

ADVENTIST WARNS OF SUNDAY LAWS

Elder Martin Sees Political Motive in World's Christian Citizenship Meet.

OREGON SYSTEM FEARED

Women's Vote and Initiative Privilege to Be Used to Get Religious Legislation, Is Declaration. Dr. Rossiter Speaks.

"The Gospel of Good Health," by Dr. F. M. Rossiter, and "Religious Liberty," by Elder W. F. Martin, secretary of the religious literary department, were the main topics and speakers yesterday at the pavilion at the camp-ground of the Seventh-Day Adventists, East Fifteenth and East Davis streets.

There were other speakers practically every hour, the day closing with a great meeting last night, at which Luther Warren spoke. Elder Martin, in the afternoon, devoted much time to the significance and purpose of the Second World's Christian Citizenship Conference, which opens next week.

Elder Martin, in the afternoon, devoted much time to the significance and purpose of the Second World's Christian Citizenship Conference, which opens next week. President H. W. Cottrill, in introducing Elder Martin, also spoke of that conference as a meeting of significance, especially to Seventh-Day Adventists.

Conference Motive Viewed. "I asked one of the ministers what they were going to do about it," said Elder Martin. "The reply was: 'We are going to take the law to the people by the initiative. We cannot overcome your lobby at the Legislature.' And so that is the plan. We have moved up a peg for we have popular government here in Oregon—the Oregon system. When a law is passed by the people it cannot be vetoed by the Governor nor amended by the Legislature, and the plan is to get the Sunday laws, deeded at the Legislature, enacted by the people through popular government under the deceptive title of reform and morality movement."

Adventists Are Warned. The address of Elder Martin was a warning to the Seventh-Day Adventists, that they must be on their guard against Sunday legislation, which he declared had become more dangerous in Oregon than ever since the franchise of women, and that the ballot titles were deceptive and the bills as "long as the people in the State."

Dr. Rossiter, who spoke on "The Gospel of Good Health," declared in spite of advancement in medical science, sanitation and healthful laws 3,000,000 people in the United States were sick practically all the time. He said that in Portland today at all the hospitals operations were in progress from early morning till night, and 4 out of 5 of the people die at all times from preventable diseases.

H. R. ALBEE ENDS VACATION. Commission-Elect May Make Appointments at Meeting Today. After passing nearly a week at Seaside, Mayor-elect Albee returned to Portland last night at 10 o'clock, much refreshed and ready for whatever comes along in the way of work.

It is probable that a City Engineer and Purchasing Agent will be named at this session, but as to who will be chosen for either place there is no intimation. Commissioner-elect Dieck will recommend the engineer and Commissioner-elect Brewster the purchasing agent.

Mr. Albee, who is to recommend a Municipal Judge, probably will make no mention of that phase of the business this morning, as he has not as yet determined upon a man for the place.

Mr. Albee last night declared himself unqualifiedly in favor of arranging a system whereby bonds of the city may be sold to Portland people in denominations sufficiently small as to attract the small investor.

POSTMASTER HONOR GUEST. Postal Clerks Tender Banquet to Their New Chief. Postmaster Frank S. Myers addressed more than 200 persons last night at a banquet given in his honor by Branch 61, United National Association of Postal Clerks, in Hotel Oregon.

It was a get-together affair with piano music by Miss Hilda Granstrom and songs by E. Clinton C. H. Ackerson, W. L. Walker and L. A. Quigley, and with speeches by the clerks and others. The women clerks were present and were represented in the toast-receiving by Mrs. J. L. Wheeler.

K. J. Nolan was toastmaster. Assistant Postmaster Shellenberger spoke on the eight-hour law. Postoffice Inspectors E. C. Clement and H. G. Dun and also talked briefly, as did W. L. Dalton, D. S. Duff, Ray Landon and H. S. Westbrook.

TRACK GOOD FOR 70 MILES. Tetzlaff, Cooper and Lewis Show Speed of Tacoma Course. TACOMA, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—Making laps during informal practice in three minutes, 29 seconds.

Official practice will not begin until 10 o'clock Saturday, but the Flat and the Stutz pilots are chafing under the delay and are tuning up on their own account. With good weather it is predicted the course will be good for 80 miles an hour.

It was decided this afternoon that the proposed run of the racers and their cars to Olympia to call on Governor Lister will be made Monday afternoon. Mortimer A. B. Howe, chairman of the Tacoma race committee, has been selected to be official starter of the coming grinds.

HONEST WORK LAUDED. REED PROFESSOR ADDRESSES TRADE SCHOOL GRADUATES. R. L. Sabin, President of Board, Reviews Progress of Movement in City—Diplomas Given to 34.

"The kind of work that these young people have been learning to do is the kind of work that must be honest to be successful," said Professor N. F. Coleman, of Reed College, speaking before the graduating class of the school of Trade School last night.

Carson, Wash., Woman Killed. VANCOUVER, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. G. Wells, 24, daughter of L. J. Johnson, of this city, was killed by the eastbound No. 2 at Carson today. The body was taken to Stevenson. The coroner's verdict was an accidental death.

STEFANSSON NOW READY

People that far north even if there is land. We are not going out to look for people, but to explore the vast region that is now a blank on the map."

Party Leaves Nome July 20. Mr. Stefansson expects to leave Nome on the Karluk about July 20 and reach Point Barrow, the northernmost point of Alaska, by the end of the month. From Point Barrow the Karluk and the Alaska will sail eastward to the mouth of the Mackenzie, which the explorer hopes to reach by August 10.

Provisions Are Concentrated. "Although the Karluk is a smaller ship than Peary's ship, Roosevelt, she carries more than twice the provisions taken by the Roosevelt. Our provisions are all concentrated. We have little of the sort of supplies taken by whalers, such as salt beef and canned goods, preferring dried fruits and grains, which require much less room."

Dr. Anderson and Mr. Murray, the other two members of the expedition, who will sail on the Victoria with Mr. Stefansson, will come to Seattle from Victoria Saturday.
