INDIVIDUALS DRAW INTEREST IN EAST

Stahl, Cobb, Walsh, Chappelle and Chase Help to Make Baseball History.

WASHINGTON PLAY IS FAST

Johnson Is Willing to Pitch Every Second Day if His Club Gets In Running—Pirates Are Coming Strong.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Individuals more than clubs figured as salient interest in the baseball history of the week. The change in the management of the world's champions, the Cobb suspension, the return of Ed Walsh to the game, the advent of the latest highest priced ballplayer in Chappelle, the trouble over the Hal Chase deal and the punching match on the St. Louis bench at a game between the Giants and Cardinals in New York—such developments were sufficient to keep the enthusiasts from devoting all their attention to the progress of the league races.

The games from day to day brought their usual developments in the way of ups and downs, the "ups" coming chiefly the way of Pittsburg in the National League and Washington in the American, while prominent in the "downs" were St. Louis in the older circuit and Philadelphia, Cleveland and Boston in the younger.

Perhaps the slump of the Mackmen was the most prominent outstanding feature in the American League race. The former world's champions had a long and hard schedule and fell off rapidly in percentage. That their lead was not cut down to any notable extent was due to the fact that Cleveland lost almost as many games as the leaders.

Athletics' Pitching Weakening.

While Plank and Bender each pitched one good game, the belief that weakness was developing in the leaders' twirling staff was borne out by the happenings of the week. Connie Mack rushed hurry orders for Bob Shawkey to report from Baltimore. The recruit came along promptly and delivered a well-pitched game in Chicago, although his club lost after he had retired, and Bender had taken up the pitching burden.

Belief that the American League race is still an open one might be prevalent were there any clubs within possible striking distance which had shown form consistent enough to warrant expectations of a steady pull toward the top from now on. Even the Cleveland enthusiasts, however, probably are convinced by the past week's work of their club that it hardly will be a pennant contender.

Senators Play Brilliant.

The likely bidders for honors against the Mackmen, if any are to develop, seem to be Washington and Chicago. The Senators played brilliant ball all week. Griffith still expresses strong hopes of a driving finish that will bring his club to the front, and Walter Johnson is reported as having offered to pitch every other day after September 1, if his club appears to have a look-in.

The White Sox are showing improvement right along. Their inner defense is working smoothly, with Chase, Rath, Lord and Weaver at top form, while the outfield can hardly help being strengthened by Chappelle, who has shown enough in the few games he has played to make Chicagoans enthusiastic over him.

The deposition of Jake Stahl in midseason after the club under his management had won a league pennant and a world title, is the sensation of the baseball week. The change to Carrigan apparently has not affected the playing of the club as yet.

Pirates Coming Strong.

In the National League the effort of Pittsburg to climb up is the notable feature. The Pirates won all but one of their six games last week, that one being the only contest they have lost on their entire Eastern trip. Even at this gait, however, they have gained little on the Giants, who won six out of eight games in six days and still hold a commanding lead.

Philadelphia has shown improved form again, winning five out of seven games. Chicago surrendered third place to Pittsburg, the Cubs' Eastern trip having been a losing journey all around.

NEW SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR AT GEARHART HAS ESTABLISHED RECORD.

H. A. Ludwig.

H. A. Ludwig, formerly swimming instructor at Bimini Baths, Los Angeles, has been appointed to the same post at Gearhart. Ludwig is a well-known swimmer, having several medals for his bravery while a member of the lifesaving corps at California resorts. In 1908 Ludwig won the championship of the Connecticut River. The new instructor is planning on having several swims and exhibitions at Gearhart during the Summer season.

TENNIS MATCH IS POSTPONED

Finals in Men's Doubles of Oregon Tourney to Be Played Saturday.

Because of a heavy schedule in the Oregon State Tennis Tournament at the Irvington courts the past week it was necessary to postpone the men's doubles until next Saturday. Wickersham and Cowing will be opposed by Andrews and Richardson.

Several members of the Irvington club are contemplating entering the International and Northwestern tennis tournaments at Tacoma, beginning August 4. Brandt Wickersham, who with Dawson, of Los Angeles, won the Northwest championship last year, will compete, but Dawson will not be in all probability able to attend.

Wickersham will rest here for a few days, after next Saturday's match, before leaving for the Washington city to enter the tourney. The International matches will last three days, with the Northwest affair following immediately.

UMPIRE OSTDIEK ACCUSED

Charges May Be Filed by Head of Tacoma Baseball Club.

TACOMA, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—According to the statement of Secretary Frank Redpath, of the Tacoma Tigers, it is more than probable that charges will be filed against Umpire Harry Ostdiek because of his showing during the series which has just closed. Statements have been received to the effect that Ostdiek had openly said that he would "get" McGinnity before the series was over and that he would do his best to put the "Iron Man" out of the baseball business.

C. C. Faucett, of the Puget Sound Flouring Mill Company, told Redpath that he had heard Ostdiek make these threats and gave the names of witnesses to substantiate this statement. If affidavits can be obtained they will be forwarded to President Fielder A. Jones.

Cosmopolis Man Drowned.

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Earl Kerr, a young employe of the Grays Harbor Commercial Company, at Cosmopolis, was drowned in the Chehalis River Friday. He dived from a high piling and did not come up. Searchers have not found his body. He is thought to have come from Seattle, but nothing is known about him by company officials. Kerr had been here but a few days.

BREEZES ON RIVER LURE BIG CROWDS

Excursion Vessels Do Thriving Business and Passengers Arrive Early.

WRAPS ARE IN EVIDENCE

Bailey Gatzert Carries 700 to Locks, Kellogg Takes 400, Ione and Cummings 200 Each, While Many Small Craft Ply.

Yesterday was a record-breaking day for the river excursion business out of Portland.

Sweltering humanity on one of the hottest Sundays on record at the local weather office was astir early to take advantage of every cool breeze the Willamette and Columbia rivers had to offer, and long before it was anywhere near time for the various vessels to get under way the dock at the foot of Alder street, the Kellogg and Hosford docks at the foot of Washington, the dock of the Dodge line and the other docks were crowded with people waiting to get aboard the excursion vessels.

Father was an important personage yesterday, for he was burdened with many bundles and wraps, for the women didn't know but that it might blow up cool, later in the day, and they insisted on having a bunch of wraps taken along.

The steamer Bailey Gatzert got away first, with approximately 700 aboard, while at least 200 disappointed mortals who had been unable to get tickets looked on from the wharf as the boat went down stream. The Gatzert went to the locks and back.

Loaded to the limit were the Oregon City Transportation boats which went to and from Oregon City, while the little launches that ply between the city and the Oaks had all they could carry all day.

The steamer Kellogg carried between 400 and 500, and from the Hosford dock sailed the Ione with 200 aboard and the Cummings with the same number, bound for Oregon City. The Camas took a large party down Saturday night.

River people say there were more pleasure-seeking people on the river yesterday than on any previous day on record.

LEGGETT'S CARGO BROUGHT

Inspectors Seek to Fix Blame for Sinking Schooner Lunsmann.

On the steamer J. B. Stetson, due today at Couch-street dock, will be cargo that should have been delivered by the steamer F. H. Leggett, which is undergoing repairs at San Francisco because of damage sustained to her bow when she collided with and sank the schooner J. H. Lunsmann a week ago within the Golden Gate. It is estimated that the cost of repairs to the Leggett will be between $5000 and $8000.

An investigation is being conducted at San Francisco into the accident and a session held last week brought out that previous to the Leggett leaving the Lombard-street wharf steam leading to her steam steering gear had been turned off. Captain Bellesen, of the steamer, said that as the Lunsmann was anchored and had arrived from a deepsea voyage he assumed there was no one aboard, as none of her crew was seen, and as he had 60 persons on the steamer and received reports that she was badly damaged forward, he made for the beach. On receiving a later report that the steamer was making no water he headed for the wharf.

HARRY F. CAMPION RETURNS

Superintendent of Towage and Pilotage Says Astoria Just as Warm.

Harry F. Campion, superintendent of pilotage and towage of the Port of Portland Commission, has returned from Astoria, where he looked over the Commission's tugs Oneonta and Wallula, inspecting their equipment, etc.

Mr. Campion had an idea this was a good time to make one of his periodical trips to the town at the mouth of the river, on account of the heat in Portland, but he now says to anybody who thinks about going Astoriaward: "Don't." Astoria isn't one whit cooler than Portland, avers Campion.

Grain Chutes Used as Rafts.

A dozen or so boys intent on getting cool and keeping so, converted some of the Crown Milling Company's grain chutes into rafts, yesterday, and were just setting sail when the harbor patrol bore down upon them. The naval engagement was short but decisive and the boys abandoned rafting for swimming.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A large high-pressure field overlies the central portion of the country, while low pressure obtains over the Appalachian Highland and the Pacific Slope. Showers have fallen in Southwestern Idaho, Southern California, the Basin, Central Plateau and Central Plains States, and in several of the states east of the Mississippi River; the rainfall was heavy in Southern Louisiana and North Carolina. Thunder storms were reported from Boise, Durango, Roswell and Buffalo. The weather is cooler in Interior Central California, most of the Southern States and quite generally east of the Mississippi River; it is warmer in Central Washington, Northern Utah, the Plateau and Northern Rocky Mountains States and Manitoba. High temperatures prevail over interior sections of the Pacific Slope; they are, however, nearly seasonable over the southern portion and in Southern Oregon and Southern Idaho, but are 13 degrees or over above normal in interior portions of Washington and Northern Idaho and 17 degrees above normal at Portland. The conditions are favorable for generally fair and continued warm weather Monday in this district.

FORECASTS:

Oregon and Washington—Generally fair and continued warm; northwesterly winds.

Idaho—Generally fair and continued warm.

THEODORE F. DRAKE, Acting District Forecaster.

FISHERMEN FOREGO SLEEP

Netmen Near Vancouver Making Hundred Dollars Daily.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—Five hours' sleep out of 168 hours is a record one fisherman on the Columbia made last week. Fishing is good and all fishermen are fairly coining money, some making as high as $100 a day. The fisherman who was too busy to sleep netted $5 an hour during most of the time he was awake.

On the drift below the brick yard, three miles east of Vancouver Barracks, on the river, there are 22 fishing boats, and they are catching from eight to 10 tons of fish daily, for which they receive 7 and 7½ cents a pound. Some of these fish are shipped from Vancouver to Tacoma, Seattle, and from there to the East in refrigerator cars.

Ring Recovered After Eight Years.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 20.—(Special.)—After having been lost for eight years, a birthday ring given to Miss Susan Waite by her father, was found yesterday and returned to her. Eight years ago Miss Waite went to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Strecher, and while playing in the barn the ring was lost. Though a thorough search was made it was not found. The ring was found on the surface of the barn floor in as good condition as it was when lost.

Newport Fish Law Violator Fined.

NEWPORT, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—Arthur Cumbo, of Alsea, was fined $25, July 14, after entering a plea of guilty, for fishing without a license. Cumbo was arrested by Deputy Game Wardens Gatens and Cryn, who had gone to Alsea to apprehend a man who has been killing deer out of season, but who got away.

Cougar, Which Attacked Boy, Killed.

HOULTON, Or., July 20.—(Special.)—The cougar which attacked Burdy Saxton, little son of George Saxton, a farmer living near here, has been killed. Fred Flaeter succeeded in killing the animal, which measured six feet from tip to tip. A week ago Burdy Saxton was attacked by a cougar while picking berries on his father's farm, and was saved only by the presence of mind of Mrs. Sam Goodnoe, who snatched the child out of harm's way and raised an alarm.

CLASSIFIED AD. RATES

Daily or Sunday.

	Per Line.
One time	12c
Same add two consecutive times	22c
Same add three consecutive times	30c
Same ad six or seven consecutive times	56c

The above rates apply to advertisements under "New Today" and all other classifications except the following:
Situations Wanted, Male.
Situations Wanted, Female.
For Rent, Rooms, Private Families.
Rooms and Board, Private Families.

Rate on the above classifications is 7 cents a line each insertion.

When one advertisement is not run in consecutive issues the one-time rate applies.

Six average words count as one line on cash advertisements and no ad counted for less than two lines.

On "charged" advertisements charge will be based on the number of lines appearing in the paper, regardless of the number of words in each line. Minimum charge, two lines.

The Oregonian will accept classified advertisements over the telephone, providing the advertiser is a subscriber to either phone. No prices will be quoted over the phone, but bill will be rendered the following day. Whether subsequent advertisements will be accepted over the phone depends upon the promptness of payment of telephone advertisements. Situations Wanted and Personal advertisements will not be accepted over the telephone. Orders for one insertion only will be accepted for "Furniture for Sale," "Business Opportunities," "Rooming-houses" and "Wanted to Rent."

The Oregonian will not guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors occurring in telephoned advertisements.

The Oregonian will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

In "New Today" all advertisements are charged by measure only, 14 lines to the inch.

Remittances must accompany out-of-town orders.
