, who was a guest of the club, talked informally about school affairs. He said that arrangements are being completed to entertain the Mayor-elect and the Commissioners in the near future.

STATE PROBE LIKELY

Telephone Rate Question Is Bothersome.

PACIFIC COMPANY ACTS

Request Made to State Railroad Commission That Tolls-Fixing Request Be Dismissed—Milwaukie, Oak Grove Affected.

SALEM, Or., June 23.—(Special.)—What is believed eventually will lead to the State Railroad Commission making a state-wide investigation upon its own initiative of telephone rates is a petition of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, filed today, that its request for the fixing of tolls between Milwaukie and Portland be dismissed.
When the exchanges in Milwaukie and Oak Grove were purchased by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company tolls between those towns and Portland were abolished, only an outward charge from Portland being made.
Soon after however, the management decided the business was not profitable and asked for a hearing to determine what charge should be made. At the hearing it developed that to get at the facts of the case an investigation of rates throughout the state would be necessary and that it would take several months to do the work.
The Commission recently began a probe of the rates of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company upon its own initiative and now it is said when this is finished the general telephone investigation will be started. Complaints regarding discriminatory charges have been made by the City Councils of Oregon City and other places and several local investigations are being made.

WAKEFIELD LOSES AGAIN

Water Board Fails to Pay for Mount Tabor Reservoirs.

Another attempt by Robert Wakefield to effect a settlement of the legal tangle over the Mount Tabor reservoirs failed yesterday when T. B. Wilcox, of the Water Board, refused to negotiate with Mr. Wakefield. Mr. Wakefield contended that the courts recently awarded him $148,600. He said he would settle with the city now for $140,000.
Mr. Wilcox says he can see no reason why the city should settle on that basis inasmuch as the contract called for $116,886, and he believes that the city should pay that and no more. He favored appealing the case.
Mr. Wakefield said it was to get away from this appeal that he offered to settle for $160,000 less than the amount of the verdict. Mr. Wilcox declares that while extras for the reservoirs
