Gilment Distract Objects to Division.

—The directors of the Gilbert school district, adjoining Lepts, are opposing a movement to take off a large slice of the territory of the district on the southeast out of which to form a new district. The matter is before the boundary board of the county for settlement. Donald Fury, a director, said that to divide the district would only result in establishing two small districts. It is proposed to build a modern schoolhouse of four rooms in place of the present building at Gilbert's crossing, which Director Fury says will take care of the entire territory, but if the district is divided the improvement may not be made. Those asking for the not be made. Those asking for the division say they want a schoolhouse nearer their homes.
