two singles matches played tomorrow, Maurice E. McLoughim, of San Francisco, facing J. C. Parke, whose unexpected victory last year over the noted Australian, Norman E. Brooks, was instrumental in bringing the trophy to England, and R. N. Williams, of Philadelphia, meeting C. P. Dixon.

William Washburn, of New York, and E. H. Whitney, of Boston, which still was undecided when play was stopped. The men had battled through more than three and a half hours, playing four sets, when the contest was adjourned until tomorrow. Whitney won the first and third sets, 6-1, and 6-3, and Washburn the second and fourth.

Bob Armstrong Chief in Sailor Lad's Quarters - Langford Is With Olympic Club Man-Promoters Still Hope to Match Black.

BY HARRY B. SMITH. SAN FRANCISCO, July 24 .- (Special.) -Coffroth's brace of middleweights, which it is hoped will commence a new era in the 158-pound division that has been dormant since the death of Stanley Ketchel, are to get down to work at once, and, judging from reports, they not lack for finished tutelage. WEST WILL MEET EAST TODAY Sailor Ed Petroskey took up his quarters at Billy Shannon's San Rafael quarters today and will commence boxing on Saturday. Bob McAllister, pride of the Olympic Club, will move his traps to the beach on Saturday and will do his OMAHA, July 24.—Play today in the clay court tennis tournament was narrowed down to the semi-finals in singles and the finals in doubles. With the exception of the latter the matches to the beach on Saturday and will do his first sparring on Sunday.
