

TEN I. W. W. JAILED; SPEAKING FORBADE

Mayor and Sheriff Call Halt on "Orators."

RAID IS MADE AMID CHEERS

City and County in Concerted Move End Disturbance.

CHIEF CLARK ISSUES EDICT

Abuse of Flag, Governor and Other Officials by Rabid Speakers Is Signal for Summary Action.

DEVELOPMENTS IN I. W. W. SITUATION.

Mayor Albee announces that street-speaking in Portland must cease. Sheriff and police arrest 10 I. W. W. orators and lodge them in County Jail.

Crowd of spectators cheer Sheriff and police when raid is made.

Before arrests are made, I. W. W. speakers abuse the flag, Governor and Sheriff and use riot-inciting language.

Arrests are made by concerted action of Mayor and Sheriff.

"We will fly the red flag of anarchy over the marble palace up there!" shouted Tom Burns, I. W. W. speaker, haranguing from a soapbox at Sixth and Washington streets shortly after 9:30 o'clock last night.

The next minute Frank Curtis, Deputy Sheriff, under orders from Sheriff Tom Ward, stepped forward and pulled Burns from the soap box.

"You are under arrest," said Curtis. "Almost on the instant, Sixth street, filled with a crowd of several hundred persons, only a comparatively small percentage of whom were I. W. W.'s, became a scene of the wildest disorder."

Schwab Jumps on Box.

As Burns was pulled down, Rudolph Schwab, another agitator, one of the leaders of the strike at the Oregon Packing Company, jumped on the box.

At the same time Word and five other of his deputies, McCord, Downey, Ford, Bulger and Grafton, jumped forward. They were reinforced by a dozen patrolmen under Sergeant Roberts, who had been posted on the outskirts of the crowd under strict orders from Mayor Albee to preserve order at the meeting.

The raid that ensued was made as the result of concerted action planned by Sheriff Word and Mayor Albee. Both were present in the crowd.

One of Word's deputies, dragged Schwab off the box, and as he did so the agitator's place was taken by Mrs. O'Connor, a full-blooded Cherokee Indian, one of the strikers at the Oregon Packing plant. She began to wave her arms wildly, but Deputy Bulger took her by the arm and pulled her off.

Ransley Leaps to Box.

Word orders that the next person to try to speak from the box would be arrested had been shouted forth, but right after Mrs. O'Connor's arrest I. D. Ransley, who had harangued from the box earlier in the evening, leaped to her place.

Then what had been an uproar, became half a riot.

Ransley was arrested. Then speaker after speaker who tried to follow him on the box was seized and placed under arrest.

In quick succession James D. Brown, George Allen, C. E. Peterson, Frank Biechl, Jacob Goldberg and Morris G. Bergman were hauled by police and deputy sheriffs and bundled off to jail in the police patrol wagon.

Sheriff Word himself stopped the procession of speakers after 10 had been arrested by seizing the soapbox.

Mayor Takes Charge.

Just as the disorder started, Mayor Albee, who had been attending a late meeting at the City Hall, had come by in his automobile. The Mayor was in time to see Burns arrested by Curtis. He immediately leaped out of his car and in person gave orders to his policemen to suppress all incendiary language and clear the streets.

Earlier in the evening, however, the Mayor had held a personal conference with Sheriff Word, at which the Sheriff told the Mayor he would attend the meeting and co-operate with the police. The arrangement met with the full approval of Mayor Albee, who had previously repeated his strict orders to Chief Clark to have his men make arrests the minute speakers overstepped the bounds of decency or vulgarity. The action in breaking up the meeting thus became a joint affair on the part of Sheriff and police.

Riot Call Sent to Station.

Almost with the first arrests, when the ugly temper of the I. W. W. contingent had become apparent, a riot call was sent to the police station. With its shrill wail open the big police patrol, bearing Captain Riley and a dozen reserves, was at the scene in less than a minute.

Captain Riley immediately spread his men out through the street and ordered them to drive the crowds onto the sidewalks and then to clear them. In the meantime those arrested were put into the patrol wagon and started for jail. As the big police automobile started

PROUD 'DAD' LOOKS FAR FOR HERO SON

CRIPPLED VETERAN'S SOLE OBJECT IS TO FIND "BOY."

With Pension Savings John Massey, of San Francisco, Comes to Portland on Clew Now Year Old.

"Still searching for his 'boy,' although the 'boy' is 41 years old and has been absent from home for nearly eight years, John Massey, 81 years old, a veteran of the Civil War and a pensioner, came to Portland yesterday on a clew received a year ago in Sacramento, Cal. The old man, bent and crippled with his years, walked into the police station last night and gave a description of his missing son to Police Captain Riley. He said that his 'lad' had gray hair and that he had been commended by the Secretary of the Navy for heroism, but that he would not come home to his father.

Mr. Massey, who was a member of the Thirty-seventh New York Regiment, the Irish Rifles, in the Civil War, lives at 1219 Greenwood street in San Francisco, but is staying in Portland at the St. Charles Hotel. He told how James R. Massey, his son, in 1905 left home, and he has since heard nothing from him, although he followed his trail to several points in California, and finally to Portland, when he was told that his son had come north. His trips are made at intervals, and in the meantime he is saving up from his $30 a month pension money, funds to support him in his search.

"He is a brave boy, my son," said the old man, "but he is fond of wandering. He saved the lives of two apprentices in the Bay of Mazatlan, when he was on shipboard, and received a letter of commendation from the Secretary of the Navy, but he will not come home to his old father."

ALFONSO TO GET BEQUEST

Court Upholds Will of Royalist Who Left $500,000 to King.

ST. GAUDENS, France, July 15.—King Alfonso, of Spain, will soon be able to enjoy a legacy of $500,000, bequeathed to him by Albert Sapene, ex-Mayor of a small town near Toulon, who died in an asylum some time ago.

The Civil Court here today pronounced judgment upholding the testator's will, which his sister and other next of kin had sought to have set aside on the plea that he was insane when he made it.

The court held that while Sapene suffered from the mania of persecution, he showed that he was fully able to conduct his business and had a valid reason in an old family quarrel for disinheriting his sister.

Sapene was an ardent Royalist.

BERRIES BRING BIG PROFIT

Independence Grower Estimates His Gain at $200 an Acre.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., July 15.—(Special.)—W. F. House, of this city, thinks he has found a way to beat the high cost of living. He has half an acre of newly-planted loganberries, from which he will harvest 150 crates this year. These will net 70 cents a crate, or $105 for the half acre.

From one acre of 'old berries' Mr. House says, one should pick 300 boxes, which would bring $350 at the current price. Deducting cost of cultivating and harvesting, Mr. House estimates the net profit should be $200 an acre. Good berry land can be bought in this vicinity for from $50 to $100 an acre.

MOORS PRESS SPANIARDS

Tribesmen Give No Rest to 15,000 Troops Sent to Punish Them.

TETUAN, Morocco, July 15.—Fighting has been practically continuous in this vicinity the past six days. On Friday a column of 12,000 Spanish troops met a fierce reception from the Moors. After fighting all day and burning a few of the natives' huts they returned to their original positions, having lost 60 killed and 150 wounded.

The hostile tribes are increasing in strength and activity and are not giving any rest to the 15,000 Spanish troops sent to punish them.

JAPANESE DINES GUTHRIE

Ambassador on Way to Post Is Guest of Commissioner.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—George W. Guthrie, the newly-appointed American Ambassador to Japan, was the guest of honor today at a luncheon given by Dr. Juichi Soyeda, who has been investigating the condition of Japanese in California and sounding the sentiment of this country toward his nation.

There was an exchange of felicitations and mutual good wishes, but no declaration of significance. Ambassador Guthrie sails tomorrow for his new post.

SLIT SKIRT VEXES MAYOR

Young Woman Arrested in Richmond Will Defend Mode in Court.

RICHMOND, Va., July 15.—Mayor Ainslie and Police Chief Werner made today the first arrest here for the wearing of slit skirts.

Blossom Browning is the name of the young prisoner gave at the station-house. Women furnished bail for her appearance in Police Court tomorrow.

The girl contends that her dress was the fashion, was bought in a licensed department store, suited her taste and she has retained counsel to defend her.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC STRIKE VOTE TAKEN

Issue Comes Over Electric Roads.

MEN DEMAND INTERCHANGE

Lines From Portland to El Paso May Be Involved.

NEW CONTRACTS OPPOSED

Seniority Rights Said to Be Threatened by Segregation of Portland, Eugene & Eastern—Two-Thirds Vote Required.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Nearly 5000 employees of the Southern Pacific Railroad on lines extending from Portland, Or., to El Paso, Tex., members of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen are voting on the question whether or not to strike, as the result of a deadlock between company officials and the employees' general committee over vital issues.

The ballots will be returned to San Francisco by July 27 and will be canvassed immediately. A two-thirds vote of all the members of the two organizations employed over the Southern Pacific system will be necessary to authorize a strike.

Electric Lines Are Issue.

The trouble has arisen over the failure of the company to extend interchange of rights to the electrified lines and a disposition to deal with the employees of these electric lines separately from the employees of the steam lines. This, the men contend, is a violation of the existing contract in the first instance and withdraws from the men, in the second, the accumulative strength of their organization over the Southern Pacific lines in protecting their interests.

The situation is described as follows by E. A. Grege, vice-president of the conductors' organization:

"The demand was that the rights of main line conductors, both freight and passenger, on the Western division should be extended to cover suburban territory electrically operated."

Promotions Declared Unequal.

The trainmen contended that this should be granted for two main reasons—first, that in freight service men are required to work as brakemen for many years before being promoted to freight conductors and finally to passenger conductors, while in the Oakland suburban service passenger brakemen recently had been promoted to be-

MULHALL MAN OF MANY ACTIVITIES

Lobbyist Flits From State to State.

COMMITTEE TRACES COURSE

Strikes and Politics All in Season's Work.

MANY NAMES BROUGHT IN

Taft, Beveridge, Sherman, Watson of Indiana, Littlefield and Others in Public Eye Are Mentioned in Letters.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Senate lobby investigating committee made fair progress today over the sea of the Martin M. Mulhall correspondence.

Mulhall was in the witness chair and Senator Reed at the helm of the investigating bark.

Mulhall identified several letters, telegrams and memoranda put in the record by the committee with only a bit more hesitancy than he evidenced before, although he was cautioned by Senator Reed to look closely at the slips handed to him.

Activities Cover Big Field.

Mulhall's attention was directed today almost exclusively to the last half of the year 1907, and the first part of 1908. He was jumped from Maine to Missouri; from Baltimore to Indianapolis, and up to Cleveland in those few months. He told, or his letters did, of his strike-breaking activities in St. Louis, of an effort to aid ex-Representative Watson, of Indiana, politically, and of how well he knew ex-Senator Beveridge of that state.

He gave details of another visit to Maine, and another effort to give political assistance to ex-Representative Littlefield of that state. He mentioned again ex-President Taft, the late Vice-President Sherman, the late James Watson, of the National Association of Manufacturers, and other men prominently connected at one time or another with that organization.

Millionaires Against Watson.

The witness thought about $32,000 had been raised in Indiana for the Watson campaign, and a letter read just before adjournment tonight told of "three millionaires having been in the state, one of whom was willing to spend $100,000 to defeat Watson." The latter did not identify the millionaires and the committee did not ask who they were.

Mulhall told today how he broke a strike of shop workers in St. Louis.

WOMAN, 109, LEAVES 200 DESCENDANTS

DIVORCED AT 80, SHE COMES TO AMERICA AT 99.

Family Believed to Be Largest on Record, Due to Three Daughters Who Had Many Children.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—(Special.)—Mrs. Freda Videutsky, who died here today in her 109th year, leaves 200 descendants and in this respect was the head of what is believed to be the largest family on record. There are 11 grandchildren, and 74 great-grandchildren in this country, while her daughters here say that 11 more grandchildren in Russia have 190 great-grandchildren in that country and two great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Videutsky was born in Kief, Russia, in 1804. She lived there until she was 99 years old, when she was brought to America. Curiously she had only three children of her own and all of her descendants come from her daughters, who raised immense families.

Another strange record held by this woman was that she obtained a legal separation from her husband at the age of 80, after having lived with him 60 years.

MUZZLE SHORTAGE EXISTS

Dog Owners Say Type Specified in Law Not Obtainable.

Although the City Commission will today pass an ordinance requiring the muzzling of all dogs in the city, difficulty may be experienced in enforcing the ordinance because of a shortage of muzzles. Dog owners say local stores have been unable to get enough wire muzzles to meet the demand.

A provision will be inserted in the dog ordinance which will be passed today providing that the dog's face must be entirely covered. The ordinance will carry an emergency clause and will go into effect immediately after being signed by the Mayor.

The Police were given instructions yesterday by the Mayor to be prepared to enforce the ordinance after noon today.

Bryant, who has lived in Pocantico Hills for years until Rockefeller bought his place, moved away, taking the dog with him, but it got lonesome and today made its appearance back at the old home on the Rockefeller estate.

BRISTOW ASKS HOW MUCH BRYAN NEEDS

Resolution in Senate Stirs Capital.

SECRETARY DEFENDS COURSE

Wilson Asked to Advise What "Commoner" Should Get.

VACATION LECTURES HIT

Senator Points Out That Others Lived on Much Less Than $12,000 a Year, and Says Country Wants Nebraskan's Full Service.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Washington was interested chiefly today in developments following Secretary Bryan's statement that he had to spend his vacation on the lecture platform because he could not live on the Secretary of State's salary of $12,000 a year. The lobby investigation, the tariff and the Mexican situation were forgotten, temporarily, at least.

Senator Bristow introduced a resolution calling on the President to advise the Senate what would be a proper salary to enable the present Secretary of State to live with comfort and to enable him to give his time to the discharge of his public duties.

Secretary Bryan issued this statement: "When Mr. Bryan's attention was called to criticisms that were published in regard to his lecturing, he replied: 'In devoting a part of my vacation to lecturing, I am doing what I believe to be proper, and I have no fear whatsoever that any unbiased person will criticize me when he knows the facts. 'For 17 years the sources of my income have been writing and lecturing, but each year I have made more public sacrifices, without compensation. My earning capacity has been large and I have made not only an income sufficient for my immediate needs, but have saved on an average something more than $10,000 a year. In accepting the office which I now hold, I gave up the opportunity to add to my accumulations, for I do not expect to increase during my term the amount I have laid aside—that is, I am willing to forego any advantage I might derive from the acquiring of $40,000 more for the privilege of serving the country in this office during the coming four years.'

Lectures to Be Continued.

"I will do more, if necessary, but I do not believe that fair-minded people will ask it of me. Therefore, until I see some reason why I should not bring my income up to my expenses, these lectures will continue to be delivered during the time that other officials give to their vacations. In addition to supplementing my salary I hope that my lectures do good—that people who attend them would not do so if they did not think they received their money's worth. I am glad to be glad to spend my vacation resting instead of lecturing if I could do so without cutting in upon the amount that I have laid away as a protection against old age."

Senator Bristow's resolution set out that from 1759 to 1799 Thomas Jefferson had held the office of Secretary of State at salaries of $3500 a year; from 1799 to 1813, John Marshall, James Madison, James Monroe and John Quincy Adams served at $6000; from 1819 to 1853 Henry Clay, Martin Van Buren, Daniel Webster, John C. Calhoun and James Buchanan served at $8000; from 1853 to 1913 William H. Seward, James G. Blaine, Thomas F. Bayard, Walter Q. Gresham, Richard Olney, John Sherman, John Hay and Elihu Root served for $8000, and added:

"During this long period of time, no one of these eminent statesmen was compelled to neglect the duties of the office because of the meagerness of salary."

Neglect of Duty Implied.

"Whereas the 'Great Commoner' now holding that high office, Hon. William J. Bryan, has stated in the public press that he is not sufficient to enable him to live with comfort and that because of the meagerness of the salary of $12,000 per annum, he is compelled to neglect the duties of his office and go upon the lecture platform in order to earn a living, and that

"Whereas there are now pending before the Department of State matters of the highest importance to the Nation affecting the relations of our country with Mexico, Japan, England and other foreign countries that demand the most earnest endeavor and continuous attention of the Secretary of State, therefore be it

Resolved, That the President be requested, if not incompatible with the public interests, to advise the Senate what would be a proper salary to enable the present Secretary of State to live with comfort and to enable him to give his time to the discharge of his public duties, for which he is now being paid the sum of $1000 per month."

Mr. Shafroth, of Colorado, declared Secretary Bryan had assured him he did not desire an increase of salary.

Republicans Smile Broadly.

Reading of the resolution was greeted by broad smiles on the Republican side.
