A recent affair planned for Mrs. Jones was a small dinner dance at which Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harmon were hosts at the Waverly Country Club. Among those who shared the evening's pleasures were: Mrs. W. L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caswell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rumelin, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon.

Besides being popular socially, Mrs. Jones is an enthusiastic clubwoman, devoting most of her time to the or-conversation, drama, art and travel, expression, civics and social science. The organization does much in a philanthropic way and has been a great factor for good. Mrs. Jones, in her club work, emphasizes the importance of harmony and the encouragement of the club spirit. The individual growth and the culture that comes from service and the broadening of the members, are the aims of the California organization. The membership of Ebeil is open, which is unusual in women's clubs. The vice-president is also a former Portland woman, Mrs. James Tabor Fitzgerald. Mrs. Jones will remain here for several weeks, part of main here for several weeks, part of which time she will be the guest of the which time Edwin Caswells.

Ebell's other sections include those of parliamentary law, books and conversation, drama, art and travel, expression, civics and social science.

Will You Pay Cash?

If so you can nearly double it this week by securing a Piano or Player Piano at the NET WHOLESALE PRICE—the cash price dealers pay us.

GETTING MORE THAN YOUR MONEY'S WORTH

Is "most unusual." You will admit, however, if you accept this proposition, you can yourself make the retail dealer's profit.

Use some of that money you put away in the bank or in your stocking. It will make $157.50 and upwards for you from the usual retail price of such retail dealers.

Are not in it with the money you make at this sale of the new Pianos at net cash wholesale cost to dealers. Cash is needed before removal to our new store, 149-151 Fourth street. Renovation, new elevator, decorations, etc., all require cash, therefore Come learn all about this wholesale proposition. We offer our entire stock of new Pianos and Player Pianos, including many of this country's leading piano manufacturers; all will be sold at net cash wholesale prices (to dealers) to you.

This Week---Cash Buyers' Opportunity

There has not been a half-hearted selling day since this Removal Sale began. The first buyers who responded to our ads realized that we were offering Pianos and Player Pianos away below what they were ever sold for, and these purchasers, along with the many who came later, have carried the good news to their friends and neighbors even faster and more convincing than our daily newspapers. Every day brought new and increased numbers buying on easy terms, some securing their choice by paying $1 down when contracting, etc., and we now make this cash proposition: If you are not prepared, it will pay you to get the cash from banker, friend or parent to secure this extraordinary saving.

projected route was along the east side of the Willamette River to Salem. Holladay, asserting that Gaston's railroad had never been legally organized, carried his fight to the legislature and got that body in 1868 to declare that its previous action had been taken under a misapprehension, and that Holladay's railroad was entitled to the land grant

Congress Takes Up Fight. The controversy was finally carried to Congress in 1869, and led to the amendment by that body of its original land grant act with the provision that land should be sold to actual settlers only, not more than 160 acres to onpurchaser, at not more than $2.50 an acre. It is on alleged violation of this amendment that litigation since has been based.

The railroad organized by Gaston abandoned its claim to the grant.

Later, in 1870. Holladay's company acquired all the capital stock of the Gaston Company, and the Oregon California Railroad Company we formed after a reorganization of the two. By 1873, the line projected by Gaston had been completed to McMinnille, but it was not built beyond that.

Reciamation Work Taken Up. Mr. Gaston was active in railroad promotion until 1880, when he settled on a farm at Gaston, Wash, in Washington County. # HOW TO STOP YOUR HAIR FROM FALLING

By a Scalp Specialist

It isn't the bald headed man or woman who needs or wants a hair remedy most. The majority of people with bald, shiny acaips have long since resigned themselves acaips have long since resigned themselves to fate and either wear a wig or so about as living examples of warning to the countless thousands of others whose hair is merely "growing thin" and coming out at an alarming rate. These people are in the initial singes of a dangerous scalp condition which must inevitably lead to certain and complete baldness unless prompt and effective measures are taken. Most of my patients, both men and women, are of this very class and almost invariably I find their trouble due to one and the same very class and almost invariably I find their trouble due to one and the same cause. I then prescribe a simple remedy which I have used for years and which I know has preserved the hair of thousands are the same than the same which I have used for years and which I know has preserved the hair of thousands of people, saving them from complete baldness. A combination of dandruff germ and mainutrition of hair root has done the damage in nearly every case. The root has become devitalized by this attack upon it both from without and within and the muscular tissues which are designed to hold and protect the hair sac have become relaxed and flabby. To effect a cure and save the hair the scalp must not only be cleansed of dandruff scales, but the germ life liself must be permanently and completely destroyed and the scalp tissues must be forced to assimilate through the pores a form of nourishment that will premptly check the failing of old hair and start a growth of new hair. For such a purpose I believe nothing is so effective as a lotion which anyone can prepare at home or have any druggist mix for them. Dissolve one-hair drachm of Menthol Crystals (about loc worth) in 6 ox. of Bay Rum. Pour in an 8-ox. bottle and add 2 ox. of Lavona (6e-composee). Shake well and allow to stand one hour before using. While not necessary, the addition of a teaspoonful of To-Katon perfume gives a peculiarly lasting and delicate door which is very agreeable. Used as indicated above and applied night and morning, rubbing into the scalp with the finger tips, this hair remedy is unequalled. A few days' use and applied night and morning, rubbing into the scalp with the finger tips, this hair remedy is unequalled. A few days' use and you cannot find a single loose or struggling hair, dandruff will disappear and itching case and in about ten days you will find your scalp covered with fine, downy new hairs and these bairs will grow with amazing rapidity. Indeed, owing to the remarkable hair-growing properties of this preparation I must advise users to be careful not to apply it to the face or where hair is not desired.
