Democrats Join In Hot March to Train.

AUTOMOBILES ON BLACKLIST

Secretary Continues Journey to California.

SPEECH AT CLUB EXPLAINED

Navy Department Head Says Nothing in Talk at Seattle Could Be Construed as Intended to Incite Violence by Sailors.

A dozen perspiring Democrats walked 15 blocks yesterday to greet Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina, Secretary of the Navy, who was Portland's guest for just 30 minutes.

The dozen "faithful" assembled at the Federal building. There was not an automobile in the crowd, although it contained several Federal officeholders.

"This is democracy with a small 'd,'" said District Attorney Reames, mopping his brow at Davis street, about half way to the depot.

"I thought someone would have an automobile," panted Collector of Customs Burke.

"We must keep within our salaries," said Postmaster Myers.

Although the train was 10 minutes late, the welcoming party, having underestimated its marching ability, was a minute later.

Secretary Daniels travels a la Pullman, with Mrs. Daniels and his aide, Lieutenant-Commander L. C. Fuller.

He looked "cool as a cucumber" beneath his clean new Panama as he descended from the car and received the greetings of the perspiring disciples of Jefferson.

Secretary Daniels denies having said anything in his speech at the Rainier Club at Seattle Thursday night which could be construed as having incited the troubles of the fleet, joining in which bluejackets from the fleet, joining with citizens, "cleaned out" several places occupied as headquarters by Socialists and Industrial Workers of the World.

Reference Declared General.

"I made no reference to any individual, to the Socialists or the Industrial Workers of the World," said Secretary Daniels.

"I did say that the Stars and Stripes stood for law and order in this Nation," he continued. "I referred to the symbolism of the emblem, and said that it was the only flag that we should have in our land. I said that if an engineer, running a train, saw a red flag ahead, he would know that it meant danger, and that it was time to apply the brakes."

Secretary Daniels was not a whit disturbed when he was told that he was accused of being responsible for the riots which occurred the night following his speech.

"I was speaking in general terms," he said, "and made no reference to Seattle."

Mayor Cotterill Hears Speech.

Someone asked him if the Navy Department would take any action in regard to the sailors who took part in the smashing.

"I have had no report from the Admiral of the fleet on the matter as yet," he said.

Mayor Cotterill, of Seattle, was a guest of the Rainier Club at the banquet at which Secretary Daniels spoke, and welcomed the Secretary to the city.

The Mayor took exception to the way in which the Times "covered" the secretary's speech, and issued an order forbidding the paper to issue either Saturday or Sunday. With the aid of an injunction and a restraining order obtained from the Superior Court of Seattle, the Times was able to override the Mayor's order, and issued both days.

Entertainment Is Projected.

Among those who welcomed Secretary Daniels to Portland yesterday were C. C. Chapman, representing the Portland Commercial Club, and J. R. Rogers, chairman of the reception committee of that body. They made arrangements with Lieutenant-Commander Fuller for the Secretary's entertainment a week from today, when he returns to Portland.

He will arrive at 2:30 P. M. Monday and will remain until 9 P. M. He will be taken for an automobile ride over the city—it has been 23 years since his last visit to Portland—and will be shown Portland harbor, probably from the launch of Collector of Customs Burke. Later there will be an informal reception for Secretary Daniels at the Commercial Club, followed by a popular dinner.

One of the topics which will be broached at the dinner will be that of Portland's future as a naval base.

Harbor Recognition Desired.

MOUNTAIN PEAK TO GLOW TONIGHT

RED FIRE WILL BE BURNED AT 10 O'CLOCK.

Party of Young Men's Christian Association Tourists Will Give Fireworks Display.

Watch Mount Hood tonight. Just before 10 o'clock turn your gaze eastward and await results.

Fifty pounds of red fire are to be set off on the summit exactly at 10 o'clock, if conditions are favorable, as it is expected they will be. The men in charge of the illumination comprise a party that left Portland last Thursday under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. It will be the largest quantity of red fire ever burned on the mountain, and will be the second time that there has been such a display from the summit. On several other occasions illumination took, several thousand feet down the mountain, has been used.

The Y. M. C. A. members have been taking their trip by easy stages. They went by electric line to Boring, and from that place "hiked" to the mountain, camping along the way. They will make a slow ascent today, too, so that all of the excursionists will be at the summit by 10 o'clock. A party will be made at the top of the mountain. The climbers, numbering more than 20, will carry blankets with them and dig holes in the snow, where they expect to sleep tonight without discomfort.

Instead of returning by the usual route, the party will descend the north side of the peak. They will reach Cloud Cap Inn early in the day, and some will remain over until Wednesday. Others will press on to Hood River and arrive in Portland tomorrow night. The party is in charge of A. M. Griley, physical director of the association, and experienced guides.

FRIEDMANN PATIENT DIES

Sensational Dash Across Continent for Treatment Is Recalled.

TOPSFIELD, Mass., July 20.—(Special.)—Alford Warriner Cooley, ex-United States Assistant Attorney-General and an ex-Judge of the New Mexico Supreme Court, the most prominent patient to receive Dr. Friedmann's "cure" for tuberculosis, succumbed to the disease here last night.

His dramatic 3000-mile dash across the continent from Silver City, N. M., to Providence, R. I., where Dr. Friedmann was then holding his only New England clinic, was sensational. "Judge" Cooley served on the Supreme bench of New Mexico from 1898 to July 1, 1910, when he resigned. He was a member of the Union, Harvard and City Clubs of New York; of the Metropolitan and Chevy Chase Clubs of Washington, and of the Loyal Legion and the American Bar Association.

Widespread belief that Dr. Friedmann had discovered a cure for consumption renewed Judge Cooley's hope, and it was through the offices of Colonel Roosevelt, it is said, that an appointment was made with Dr. Friedmann.

BURGLAR WORKS IN CHURCH

Thief Gets Small Amount From Sunnyside Edifice.

For the second time in four months the Sunnyside Methodist Church was broken into by a burglar, Saturday night. The only loot obtained was a small sum in one of the Sunday school collection boxes. The thief pried open the closet where a valuable communion cup is kept but for some reason did not take it. He went from place to place about the building, prying open every receptacle where it appeared that valuables might be kept.

A similar occurrence four months ago netted the intruder nothing, so far as could be discovered.

DANIELS STICKS TO DEFENSE OF FLAG.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 21.—(Special.)—When seen at an early hour this morning aboard a Southern Pacific train, Secretary Daniels said he cared nothing about any memorial the Socialists might send to President Wilson, but that he could not discuss the matter until informed by the President.

The Secretary said he wanted it made clear that his remarks at Seattle in his toast to the American flag did not refer to a particular class but to any class who might insult the flag. "I still maintain the same feelings I had when I made that speech and I still insist no man is so great that he has a right to insult the American flag," said Mr. Daniels with emphasis.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 20.—Responsibility for the riots Friday night, in which the headquarters of the Socialists and the Industrial Workers of the World were sacked and the furniture burned in the streets by civilians, led by sailors from the Pacific reserve fleet, was placed on Secretary of the Navy Daniels in a memorial to President Wilson adopted today by the radical wing of the Socialist party. The headquarters of this branch of the Socialists at Fifth avenue and Virginia street was one of the places wrecked by the crowd Friday night.

The memorial denounces Secretary Daniels for his speech at the Rainier Club Thursday night, in which he made a brief reference to patriotism and denounced the red flag and its supporters.

The memorial sets forth that the Socialists party has never advocated violence and that the Socialists have "never advocated, done, attempted or even remotely dreamed of any act of desecration to the flag of the United States or any emblem or insignia thereof."

"Moreover," continues the memorial, "we submit that the chief way in which the National emblem is desecrated in this and other cities of the Union today is by cloaking of rascality and tyrannical abuses of the aspiring poor within its folds. In short, making a lie of its symbolism. We call attention, Mr. President, to the saying of Dr. Johnson, 'Patriotism is the last refuge of the scoundrel.' We have steadfastly and consistently insisted that the issue toward which our activities

BRYAN CANCELS SPEECHES

Secretary to Return to Washington to Meet Ambassador Wilson.

WARSAW, Ind., July 20.—Secretary of State Bryan today made two addresses to crowds at the Winona Chauvina grounds and announced that his speaking dates for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday had been cancelled to enable him to return to Washington for the conference with Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson and President Wilson on the Mexican question.

"The conference is expected to occur Friday," Mr. Bryan said. "But I am willing to return to my duties at any moment my presence may be needed."

Mr. Bryan received no compensation for the speeches he made today. In one of his addresses the Secretary said: "I do not object to people objecting. I have found in my experience that people will find fault, no matter what a man does, whether it is good or bad."

DYKE TO BE BLOWN OCT. 10

Goethals Announces Time for Connecting Oceans at Panama.

PANAMA, July 20.—Colonel G. W. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama Canal, announced today that steamshovel work in the Culebra cut section hereafter will be conducted on the assumption that Gamba dyke will be dynamited October 10.

The Gatun lake will flood the cut, thereby connecting the Atlantic and Pacific, although navigation of the canal probably will not be attempted for some time thereafter.

NICARAGUAN PLAN WILL BE OPPOSED

Bryan-Wilson Policy Stirs Discussion.

LITTLE NATION WANTS LOANS

Acquiescence Based on Financial Considerations.

DEBT TO BE SUPERVISED

Administration Would Like to See Principle Applied to Other Central American Countries, Capital Believes.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Secretary Bryan's plan for the extension of the protecting wing of the United States over Nicaragua broached to the foreign relations committee of the Senate yesterday, with the consent and approval of President Wilson, has become the absorbing topic of diplomatic and Congressional consideration.

Members of the Senate evince a growing conviction that the principle to be applied to Nicaragua is one that the Wilson Administration would be glad to see extended to the other Central American Republics. The original Nicaraguan treaty has been the subject of open discussion among Senators. This compact did not go further, however, than to guarantee the United States exclusive canal rights and a naval base site, in exchange for a payment of $3,000,000 in gold.

Opposition Is Developed.

The latter project, to extend a virtual protectorate over Nicaragua, has assumed the character of an international policy which members of the Senate are discussing with emphatic expressions of opinion. It is believed that Senators Bacon, Clarke of Arkansas, and some other influential members of the foreign relations committee will take an attitude of opposition toward the Bryan-Wilson plan; while Senators O'Gorman, Burton and several others are known to favor many of its essential points.

Secretary Bryan has not proposed, it is understood, that the United States shall assume or guarantee the debts of Nicaragua. The desire of the United States for control of its customs resources by the United States, so that it could assure loans to refund its pressing debts, has been known for some time and met the opposition of the Senate foreign relations committee when it came before that body in the form of definite treaty agreement.

Definite Policy Outlined.

Secretary Bryan's plan calls for a definite statement of policy that would guarantee Nicaragua's independence, would guarantee the control by the United States, of that country's dealings with foreign nations and would put into definite terms the recognized principles of the Monroe doctrine, prohibiting foreign nations from securing foothold on the American continent.

It is understood, however, that the only agreement on the question of the international finances of Nicaragua will be embraced in that part of the treaty by which Nicaragua would bind herself not to "assume or contract any public debt," in the discharge of which the ordinary revenues of the nation.

MOTHER'S ESTATE INTACT

If Second Mrs. Grant Dies Before Her Husband Does, Her Son Will Inherit Only Part—She Is Joint Manager.

SAN DIEGO, July 20.—(Special.)—It was because U. S. Grant, Jr., feared that his son, Chaffee Grant, would halt his honeymoon with the former Mrs. American Workman-Will by legal proceedings to annul a pre-nuptial agreement whereby the second wife of General Grant's namesake secured the better part of the Grant millions that he kept his wedding a week ago last night secret.

It became known this afternoon, however, when the bridegroom and his bride left here for San Francisco on the steamer Yale, en route for the Antipodes on the liner Arangi, that three days after the marriage license was issued Mrs. Will Grant visited a firm of attorneys who have been acting for the bride and there ordered the drawing up of an agreement, whereby most of Mr. Grant's fortune, estimated by his friends and business associates at more than $3,000,000, became virtually the property of the woman who was formerly Mrs. Will and still more formerly Mrs. Frederick Elms, and whose first husband is still living near Los Angeles.

BOMBS THROWN IN LISBON

Police Frustrate Organized Plot and Capture Explosives by Basketful.

LISBON, July 20.—An organized attempt at bomb throwing in various parts of the city early today was frustrated by the police, who were warned and were on the lookout. They captured several automobiles in which they found baskets of bombs and arrested many persons who had gathered in the streets.

While the police were engaged in these operations, shots were fired, and several persons were wounded. One bomb, thrown from an automobile, killed a policeman and injured others. A man dressed as a sailor and carrying a bomb was arrested while attempting to enter the barracks. Many of those arrested are said to belong to the advanced radical party.

Children playing in the streets later in the day found two bombs. A boy hit one of the bombs with a hammer and it exploded, wounding him severely.

HOT WAVE IN EAST ENDED

Weather Bureau Expects Fair Skies and Falling Temperatures.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—No hot wave is looked for this week by the Weather Bureau. Over the southwest temperatures probably will be high at times, but not so high as last week.

Generally fair weather may be expected over all sections except the South Atlantic and East Gulf states.

5 DROWN IN LAKE MICHIGAN

Members of Washington Americans Have Narrow Escape From Death.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Five persons were drowned in Lake Michigan along the shore near Chicago today. A heavy northwest wind piled up a surf that created an undertow unfamiliar to lake bathers.

Five members of the Washington Americans narrowly escaped drowning in the heavy surf. Walter Johnson, Ainsmith, Henry Laporte were caught in the undertow and brought back to land only after a hard struggle. Gedeon was dashed against a pier and stunned. He was taken from the water unconscious.

JAPAN IS EMBARRASSED

Fear Is Mexico's Friendly Overtures Will Be Misunderstood in America.

TOKIO, July 21.—Mexico's demonstrations of friendship are pleasing, but embarrassing to Japan. It is feared here that they might be misunderstood in the United States and affect the friendly relations with that country.

The Japanese newspapers are chagrined at the outcome of the California negotiations, but express gratification that Mexico, unlike the United States, welcomes Japanese emigrants. They point out, however, that anything in the nature of an alliance between Japan and Mexico would be impossible, as it would undoubtedly awaken suspicion that Japan was fostering bellicose designs.
