

GATES IS BEATEN BY FATHER-IN-LAW

In Minneapolis Cafe Frank Hopwood Knocks Down and Kicks Financier.

SPECIAL THEN FLIES EAST

Parent of Millionaire's Second Wife Uses Pugilistic Tactics on Son-in-Law, Who Afterward Leaves for East on Special Train.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 4.—(Special.)—Charles G. Gates, millionaire, who married Miss Florence Hopwood, of Minneapolis, was knocked down and finally dragged to his feet and into the street and shaken by his infuriated father-in-law, Frank Hopwood, in a cafe last night, according to the story of the cafe proprietor, several late diners and a policeman.

Young Gates, it was said, went into McCormick's cafe Thursday night. He found a party of guests of America, an organization of hotel clerks, and joined them, volunteering to pay for all the wine and lobsters they cared to drink and eat. He then is said to have scattered $5 bills promiscuously around the cafe.

Mr. Hopwood was notified and he went to the cafe. He sent the head waiter after Gates, and when the young man came to the door he was greeted by a blow to the point of the jaw, flooring him.

BOXERS FIGHT 25 ROUNDS

Bennett and Gaffney Get Draw Despite Five Added Periods.

PENDLETON, Or., July 4.—(Special.)—After Jackey Bennett, lightweight boxer, and Billy Gaffney had fought 25 rounds, Referee Dudley Evans called the battle a draw. The fight among the spectators was about evenly divided. The contest was scheduled to go only 20 rounds, but as Evans would give neither by decision at the end of the 20th, and as both refused to accept a draw, the referee bowed to their demand that the bout proceed until the 25th.

Vancouver's Lament

(With Apologies to "Casey at the Bat," or Any Place Else.)

By Rex Lappman.

Oh, somewhere in this blessed land the sun is shining bright,
Or the lights are burning bravely if it happens to be night;
And somewhere children laugh and shout,
And somewhere grown folks smile,
And the highest note of living is forgotten
For a while.

DEAD ARE ARRIVING

Evidence of Battles in Macedonia Seen—Greeks Massacred.

LONDON, July 4.—Evidence that serious fighting is occurring in Macedonia is found in the arrival of large numbers of wounded and prisoners at the various Balkan capitals, but owing to the silence at Sofia and conflicting and probably biased stories from Serbian and Greek sources, it is next to impossible to form any accurate idea of the progress of the struggle.
