Our motto is more appropriate than ever before.

What better recommendation could there be for Campbell's Chicken Soup? It has the real home flavor which comes only from choice materials and plenty of them prepared in the same generous and careful way that you follow in providing for your own home table.

This perfect soup is a pleasing surprise to any one who has never tried it; and a double surprise in the simple and easy way in which it is made ready to serve. Try it yourself. That's the only way to realize how good it is.
