BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

We have often been asked
How they'll close in October.
That's a hard thing to say
Until the season is over.
But the gink who has picked
San Francisco to land in The Pacific Coast League
Has guessed the right standin'.

It will be some time before the Seals forget what Portland did to them, Elmer Lober, particularly. Lober again distinguished himself for McCredie yesterday in the final game, his ultra-sensational fielding and batting virtually clinching the sixth consecutive Portland victory by a temperature of 2 to 1.

Six straight — a clean sweep of the series—is quite some package to deal out to that husky San Francisco bunch in this "Land of the Knee and Home of the Rave." Judging from the results one might arrive at the conclusion that the Seals are the best crew of stevedores west of the Rockies. But such is figuring without Lober.

The blonde, who came to Portland in trade for Krueger, plainly committed grand larceny yesterday before 4000 fans on an afternoon so hot that even the ball seeped perspiration. He negotiated two of the most spectacular catches of the campaign. Elmer reached the ultimate of all achievements in the eighth inning, however, when he climbed the left wall like a kangaroo and trapped with one hand a terrific drive by Charles.

Lober Saves Higginbotham.

That remarkable one-handed catch saved Higginbotham. Mundorff was prancing past second with the tying run and an error at third by Substitute Derrick a moment later would have given the Seals victory.

But, wipe away our incipient crocodile tears, Lober held tightly to the spheroid. Result—Portland is two and one-half games to the good in the Coast race, the Angels having sunk to third yesterday—oh well, as Irvin Cobb would say, the Angels are no worse off than the Seals, who have dropped like a rock, rolled like a stone, dug like a Mick, burrowed like a worm and are gone.

Higginbotham and "Doc" Thomas were the opposing flingers and both piched a fair article of ball. Hig allowed seven hits and had remarkable control; Thomas nine hits. Thomas' chief mistake was in not having some Lober to pull him out of the swamps.

Lober's Double Figures.

Portland scored its two runs in the second inning. Speas, after two were out, whacked the first of two hits into center. He registered by great sprinting on Lober's two-bagger into right. Claude Berry, another of our palpitating pinch hitters, singled cleanly to left, scoring Lober.

The boys threatened again in the sixth, but Clarke and Charles nipped Derrick at the plate on an attempted double steal.

San Francisco's lone run accrued in the third inning on hits by Thomas, Charles and Johnston. Howard's only other ripe opportunity came in the eighth when Mundorff beat out an infield hit and stole second. Charles here inserted his screaming clout into left, which same Lober yanked off the fence amidst a remarkable demonstration by the fans lasting fully two minutes. Johnston went safe on Derrick's error and stole second, but, with third and second populated, Hogan struck out.

Manager Howard ragged so hard at Umpire Held's third strike decision that he was sent to the shower bath department for refrigeration. McCorry twirled the last stanza for the Seals. Both teams departed for the South last night. Score:

Notes of the Game.

Bill Lindsay had to retire early in the game as a result of the heat. Derrick went to third and secured one hit in two trips.

Three circus catches featured the Seal deaths in the seventh inning. Lober manipulated one and Chadbourne the other two. The Portland outfield is fielding at a wonderful clip.

Johnston stole three bases in the week. His theft yesterday was a gift, as Mundorff held down third. Berry used good judgment and did not attempt to get Jimmy. Johnston's total for the year is 68.

Downs suffered twice on hard drives that the outfield pulled down.

Umpire Held was made the recipient of a bouquet of flowers just prior to the game. He parried neatly by announcing the package as a presentation to Umpire McCarthy.

The actual paid attendance was 3700, not bad, considering the torrid atmosphere.

The umpires announced a time limit of two hours and 20 minutes, but the game was played in one hour and 30 minutes.

Two pinch hitters failed for the Seals.

On their stay at home the Beavers won 13 and lost five. They have taken 20 of the last 26 contests.

VENICE BEATS ANGELS TWICE

Southern Clubs in Coast League Only Separated by Few Games.

LOS ANGELES, July 20. — Venice's double victory over Los Angeles today brought the two southern clubs closer together in their race for the pennant. In the morning game Pitcher Slagle experienced one bad inning, the fifth, when Venice hammered in three runs, winning the game by a 3-to-2 score.

For five innings in the afternoon Perritt was a puzzle to the Seasiders, but in the sixth Venice found him for three runs, and three more were added in the seventh. The score was 6 to 2.

Ables Batted Out of Box in Afternoon Game by Wolves.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—Oakland won from Sacramento in the morning game, 6 to 1; Sacramento won the afternoon game after ten innings, 3 to 2. The result of today's playing is that the two teams are tied for the series.

The morning game was a contest between Lively, pitching for Sacramento, and Killilay, who allowed but three hits and had somewhat the better of it. Lively suffered eight hits.

Ables went into the box for Oakland in the afternoon. He was taken out at the end of the seventh, when he had allowed two runs and eight hits. Lohman followed him and granted three more hits and another run, the losing one. Klawitter, pitching for Sacramento, allowed one run and nine hits up to the time he was taken out in the seventh, when two men were on bases and none out. Stroud followed him, and though he allowed four more hits, these yielded no scores. Scores:

SEATTLE, Wash., July 20. — (Special.)—Weiser Dell was on the hill for Seattle, and his coercive measures in the critical moments enabled him to put a 4-3 victory over on the Portland Colts.

It was a close and nard-fought battle in which there was practically nothing to choose between the contending teams. All the scoring was done in the first four innings, and if Peters had not fired the ball over Callahan's head at first in attempting to retire Shaw in the third, the score would have been a tie. Peters covers so much ground that the pitcher has to do a lot of covering, and there is always a chance of a mixup on quick plays with fast runners getting down the line.

Callahan held Seattle to five hits, but he gave three passes, one of which counted against him in the same inning that Peters made his error. On the other hand, while Dell was hit safe six times, he gave only one bit of free transportation, and that did not count, as it came after a double play had cleared the bases.

All of Portland's runs were scored on homers, which were crowded into the third and fourth innings. Fine pitching by Dell in two critical periods and sensational fielding by Killilay held the Colts in check during the last five stanzas.

Outside of the third and fourth, in which Seattle got their four runs, Callahan was superb and his support fine. Melchoir's error was a muff of a ball that he thought he had for keeps. It cut no figure in the scoring. Score:

COLTS PLAY TODAY

Class B Team Here for Stay of Three Weeks.

TWO BEAVERS STAY HOME

McCormick and Todd Do Not Go on Southern Trip—Bancroft to Be Called by McCredie if Lindsay Is Put on Shelf.

Portland's baseball stage submits to a change in scenery today. The plot will remain the same, with "kill the umpire" the cue at every entry and exit, but the characters will be different. Northwestern League ball supplants Coast League ball for a three weeks' stretch, and today the opposing clubs will be Nick Williams' Portland Colts and L. A. Watelet's Victoria Bees.

Martinoni will likely be the Portland pitching choice, and either Kantlehner or Toner will hurl for Victoria. Toner last appeared here with Spokane, but has since been traded. Harry Ostdiek will umpire and will call play at 3:15 P. M.

• • •

Last week Portland lost the series to Seattle, four games to three, Sunday's game deciding the supremacy. But Nick's bunch performed like Trojans in the three weeks away, winning their series from Tacoma and Spokane for a total of 13 victories and nine defeats.

Victoria had a terrible week, dropping seven straight to Vancouver in the first week from under the wing of Mike Lynch. Lynch, on the other hand, led Spokane to a series over Tacoma, four games to three.

Tacoma appears here next week and Spokane the week following.

When the Portland Coast Leaguers left last night for their three weeks' trip in California two athletes were missing—Mike McCormick and Harry Todd. Mike is convalescing from a bone-scraping operation on his shin and Mac decided to give him abundant time to get in shape.

In the meantime, if Bill Lindsay's poor physical condition puts him on the shelf for any length of time McCredie will call on Nick Williams to send him Dave Bancroft. Mac intends to haul the speed demon over late in August anyway, so as to save him for next season in the Coast.

DALLAS PLAYERS QUIT FIELD

Interpretation of Ground Rules Breaks Up Albany Game.

ALBANY, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—After eight innings of good fielding and exciting plays, the baseball game between Albany and Dallas at this city this afternoon broke up in a row in the first half of the ninth inning, and the Dallas team walked off the field with the score tied at 3 to 3.

Two men were out in the ninth, with a Dallas runner on first base, when the batter missed the third strike. The catcher dropped the ball, picked it up and overthrew first base. The runner on first completed the circuit of the bases, and in the arugment which ensued over ground rules the batter also ran to the plate.

Basing his decision on a ground rule providing for only one extra base on an overthrow at first base, the umpire ordered the first runner back to third and the other to second. The Albany players contend this rule was understood fully by the visitors before the game began, but the Dallas players assert they did not so understand it, and when the two runs they claimed were not allowed they left the field.

YAKS DRAG BOISE DOWN

MELTER WEAKENS AND IRRIGATORS LOSE, 6 TO 3.

Bucks Drubbed by Bears, 15 to 4. Five Home Runs Made in Game. Pendleton Errs Five Times.

North Yakima took Boise down another notch in the Western Tri-State League Sunday, defeating the Irrigators 6 to 3. Walla Walla squelched Pendleton 15 to 4.

With the score tied, the Yaks got Melter for two singles, a sacrifice and two doubles in the eighth, scoring three. Gordon did not give a hit after the fifth. Melter fanned none; Gordon fanned four and walked one. The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
N. Yakima.	6	13	1	Boise......	3	8	3

Batteries—Gordon and Taylor; Melter and Gard.

Five home runs were hit in the Bear-Buck game at Pendleton. Martini getting two and Johnson and Lundstrom one each, all off Osborne's delivery, and Varian one off Bridger, the new-old Walla Walla pitcher. Bridger was a Bear last year, but this year played for Boise until released.

Pendleton played town ball, making five bad errors, which aided the Bears in their run-getting, 15 scores being obtained off 16 hits. The Bears drove Osborne from the box in the seventh, Augustus going in and holding the Bears runless. The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
W'la W'la	15	16	1	Pendleton..	4	7	5

Batteries—Bridger and Brown; Osborne, Augustus and King.

The first endurance run of the Rose City Motorcycle Club, Portland to Corvallis and return, was held Sunday morning, the start having been made at 7 o'clock from The Oregonian building. Bailey, on a Bailey Flier got away first, the other 36 riders leaving at 2-minute intervals.

Bailey finished first with a perfect score. The distance according to his speedometer was 177.3 miles. Others finishing with perfect scores were Victor G. Carlson, Prettyman, Geartner, agent of the Eagle, who rode his own machine, Hadderly, Barrett and P. T. Abbott on a Harley Davidson, for which he is local agent.

E. J. Solomon was the starter Sunday morning and also the first checker, other checking places being Newberg, Salem and Corvallis.

At Salem the boys were met by the Salem club, and ice cold drinks served, both going and coming. The machines making the perfect scores were the Harley Davidsons, Bailey Flier and Daytons.

Most of the trouble experienced by the riders on their trip was tire trouble, punctures and blow-outs.

The next run of the club will be held the Saturday night preceding Labor day, when the boys will make the trip to Seattle to be the guests of the Seattle Motorcycle Club. They will leave Portland late Saturday night, arriving at Seattle Sunday morning and leaving there Monday morning will return here Monday afternoon.

Sunday morning's run was planned and carried through under the personal direction of Patrolman B. G. Meade, a member of the Rose City Motorcycle Club, of which Detective Royle is president. The final scores will be finished by next Thursday night, when they will be read off at the club meeting.

The prizes to be awarded the perfect score contestants are from Archer & Wiggins, United States Tire Co., Goodyear Tire Co., Hudson Arms Co., F. P. Keenan Co. and Motorcycle & Supply Co.

Shillalahs Win in Morning League.

Playing with a great deal of luck, Dell O'Hanlon's Shillalahs won the championship of the Multnomah Club Morning League by downing Bert Allen's Bear Cats, 7 to 6, on the club field yesterday morning. The Bear Cats were leading, 4 to 3, up to the fifth inning, when the winners scored three times.

Captain Barton, of the losers, scored a home run with two on in the first frame. Fielding by Helfrich on the same team at short cut off several apparent hits. Hurn and Austin did the heavy work for the winners, with Lytle and Dowling the battery for the Bear Cats.

Amateur Athletics.

The Union Meat Columbias baseball team downed the Camas nine yesterday on the latter's diamond, 14 to 4. Husky and Bahler formed the battery for the Portland team with Clark and McBride for the trans-river squad. The local team would like to get several out-of-town games. Write Manager A. S. Burkhart, Union Meat Company.

The Piedmont Maroons scored another victory yesterday on the Peninsula Park grounds when they walloped the Maccabees' Mount Hood No. 17 nine 5 to 3. This is the first game that the losers are charged with this season. The old standbys, Moeller and Bartholomy, were in the points for the winners, opposed by Goddard and Fleichstinger for the Maccabees.
