McElroy's park band will give a special programme for the occasion. A letter from Jay W. Stevens, manager of the Portland Firemen's Band, asking for the free use of the Army for a concert by that organization on August 1 or about that date, has been referred by the County Commissioners to Assistant-Coroner M. J. Stevens. In a letter to the band, Stevens states in his letter that the band, consisting of 32 men, intends to go to New York to attend the annual convention of the International Association of Chief Engineers, September 1 to 6, and that concerts are to be given at various places to help defray expenses, the one proposed for the Army to be the first.

Alleging that the payment was made to the county by mistake instead of to the city, the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company has demanded of the County Commissioners a refund of $10,000. The company has demanded as rental for the Hawthorne and Burnside bridges for February, March, April and May. GREHAM MAY GET MOTOR PLANT.

The location of the Emperors' Motor Company appears to have centered at Greham, the other places having withdrawn from the contest for the plant, which gives Greham a clear field to comply with the conditions. The Greham Commercial Club made investigation of the standing of the company and at the meeting last week adopted resolutions urging citizens to assist in getting the plant. It was then reported that $13,000 of the $25,000 stock of the concern had been subscribed for in sums ranging down from $2000. If Greham gets the factory a spot in Portland, where you can be perfectly comfortable and enjoy an entertaining programme, go to the Emperors this week. "The Girl in the Face," the headliner, is an attraction of good music, interesting and amusing situations, is artistic in setting and has a clever little plot. George M. George, as the dealer in antiques, is a versatile comedian and is ably supported by the cast, among whom are Dorothy Van Court, Ruby Bailey, E. B. Mountain and Jack Bick. Miss Bailey and some other pretty girls are seen in a playlet can be. It is good, clean, make it up to date they have their skirts decidedly slashed and introduce a few steps of modern time. "Easy Money," with George Richards in the role of Hutchinson Hooper, the New York millionaire, is as funny as a playlet can be. It is good, clean, comedy and keeps the audience in a roar. Edna Thomas, as a rich man's daughter, and Jerry O'Meara as his secretary, do their parts toward making the number a gem. Richards is an actor of great ability and deserves the flattering ovation he receives.

FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION ASKS ROOM.

Excluded from the City Hall because of lack of space the Exempt Firemen's Association has applied to the County Commissioners to furnish a free meeting place for the organization in the Courthouse. Ned Kehoe, superintendent of the building, will report back to the Commissioners if there is any way by which it can be arranged. The G. A. R. and Spanish-American War veterans, Mother's Union, and other organizations are already occupying free quarters in the Courthouse building. City Commissioner Brewster has indicated the application of the Exempt Firemen's Association.

GOLDFIELDS PRODUCTS EXHIBITED.

The Goldendale Fruit and Produce Association, through its secretary-manager, H. J. Clark, has placed on display at the North Bank ticket office, Fifth and Stark streets, a pictorial exposition entitled, "The Golden Harvest Time in the Klickitat Valley." The photographs are taken at field scenes and they attest not only the enterprise of the business men of Goldendale, but also the prosperity of the Columbia valley and the canyons. The pictures exhibited by Mr. Clark show wheat, alfalfa, timothy and some other crops and do a lot of fancy forage crops grown without irrigation. The moving pictures contain features both amusing and instructive, and the orchestra adds its quota to the general excellence of the bill.

RAILWAY MAGNATE TO GET OREGON CHAIRS.

Ten boxes of the finest chairs raised on the famous Webster ranch in the base of Mt. Hood were shipped to J. J. Hill, the railroad magnate, at his home in St. Paul, Minn. Each box contained ten chairs and were packed right in a row and 284 in a box. The cherry harvest on this farm is nearing the end. It contains 20 acres and there are about 2000 cherry trees in the orchard. The cherries are the famous Lambert mainly. The crop goes mainly to San Francisco, Detroit, Chicago and are usually harvested from this orchard.

COLUMBIA PORT COMMITTEE MEETS TODAY.

The executive committee of the Columbia port will hold a meeting in Portland at noon today. A meeting was held yesterday in Gearhart, and Dr. Alfred Kinney, of Astoria, finally was chosen chairman of the committee. The Port of Columbia, when organized, will co-operate probably with the Portland Chamber of Commerce and other organizations in the movement for a seagoing dredge at the mouth of the Columbia River, which was begun about six weeks ago by the Chamber of Commerce.

LOUISE OLCESE ARRESTED.

Charged with keeping a disreputable house and selling liquor, Louise ("Mother") Olcese was arrested yesterday morning by Patrolman Inskip, on a charge made by Patrolman Schmidtke. The officer sought liquor in the house Sunday, but when he tried to arrest the old woman she resisted so stubbornly that, with three men in custody, Schmidtke had to defer the arrest. The woman has been keeper of a notorious place for many years and figured recently in graft scandals.

ICE CREAM FACTORIES BEING INSPECTED.

The City Health Department has begun an investigation of reports that impure ice cream is being sold in the city. Inspectors have been used by two of the ice cream factories and all of the factories are to be inspected and the pure food laws are being enforced. The state dairy and food commissioner is investigating the reports also.

SETTLERS TO HEAR OF OREGON.

Central Oregon will receive a lot of helpful advertising in the next few months through the colored map and illustrated folder just issued by the O. W. R. & Co. The information it contains has been brought up to date and is instructive to prospective settlers. The map shows all of Oregon, with the Idaho border through which the lines of the O. W. R. & Co. operate. Thousands of copies have been printed for circulation in the country.

MILK INSPECTION BEING MADE.

If an investigation which was started yesterday, shows that milk gets warm in the cans care on routes in various districts to Portland, orders will be issued at once by the city milk inspection department for the packing of all milk cans. The investigation began yesterday. It is said there is considerable complaint about milk being kept warm in the cans. The city milk inspection department is being organized after being delivered in the residence sections.

The station was announced yesterday by City Commissioner Brewster. The station was to be finished to the month of July. The monthly meeting of the Health Defense League will be held Tuesday at 8 P. M., at room 705 Sweetland building. The question to be discussed is "Do the People Want a Physician to Pass on Their Fitness for Marriage?" The public is invited.

SOCIETY TO MEET.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Sellwood Methodist Church will hold a picnic tomorrow at the home of Mrs. E. J. McGee, 1414 1/2th street. The picnic will be held at Jennings Lodge, on the Oregon City carline. A good programme has been arranged for this meeting.

New Bills Open at the Vaudeville Houses

Empress.

If you want to find a cool, delightful spot in Portland, where you can be perfectly comfortable and enjoy an entertaining programme, go to the Emperors this week. "The Girl in the Face," the headliner, is an attraction of good music, interesting and amusing situations, is artistic in setting and has a clever little plot. George M. George, as the dealer in antiques, is a versatile comedian and is ably supported by the cast, among whom are Dorothy Van Court, Ruby Bailey, E. B. Mountain and Jack Bick. Miss Bailey and some other pretty girls are seen in a playlet can be. It is good, clean, make it up to date they have their skirts decidedly slashed and introduce a few steps of modern time. "Easy Money," with George Richards in the role of Hutchinson Hooper, the New York millionaire, is as funny as a playlet can be. It is good, clean, comedy and keeps the audience in a roar. Edna Thomas, as a rich man's daughter, and Jerry O'Meara as his secretary, do their parts toward making the number a gem. Richards is an actor of great ability and deserves the flattering ovation he receives.

AN ORIGINAL ODDITY IS PRESENTED BY MABEL DOUGLAS AND SAMPOON LACEY.

Mabel Douglas and Sampoon Lacey, who can sing and dance and entertain in the most entertaining fashion. The Savoy and their remarkably well trained bulldogs will please the children and grown-ups alike. They have many brand-new features and is unusually good. Walter Daniels proves himself gifted as a character actor in the skit "It Happened at Rehearsal," which is a incident in stage life behind the scenes. Lewis Golden and Harry West sing some new songs and do a lot of fancy steps in their series of lively dances. The moving pictures contain features both amusing and instructive, and the orchestra adds its quota to the general excellence of the bill.

PANTAGES.

"ONE in a million" sang Emma Carus, musical comedy star, as the final of about 16 encores at the opening performance of the new Pantages bill yesterday afternoon, and that this is about the best that can be applied to the lady herself.

FRESHNESS AND JOYFULTY BEAM AT THE AUDIENCE WITH EVERY GLANCE OF HER EYES.

There are other very good acts, too, on this week's bill, notably the opening one, wherein Alfred Latell gives realistic imitations of a bulldog, a mask and skin he wears must be horribly hot, but it had no appreciable effect upon his antics. Latell is assisted by a young lady, Elsie V. Oke, who has a couple of good songs. From a musical point of view, a good number with every glance of her eyes, which by the way are fully employed every minute of the time. Then there's her grotesque dancing. The audience positively went weak with the laughter that brings tears and they wouldn't let her depart.

WITH ALL HER COMEDY, MUCH OF IT EFFECTIVE BECAUSE OF ITS SILENCE.

Finally Jack Schultz, the loveless swain, wins his father over and conspires with him to swing old man Finnegan into line. Drastic measures are necessary, so Schultz deliberately insults the father of his son's sweetheart and a duel is arranged. Young Schultz loads the pistols with blank cartridges and when the weapons are discharged after the old man have walked the proverbial five paces and swung around his father, pitches forward with a gurgle, which is supposed to be an accurate copy of a death groan. Heartbroken, Finnegan rushes to the aid of his son, but Finnegan sticks to his bargain.

BILLY ONSLOW, THE IRRESISTIBLE IRISH COMEDIAN, IS GREAT AS FINNEGAN.

The part of his daughter, Katie Finnegan, is taken by Irene Edwards, the Lyric beauty, and Frank Confer is Jack Schultz, her sweetheart. The Roming twins have a strong and entertaining specialty and the Rosebud chorus, in new and attractive costumes, shows up well.

FRED BAUER, THE POPULAR LYRIC TENOR, SINGS "WHERE THE RIVER SHANNON FLOWS" AND THE LYRIC TRIO, CONSISTING OF BAUER, CHARLES RYAN AND SNYDER (CALLED "TINY" BECAUSE HE IS EXACTLY THE REVERSE, IS EVEN BETTER THAN USUAL).

The show is really so good that even cynical Charles Ryan, former theatrical manager and now, among other things, press agent for the Lyric, laughed till his sides hurt.
