

BIG DUTIES DUE HERE

Calcutta Cargoes Reach Portland Via Puget Sound.

GERMAN TOYS ARRIVE, TOO

Partial Rail Shipments Are Made Regardless of Fact Hamburg-American Liner Saxonia Is Due From Orient Sunday.

In two days there have been 21 cars of burlap and gunny bags delivered here by rail from Puget Sound, the shipments originating at Calcutta, regardless of the fact that the Hamburg-American liner Saxonia is due here from the Orient Sunday, and the Royal Mail service was also available for the business.

Fortunately for Portland duties on the shipments are being paid here and will aggregate $8,000. The lot represents about 1,000 bags and the tax exacted by the Federal Government for permitting its delivery in this country is between $17 and $18 a bale, depending on the width and amount in each. Another rail shipment recorded at the custom-house was three cars of toys from Germany which came overland from the Atlantic seaboard. Earlier in the month six cars of toys were received from "Der Vaterland," and all are consigned to Portland firms, preparing for Christmas trade.

The liner Saxonia will have cargo for Portland, some of which originated at Hamburg and more from Eastern ports. The gunnies and burlap that came by rail were delivered on Puget Sound by the Japanese steamer Sidsuoka Maru, and it is said that the ship will call at the Blue Funnel liner Ajax. While the Saxonia is a carrier with a capacity of 5500 tons deadweight, she could have accommodated more cargo destined for this city. She is the second of the Hamburg-American vessels to reach the Coast in the new service, and will have all of the space allotted shipper here filled when she sails on the return voyage.

NEW HYDROPLANE ARRIVES

Portland Aviator Will Display "Flying Boat" in Harbor.

Portlanders are to be given a demonstration of a "flying boat," the latest invention of C. Christoffersen, an aviator well known here, which arrived on the steamer Beaver yesterday. Mr. Christoffersen is to reach the city today on the Shasta Limited, and after demonstrating the machine at Hoquiam next week, will return here. The body of the boat is built similar to a launch, but so shaped that when in the air it resembles a huge shark. It is equipped with a 150-horsepower engine and carries three passengers. When ready to fly it weighs over 1600 pounds.

The Beaver had a full passenger list and considerable cargo when she left. The rush of travelers continues and the Beaver's accommodations were disposed of before she had completed her voyage from San Francisco to Los Angeles. The steamer Rose City sailed at 8:45 o'clock this evening morning, having been held for a short time in order to complete loading. She had 250 passengers, nearly 100 of whom were in the new service. Captain Hays usually well patronized for this season of the year.

GUY HOWARD NEEDS NEW HULL

Government Steamer Found in Poor Shape for Service.

Operating continuously for ten years and reeling off an average of 1500 miles a month in sailing to and from the steamer Major Guy-Howard, which the Government runs between Port Stevens and Seattle, repairs ordered to be made at Seattle yards have been held up pending the arrival of an inspector to pass on her condition, as most of the planking has been removed below deck and she will probably be held here to have a new hull built.

LORD DERBY DUE IN TODAY

Kina Working Last of Cargo, Also British Ship Arracan.

Bound here to load grain for the United Kingdom and en route to M. H. Houser the British steamer, Lord Derby passed Tatoosh yesterday and is due in the Columbia today. The vessel will not be numbered with the 1912-13 grain fleet, but will be dispatched early next month with old crop grain.

SHIPPERS TO SEE CHINOOK

Impetus to Be Given Campaign for Special Bar Dredge.

Unofficial reports of the work being done by the dredge Chinook at the mouth of the Columbia River are encouraging and a movement is on foot for a delegation of shipping men to go to the lower harbor and remain aboard the dredge during an entire day's working period of 15 hours, to get an idea of her operation and the difficulties encountered. Information is being gathered to be used in a campaign for securing a special type of dredge for the work on the bar. The trip will be made under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce navigation committee and leading shipping men will be invited.

DOCK PLANS ARE NOW READY

Supreme Court Decision Will Not Retard Work Projected.

Present projects of the Commission of Public Docks will not be affected through the decision of the Supreme Court dealing with title to overflowed land on the waterfront belonging to the upland owner and at a special meeting of the commission yesterday the matter was discussed. The West Side plans will be ready for the inspection of contractors about July 2, as it is hoped to advertise for bids at once. The dock will have a width of 112 feet and length of 1075 feet. There will be a lower dock of 300 feet for the accommodation of river steamers, but deeperwater vessels will load and discharge on the upper level. The total capacity of both docks will be 20,000 tons.

River Falling Here.

Although the Upper Willamette readings show a rise in the river, a fall of four-tenths of a foot in the last 24 hours was recorded last night at Portland by the local United States Weather Office. With the river again falling the outlook becomes brighter as the inundated docks and sawmills will soon be in use.

Marine Notes.
Notices have been issued from the office of Henry L. Beck, inspector of the Seventeenth Lighthouse District, that bids will be received up to July 1 for the sale of condemned property at the Tongue Point Buoy Station, consisting of scrap steel, iron and brass, boiler tubes, engine pumps and articles of a miscellaneous character.
Regulations governing the opening of drawbridges on the Willamette River south of Oregon City have been issued from the office of Major McIndoe, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., signed by Lindley M. Garrison, Secretary of War, which provide that all river bridges shall be opened for the passage of vessels when a long whistle blast is given, followed by a short blast. Higher whistles shall be given on one long blast and two short blasts being sounded.
Loaded to capacity with general cargo, the Olson & Mahony steamer Carlos E. due here tonight from the Golden Gate.
On her first trip to The Dalles since the fire closed the Cascade Locks, the steamer Dalles City left here yesterday. The steamer Bailey Gatzert went through the locks Wednesday and will continue to make daily trips. The steamer Tahoma will attempt to lock through with freight and passengers until early in the week.
For the first time in several years the Portland Custom House is "broken," for on the retirement of Collector Malcolm accounts were closed June 22 and funds deposited to the credit of the Secretary of the Treasury. Then registration was made to open an account to care for running expenses, salaries and other disbursements under the direction of Collector Burke, which has not been acted on.
Equipped with engines taken from the steamer Uncle Sam, the La Center again in service on the Portland and Lewis River run. When she began that service her wheel was driven by gasoline power and she was rated the largest of her class on the river, while now she takes position as the smallest steamer in the fleet.
As the steamer Stanley Dollar has been delayed in leaving San Francisco, 150 tons of cargo was diverted by the Arrow Line to the steamer Beaver, of the "Big Three" fleet, arriving yesterday. The Stanley Dollar is to sail north early next week.

Major in State's Land Force to Head City Health Department as Which Marine Commander is an Assistant.

While the Oregon Naval Militia was away on its annual cruise, the Oregon National Guard captured the Health Department of the city and still holds possession. The situation is just this:

Dr. L. J. Wolf, who was with Peary on a Polar expedition, is a deputy health officer of the city of Portland; also he is chief surgeon, with the rank of lieutenant-commander of the Oregon Naval Militia. Therefore, obtaining leave of absence, he sailed with the good ship St. Louis, in his official naval capacity, prancing up and down the decks in his handsome gold-braided uniform for ten days. He returned but Wednesday.

During his absence things were "done" by Dr. M. B. Marcus, who holds the rank of Major in the Oregon National Guard, a military man of experience, seizing the opportunity, captured the whole Health Department of the city, obtaining possession through the appointment of himself as Health Officer by Mayor-elect Albert J. Isaacs, still in possession, and is strengthening his position daily.

It is believed, however, that an action will be taken during the week which negotiations may eventually lead to a peaceful solution and make possible harmonious conduct of the Health Department with the operations of the Oregon National Guard and Naval Militia.

According to street gossip, the only point to be settled between the two forces can be signed is as to who will be the ranking officer in the Health Department in case Major Marcus resigns his position as lieutenant-commander. It is said that forces can and will work jointly. Friends of both officers are the sincere hope that the Army and Navy will get together soon.

Kitten's Four Legs Turn in Like Kangaroo's.

Three Cats in Warehouse of San Francisco - Portland Steamship Company Have 15 Kittens.

If THIS were Dick Whittington's time instead of the 20th century, J. W. Ransom, agent for the San Francisco-Portland Steamship Company, would be satisfied with life. Mr. Ransom has had his ratters increased from three to 21 on Ainsworth dock in the last few days and is worried about there not being enough rats to go round in the future.

The other day he discovered that the old dock cat had a litter of six kittens. Going into his private office to get something soft for them to lie on he was astonished to find that his black cat had given birth to six kittens in his office. This de luxe maternity ward was too much for him and he went after the janitor. Entering the janitor's office he discovered that his white cat was nursing a litter of six kittens, and quit hunting trouble and went up town.

The kittens born to the white cat have their fore legs turned under and they run about like kangaroos. Ransom said that he had heard of the kangaroo rats, which live on the prairie, but that kangaroo cats were new to him. When asked what he intended to do with all his cats, he shrugged.

IRVINGTON PLANS BIG DAY

Entire District to Join in Celebration on July Fourth.

Several hundred children will join hands in a big celebration of the Fourth of July at the Irvington house in the Irvington district. Arrangements for the affair are being completed by a committee headed by H. P. Palmer, and the indications are that it will be one of the most interesting and unusual celebrations ever attempted in this city.

Lyman H. Howe Show Said to Differ From All Others.

CHOICE OFFERED GUESTS

The Oregonian Invites 1000 Advanced Students From Various Schools to See Pictures of Educational Merit at Hellig.

When those eligible to attend The Oregonian's party at the Hellig Theater Monday apply for the 1000 tickets to be distributed they will be required to present their final term report card as marks of identification. The tickets available, 500 for the matinee and 500 for the night performance of the Travel Festival, will be given out beginning at 9 o'clock Monday morning at the business office of The Oregonian. First comers will be served first. As long as the supply of 1000 reserved seats lasts the young people can make their choice of matinee or night exhibition. The same programme will be presented at each performance.

Eligible List Given.

Students of the high school courses in the following schools are included in The Oregonian's invitation: Washington High School, Lincoln High School, Jefferson High School, St. Helena Hall, St. Mary's Academy, St. Mary's School, Columbia University, Portland Academy, Hill Military Academy, Christian Brothers Business College.

The Lyman H. Howe show, which the guests of The Oregonian will see and which will be repeated at the Hellig all next week, is said to enjoy the largest patronage of any entertainment of the kind in the country. It is said of the Howe reproductions that they are unlike any other moving picture presentation.

Pictures Made Realistic.

The exhibitor brings a company of imitators who impersonate people of all nations and operate mechanical apparatus that produces all kinds of sounds. The phonetic accompaniment by men and women is selected so that the spectator may easily imagine he is really at the places depicted. No dramatic subjects are shown. The pictures are of travel in moving photography exclusively.

LA GRANDE, Or, June 26. (Special.)

L. Stillwell, of May Park, thinks he holds the record for large strawberries this year. He is displaying a box of 24 berries weighing net two pounds and three ounces. Mr. Stillwell says that in past years he has found large berries (about 100) in a year. He says the extra large berries are quite numerous, many being too large for commercial value.

Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of Mother's Friend that has aided many a woman through the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health in advance of baby's coming, and had a wonderful influence in developing a lovely disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. Mother's Friend is an external remedy, and not only banishes all distress in advance, but assures a speedy recovery for the mother. Thus a woman who is always healthy and full of life, and who is a woman with all her strength preserved, thoroughly enjoys the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend can be had at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle. Write to E. B. Riedel, Regulator Co., 228 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their free book. Write to-day. It is most instructive.

SUICIDE LABELED WRONG

Archie Petteyes Supposed to Be Dead in Seattle Is Alive Here.

When Archie Petteyes read "Portland Boy Suicide" in a Portland paper yesterday he became somewhat interested, but when he saw that he was the boy who was supposed to have jumped into Seattle Harbor from the Coleman dock, he was intensely interested.

The article which he saw was a dispatch from Seattle, saying that a note had been found on the Coleman dock signed by Archie Petteyes, declaring that he had become tired of life and had jumped into the bay.

Petteyes believes that the person responsible is Leslie Anderson, a 20-year-old youth, who left Portland a few days ago on one of the river steamers, on which he had taken a place as waiter.

Anderson's home is in San Francisco, but the greater part of his life has been spent in the Northwest.
