While Mr. Sayre is not known to Washingtonians, he has made several quiet visits to the White House in recent months and was a frequent visitor at the Wilson home in Princeton, N. J.

The announcement was received with keen interest in social circles of the National capital, as the wedding starts the Winter season with an important National capital, as the wedding starts the Winter season with an important social function. Not since Miss Alice Rooseveit and ex-Representative Longworth, of Ohio, were married has there been a wedding at the White House and many years prior to that the wedding of the Clevelands took place.
