Miss Elsa Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier, will christen the flower "Multnomah". During the two days of the show there will be in attendance a number of professional florists, who will give advice on all points relating to the growing of sweet peas. The officers of the sweet pea society also will be in attendance to answer all questions. Captain Pope advises cutting the flowers the evening before they are to be shown.

"SHENANDOAH" IS WINNER. Two Lively Comedies Included in Bill at Columbia Theater. You can't beat the patriotic appeal of the stirring scenes shown in "Shenandoah," the great war drama which is the headline attraction on the bill that opened yesterday at the Columbia Theater. The climax of the play is reached when the Federal troops are wavering and General Sheridan, 20 miles away, gallops on his spirited steed to the retreating forces, rallies them and snatches a victory out of apparent defeat. The production is truly a masterpiece. It is classed as the greatest drama ever produced in motion pictures. Each of the three reels is full of spectacular features, and in addition to the stirring war scenes there is mingled love and romance. The theater was crowded at each performance yesterday and the appreci-
