FARM LANDS

IN

CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA.

ALONG THE

GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC HIGHWAY.

The railroad will soon be completed, giving settlers main line transportation; an army of men are rushing the work that it may be completed in 1914. The land along this new railway is unsurpassed for fruit, mixed farming, gardening, dairy and stock farms; no irrigation; Summer rains; peavine and wild grasses to horse's back; rich soil; good climate; fine drinking water, beautiful rivers and lakes; wild fruit; fish and game in abundance; thousands will go lyto the country when the railway is completed.

We sell the best vallew land in all size tracts at a low price and on unusually easy terms; can give guaranteed title to every acre we sell; over 100 stereoption views of Central British Columbia free: everyhody welcome. Call week days; will show views evenings by appointment. For maps, government report, field notes and full information, call or write W. A. Stockton, district salesman for the NORTH COAST LAND CO., LTD., Paid-up capital, $1,500,000.

FIVE-ACRE POULTRY RANCH.

I own ten acres cleared and under cultivation; very productive soil, of which I use but five acres for a poultry plant. To the right sort of fellow I'll make a good proposition to take five acres off my hands; I will furnish lumber and material for modest dwelling and outhouses, cow. pige, chickens and some implements, all for $2000. Pay me $300 cash, take possession now and you pay the balance in five years. I am doing well with poultry.

Location is 28 miles from Portland, two trains each way every day and depot, store, postoffice and schoolhouse are only 200 yards from front gate. R 180, Oregonian.
