Old Cyrus Parkin—clown, foghorn or anything else you may call him—gave up his coaching operations to go in against the Portland Beavers at Recreation Park today and returned the fast-slipping Oaks winners, 3 to 1. Parkin slipping Gaks winners, 5 to 1. Farkin pitched a clever game, holding the northerners to six hits. He might have worked through with a shutout had he covered first base in the seventh, when Ness went after Chadbourne's slow roller, the runner eventually scoring on Doane's double. Todd in Good Form.

The Oaks started to score in the sec-ond, and in the sixth added the final two which gave them the contest. Rip Hagerman, who started for the Beavers, was the twirler who gave the Oaks their runs, for when "Mysterious" Todd went on the mound he blanked the champions in the last two frames.

In the second Zacher doubled and raced home on Cook's Texas-leaguer.

The Beavers did a lot of attacking in the early innings and were aided by Crisp's poor work behind the log. No less than four stolen bases and an arror was absented to Crisp in the first. error were charged to Crisp in the first three innings, Parkin being forced to do some air-tight pitching to get out of several tight places. After the early innings Parkin held the Beavers well

Oaks Rally in Sixth.

In the sixth the Oaks staged a rally and were aided by Hagerman's wildness. Leard walked and Schirm was hit by a pitched ball. Ness sacrificed and Coy's drive to left brought in Leard. Hetling followed with a single to right.
In the seventh the neavers got real active after two were out. Chadbourne grounded between first and the pitcher. Ness played the ball, but when he turned to make the throw to first Parkin hadn't moved from the mound. That gave Chadbourne a chance to score on Doane's long double to center-field

He said, however, that no such decision had been made, and that for a time Lajeie probably would continue to hold his old place.

Joseph P. Cohn. When Joseph P. Cohn, president of the Spokane Northwest-ern League ball club, announced his retirement from the game a day or two ago, there was sounded the retirement of a unique figure of baseball.
Although one of the best-hearted men in the business, a spender who went to the limit to give his city the best teams in the market, Cohn was not popu-lar in his home city. SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 27.—The Sacramento Wolves climbed into third place in the pennant race today by winning their third game of the week from Los Angelos, 7 to 3. Lively kept the visitors hits well scattered. Perritt was just wild enough and his support was just wild enough and his support was just loose enough to enable the Wolves to put over six unearned runs in six innings.

Perritt gave way to a pinch hitter in the seventh with straight victory. He allowed hits, but scattered them and was tight in pinches. Boise made two in the first on a homer. The score:

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Washing-ton and Philadelphia divided today's scratches, while Schmutz and Wilson were touched for the same aggregate. Only once did Vancouver legitimately threaten, that time in the seventh inning, when the visitors bunched two infield safeties, but Stanley proved his worth by fanning all three men and retiring the side. Among the whiffers was Lewis, of the pinch brigade.
