OREGON NATIONAL GUARD CELEBRATES

Multnomah Members Solve Practical Problems on Clackamas Range.

3000 WATCH MANEUVERS

Rifle Fire and Roar of Artillery Give Realistic Touch to Spectacular Programme Held as Part of July Fourth Picnic.

Three thousand people participated yesterday in the annual Fourth of July celebration of the Oregon National Guard troops stationed in Multnomah County.

The celebration was held at the state rifle range, Clackamas station, and was of a distinct military order, a feature of the day being a field maneuver in which all troops, including field artillery, participated.

Three special trains from Portland carried the large throng to the rifle range, where hostilities in the simulated battle opened shortly before noon. The problem was one involving a spectacular frontal attack, the troops being divided in attacking and defensive forces. Blank ammunition was used, and the volleys of rifle fire and roar of artillery gave the engagement a realistic touch.

Definite Problem Worked.

The engagement was in no way of the old "sham battle" type, a definite field problem being worked out under modern tactics. Aside from affording a stirring exhibition for the spectators it afforded the Multnomah County citizen-soldiers valuable battle practice. The two opposing battalions of the Third regiment were commanded by Majors Bowman and Smith, with Captain Welch and Lieutenant Randall in command of opposing field artillery, and Captain Brown in command of the Coast Artillery Corps troops.

Following a basket picnic in the grove at the range a field and track meet was held under the direction of the Armory Amateur Athletic Association. The events and winners in this programme were as follows:

Mounted section contest, Battery A, First Field Artillery, O. N. G.—Won by first section, time 35 seconds; second, fourth section, in 37 seconds.

Military equipment race—Won by Corporal Sawyer, Eighth Company, C. A. C.

Wheelbarrow race—Won by Company F, Third Infantry.

Blank cartridge race—Won by Sergeant Hansen, Company C, Third Infantry.

Privates Take Honors.

Litter bearers' race—Won by Sergeant Gallien, Ambulance Company.

Obstacle race—Won by Private Richardson, of Company C, Third Infantry, O. N. G.

100-yard dash—Won by Private Clark, Eighth Company, C. A. C. Time 10 4-5 seconds.

Leap frog race—Won by two-man team from Eighth Company, C. A. C.

Silver cup for highest number of points won by any organization—Won by Company C, Third Infantry, with 21 points; second place to Eighth Company, C. A. C., with 13 points.

The crack Coast Artillery Corps Band played military and popular airs through the day. Dancing in the Quartermaster's depot at the range concluded the programme. Officials of the day were:

Referee, Major Loran A. Bowman, Third Infantry; judges, Captain Hiram U. Welch, Battery A, and Captain George H. Schumacher, Third Infantry; timekeepers, First Lieutenant Harry O. Hulse, Third Infantry, and Second Lieutenant Eugene C. Libby, Third Infantry.

"$700" TURNS TO BRASS

Mount Tabor Carmen Discover "Find" Is Rose Festival Medals.

After reporting the find of $700 Thursday night and gloating over the reward which they would probably get, Conductor E. Clarke and Motorman P. Sampson returned early yesterday morning to where they had hidden the "sum" at the end of the Mount Tabor carline and uncovered it, to find that the supposed hoard was only brass souvenirs of the Rose Festival.

The souvenirs were in a greasy bag in a corner of the car and had the appearance of $10 gold pieces. They were too excited over their supposed treasure to look at it closely and buried it at the end of the line for fear of being robbed.

When their night's work was done they returned to the place of hiding and took the supposed gold out. They tore the bag all to pieces in their eagerness and found the supposed hoard to be nothing but the pieces which were sold to boost the Rose Festival.

Many of their friends had heard of it before they had uncovered it the second time. They were figuring on the fine time they were going to have with a portion of the sum, which they expected as a reward. Yesterday they were back at work with less vim than on the last trip Thursday night.

AGITATORS ARE IGNORED

Industrial Workers Active in Oratory and Collecting "Benefits."

In spite of the holiday, the gang of Industrial Worker agitators, who are making a defunct strike at the plant of the Oregon Packing Company the basis for their propaganda, remained on the job yesterday and filled the air with oratory, principally in villification of the constituted authorities and societies. No overt acts were committed which called for police interference. The agitators are assiduous in taking collections, which are said to have amounted to a considerable figure, ostensibly for "strike benefits."

The policy of Chief of Police Clark is to ignore the affair as far as possible on the ground that these agitators thrive upon restriction and soon subside when ignored.

Montavilla to Build Clubhouse.

Montavilla Board of Trade appointed committee at the meeting Wednesday night to look up a lot in that suburb that will be suitable for a clubhouse. Representatives of the district east of the city limits at Montavilla appeared and asked for aid in getting Bull Run water and electric lights. A committee was appointed to take up the question of extending water mains into that district. About 25 families are interested, ten more houses are under construction in the neighborhood.

To bake the paint on its passenger cars a railroad in Pennsylvania has built a huge oven in which they can be run.

NEW SLATE PICKED

McBride for Mayor, Preston for Senate, Is Offer.

EX-GOVERNOR WANTS JOB

Two Seattle Aspirants to Honors in Politics Claim Credit as "Progressives"—"Ideal" Opponent to W. L. Jones Found.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 4.—(Special.)—Here's a new slate, fresh from the makers and wholly intact:

For Mayor—Ex-Governor Henry McBride.

For Senator—Harold Preston.

Close friends of Governor McBride know that he would have been a candidate for Mayor in the Gill recall campaign if Gill had decided to drop out of the fight, but he refused to be drawn into any controversy.

It is stoutly asserted that ex-Governor McBride, who has been regarded most seriously as a probable Republican candidate for United States Senator next year, has recently intimated that if a Mayoralty nomination were tendered him he would accept it. The ex-Governor, however, has been pursuing the even tenor of his ways as a lumber and shingle manufacturer. He lives on Queen Anne Hill, and though a former Superior Court Judge, no longer practices law.

The Harold Preston suggestion is new. Ten years ago, Preston was a candidate for Senator and was beaten by ex-Senator Levi Ankeny. There always has been a controversy over the real story of the defeat of Preston. But Preston at that time was a pioneer in the so-called progressive movement. On the ground of "progressiveness," both men have a right to an exclusive claim to agency.

Politicians who figure on Preston as a logical candidate want him designated as a Republican opponent to Senator Wesley L. Jones. They argue that Preston would fit in as an ideal Seattle candidate, would satisfy the progressive element in the party and could reclaim his old support throughout the state.

Making Monday a Day of Extra Interest

Many merchants bend their energies in the direction of making Monday one of the busiest days of the week, if not the busiest.

Interest focuses on this day and intensifies because of the special importance and general character of the sales prepared and advertised, either Saturday, Sunday or Monday.

Monday is one of the big days of the week in the large cities, and the examples set by the metropolitan merchants have been generally followed by the merchants in smaller places.

Aiming to expand business healthfully and briskly, it is customary for the stores to offer items of unusual interest and prices that are attractive.

Readers of THE OREGONIAN who follow these Monday sales announcements have learned from pleasant experience that it pays to read the advertisements and attend the sales promptly.

If you have not made it a point of heeding the offerings of merchants on Monday do so.

You will profit materially.

Six average words count as one line on cash advertisements and no ad counted for less than two lines.

On "charged" advertisements charge will be based on the number of lines appearing in the paper, regardless of the number of words in each line. Minimum charge, two lines.

The Oregonian will accept classified advertisements over the telephone, providing the advertiser is a subscriber to either phone. No prices will be quoted over the phone, but bill will be rendered the following day. Whether subsequent advertisements will be accepted over the phone depends upon the promptness of the payment of telephone advertisements. Situations Wanted and Personal advertisements will not be accepted over the telephone. Orders for one insertion only will be accepted for "Furniture for Sale," "Business Opportunities," "Roominghouses" and "Wanted to Rent."

The Oregonian will not guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors occurring in telephoned advertisements.

The Oregonian will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

In "New Today" all advertisements are charged by measure only, 14 lines to the inch.

Remittances must accompany out-of-town orders.
