

September.

Mrs. Gerald Volk was hostess on Thursday at a dinner at which she en-tertained guests from Forest Grove, in-

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Matson are enjoy ing an interesting motor trip through Southern Oregon.

Miss Doris Clark and Miss Georgia Echess, of Spokane, Wash., were guests of Miss Greata Butterfield at a house party at Hillcrest until yesterday. Miss Rosalind Kingsley, who is at Hillcrest will remain another week.

Clarence Eubanks and Joseph Ham-mond are week-end guests at Hillcrest, and, with Miss Rosalind Kingsley and Miss Greata Butterfield, will partici-pate in the christening of the son of Mr and Mrs. Frederick Adams, of St. Helens Episcopal Church. Miss Butter.

Helens, Or., Sunday night at the St. Helens Episcopal Church. Miss Butter-field will be godmother. Mrs. Wells Gilbert will be hostess this evening at a dinner party at the Waverly Country Club. A few init-mate friends will share Mrs. Gilbert's hospitality. In compliment to Mrs. A. T. Agnew

In compliment to Mrs. A. T. Agnew and Mrs. Lawson Adams, Mrs. S. F. Brower entertained on Thursday at an elaborately appointed luncheon and card party at the Hotel Mallory. Mrs. Agnew is an attractive visitor from Denver, and Mrs. Adams is a charming young matron of Belvedere, Cal.

PERSONAL MENTION.

PERSONAL MENTION. J. H. Reid, of Hermiston, is at the Annex. C. L. Houston, of Astoria, is at the C. L. Houston, of Astoria, is at the Portland.

F. B. Fenwick, of Nelson, B. C., is at the Cornelius.

C. H. Oxman, of Jamieson, Or., is at the Cornelius.

R. H. Cowden, a Silverton merchant, is at the Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. L. Sellers, of Corvallis, are at the Carlton.

George N. Trowbridge, of Denver, is at the Multnomah.

S. Sovey is registered at the Imperial, from Astoria.

John Ries is registered at the Carlton, from Hood River.

S. B. Crouch is registered at the Mult-omah, from Roseburg. J. D. Maddox, of Metolius, registered at the Carlton yesterday.

Henry Witters and family, of Saginaw, are at the Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lee, of Prosser, Wash., are at the Perkins,

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilson, of Rawley, Idaho, are at the Perkins.

J. R. Holman, a railroad contractor from Seattle, is at the Portland.

J. D. Gordon, a prominent business man of Newberg, is at the Perkins.

man of Newberg, is at the Perkina. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Ackley are reg-intered at the Perkins, from Medford. E. H. Gartrell, a commercial man of Ashland, Ky., is registered at the An-nex. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bartiett, of Los Angelas, registered at the Annex yes-torday. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Avery, of

IN BRITISH COLUMBIA CITY.

Invitation Extended to Portland Organization to Visit Carnival August 4 to 9.

BULL RUN PARK.

Not only is Victoria, B. C., extending feature of Monday night. Experts from Oregon Agricultural College will lecture on horticultural

Oregon Manufacturers' Association

The Chautauqua will open Monday. The regular programme will consist of domestic science lectures. In addition to this there will be fishing trips and a tramp to Mount Hood under direction of guides. Campfires and electrical illuminations in the forest will be the

ARGUMENT ON WRIT DENIED

Judge Morrow Too Busy to Heat

George McCord's Complaint.

Circuit Judge Morrow refused yes-terday to listen to argument on the al-ternative writ of mandamus issued by Judge Gatens requiring Sheriff Word to admit George K. McCord, representa-tive of an evening newspaper, to the County Jail or show cause why he shouldn't. Judge Morrow said that he

The carnival at Victoria has a prodld not have the time. The case was assigned to Judge Morrow by lot after Judge Gatens, in his capacity as pre-siding judge, had signed the alternative writ. Judge Morrow did not take up trial

FIVE-CENT FARE WANTED of a case yesterday, but said that he was busy clearing up olds and ends in anticipation of leaving Wednesday for Interest Commercial Club Begins Fight for Cheaper Transportation. A large delegation from South Lents attended the last meeting of the Lents commercial Club to ask asistance in securing 5-cent fare to Portland Miss M. Train, who was spokesman of the delegation, set forth the grounds for asking for 5-cent fare from Watson station. A special committee was ap-station. A special committee was ap-pointed to submit the matter to the traffic manager of the Portland Rall-way, Light & Power Company and ask for the reduced car fare. FATHER GALLAGHER NAMED

Columbia University President Reelected at Indiana Meeting.

A committee was appointed to take up the matter of securing more grounds for the Lents school, as the building practically covers the school tract leaving no playground. It was reported that the apparatus for Lents playgrounds are being installed.

by filing an insanity complaint. It she is pronounced same by a medical commission the criminal charges will be pressed with vigor, the Sheriff de-

her and she is being held under cash bail of $550. Chief of Police Clark and Sheriff Word consulted yesterday morning Word consulted yesterday morning when friends of Dr. Equi visited the Sheriff to entreat in her behalf. It was agreed finally that if these friends, brs. Lloyd Irvine and Mary Gardner and Miss Emily Speckhrt, a nlece, would take her out of the state the prosecution would be dropped. It was strictly understood, however, that if she returned the charges would be res-urrected and pressed. Yesterday shortly after 5 P. W. Da

HOMEOPATHS WILL COME

Between 500 and 800 Physicians Expected in Portland in 1915.

Portland has captured the 1915 con-Fortiand has captured the 1915 con-vention of the American Institute of Homeopathy, a body which will bring between 500 and 500 physicians here from all parts of the country. Dr. B. E. Miller returned yssterday from the annual convention of the institute, in Denver, and removed success in bis

Denver, and reported success in his efforts to land the affair two years hence. Dr. Miller has been inviting the body for four years and this year the agreement was made that the homeopaths will go to Atlantic City in 1914, and be here the year following. Money for elaborate entertainment of the doctors was subscribed before Dr.

Miller went to Denver. After the convention met in Pasadena four years ago Dr. Miller suc-ceeded in holding one train intact until it reached Portland with 150 delegates from the East, homeward bound. They were captivated with the city. Already a number of New York physicians have arranged to charter a ship to carry them through the Panama Canal to them through the Panama Canal Portland in 1915.

Rev. Father Joseph Gallagher, C. S. C., who has been president of Columbia University for several years, was re-elected at the session of the Provincial Chapter of the Congregation of the Holy Cross, held last week at Notre Dame, Ind., President Gallagher and Rev. Georga Marr, C. S. C., director of studies, will return to Portland in before the court on a charge of having the stuff in his possession.

"FALSE" ADVERTISER FINED Woman Employed by Ad Club Secures Merchant's Conviction.

Frank M. Hamburger, proprietor of a store at 145 Second street, was found sully in Municipal Court yesterday of false advertising and fined $40 by Judge Stevenson. The evidence was secured by a woman in the employ of the committee on law and advertising of the Ad Club. W. B. Shively, attor-ney for the club, assisted the District Attorney's office in prosecuting. Testmony on behalf of the state was that the Ad Club's woman buyer saw an advertisement offering "$15 all-wool dresses for $6.95." She had purchased one and, approaching the proprietor, had asked him if it really was all wool. After examining it he had answered strictly fund the charges would be real urrected and pressed. Yesterday shortly after 5 P. M. Dr. Irvine and Dr. Mary MacLachian called at the County Jall with an automobile and took Dr. Equi with them to the failway station. A little lator they telephoned that she had flatly refused to go. They drove back to the Court-house and Deputy Sheriffs Rogers and Lumsden took Dr. Equi upstairs to jail. Then she changed her mind again. This time Deputy Sheriff Lumsden in the negative and exchanged the dress for one which he said was all wool. for one which he said was all wool. Charles Coopey testified that this gar-ment was only 50 per cent wool.

Reward Offered for Speeders, John B. Yeon announced last night that he would give $100 reward to persons who would furnish information on which to arrest and convict a young man and woman who were seen by him speeding on the Willamette boulevard. Mr. Yeon said he was driving on Wil-lamette boulevard when the two passed him at a high rate of smead with him at a high rate of speed, with dangerous recklessness. He followed them, he said, as far as Rose City Park. and lost them. The machine displayed no number sign when Mr. Yeon saw it.

Montana Educator at Vancouver.

C. W. Tenney, inspector of rural chools of Montana, with headquarters at Helena, arrived at Vancouver, Wash, yesterday and will pass two weeks vis-lting his father, H. D. Tenney, of that clty. Mr. Tenney will visit the state departments of education at Olympia and Salem in the interest of the work he represents. He has just visited Sait Lake City, St. Paul and Bismarck, N. , on a similar mission.

11

Afternoon Tes on Deck Shortest Ocean Passage to Europa Less than four days at sea-two days on the St. Law rence Elver. Canadian Pacific Atlantic Em-presses sail from Quebec-other creellent stesamers from Montreal Ask about Mediterranean service. Descriptive books and all information from FRANK R. JOHNSON. General Agent Corner Third and Fine Sta., Portland, Cy Or Ask Any Ticket Agent.

10

W. Fries, charged with sitting on the curb at the Oregon Packing plant and singing ribald songs, was fined $20. Possibility of Federal intervention in the present disorder, was seen yester-day when J. H. Barbour, immigration inspector, was an intervented Obligation of all good citizens to assist the authorities by keeping out of browds where disorder is occurring or ikely to occur, and to absent them-selves as quickly as possible when trouble develops, was expressed in strong terms by Municipal Judge Stevenson yesterday.

Stevenson yesterday. The court sustained the drastic action of the police in using force to disperse the disorderly crowd on Sixth street Thursday night, and found sev-eral persons guilty who, it was shown, were not of the rioters, but seriously hampered the police in their efforts to learn the street the str clear the street. "When trouble such as this arises," American institutions. While most of said the court, "It is the duty of all the active disturbers now here are im-citizens to obey the orders of the police mune, the law would reach many of without hesitation. I know it netties one to be ordered to move, but the only safe and proper course is to do so without parley. It doesn't take much to constitute disorderly conduct under such circumstances as these. The rights of the citizen are subservient to "Lakeview P NEW STATION OSWEGO LAKE emergency measures of the police." Broken Head Punishment.

"Your broken head will be your punishment,' he said to Art Kite, who,

"Lakeview Park" is the new station on the Southern Pacific on Upper Os-wego Lake. Round trip fare daily 20 cents. Train 97, leaving Jefferson-street depot 9:45 A. M., and train 113, at 6:30 P. M., run to Lakeview Park. Re-turning, three trains leave the park for Portland at 1:55, 4:57 and 7:17 P. M. Fars to Osward String Lower Control of the strength of the stre with his wife, was arrested after he had refused to move. Kite contended that he was an innocent bystander. but the police showed that he ob-stinately refused to move with the crowd. Ed Ralston, a harber, also was found and the standard t

Take the family and spend the day ound guilty because he tried three at beautiful Oswego Lake

Picnic Grounds. "Lakeview Park" is the new station

the days of rough menrough speech-rough manners — are fast passing away And-with it-the drinking of rough, strong,

Cyrus Noble-mild and pure

W. J. Van Schuyver & Co., General Agents Portland, Oregon

high-proof whiskey

to the Union Depot, but again Dr. Equi backed out and refused to go. She was returned to the County Jali.