AMERICA RETURNS WORLD'S TROPHY

McLoughlin Gets Credit for Wonderful Victory Wimbledon Play.

PARKE DEFEATS WILLIAMS

International Play Brings Back to United States Famous Davis Cup, Which Has Wandered Afar in Last Few Years.

WIMBLEDON, July 28.—World su-premacy in lawn tennis doubles rests with the United States. The struggle for the Dwight F. Davis trophy, em-blematic of the international tennis champlenship, ended today on the Wimbledon courts in a victory for the United States when Maurice E. McLoughlip, the American singles champion, defeated Charles P. Dixon, the veteran English player, at 3-6, 6-3, 6-2. The rules of the cup contests called

The rules of the cup contests called for the best three in five matches, and the Americans previously having taken a match each in the singles and the doubles, were the winners of the coveted trophy when Dixon went down before McLoughlin, the score by matches then below: then being: United States 3, Great Britain 1.

The official scores of the tournament, The official scores of the tournament, however, will read, United States 3, Great Britain 2, for after the McLoughlin-Dixon match today, R. Norris Williams, of Philadelphia, played his scheduled match with Parke, the Irishman, winning after five sets, 6-2, 5-7, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, but it was more an exhibition match than anything else, The Davis cup now goes back to the land of its denor after the most interesting fight for its possession since it esting fight for its possession since it first left home in 1993. The victory of the Americans today will be all the more memorable because it was the first time in the history of the cup seven countries - the United S Canada, Australasia, South Africa, Ger many, France and Belgium—competed in elimination matches for the honor of challenging the British holders.

McLoughlin Gets Credit.

Despite his loss in singles to Parke last Friday, McLoughlin generally is given credit for lifting the cup. The dazzling, daring play of the Californian and his sportsmanlike actions during the tournament so endeared him to the British followers of the game that, in spite of keen disappointment at the los of the cup, the crowd, which witnessed today's crucial match, gave the Californian the spontaneous ovation usually Coltrin Is Shining Star. But the wonder did happen. Every-thing was quiet with Girot winding up and matters seemingly safe on the bases. Coltrin had gone to third on a nifty bingle by Guigni, which also moved Fitzgerald around one base. Just as Girot was about ready to let go there was a cloud of dust around the plate and Coltrin was chalked up. Coltrin was the player of the day even before he won the game. Sensational catches in the left infield, with one hand when necessary, and a long double in the fifth, which netted a score, brought the little shortstop well into relief.

Guigni, unsung as a batsman, brought commendation on his efforts by making two hits, a single in the fifth frame, scoring Williams and Col-trin. Out of the four times at bat Guigni landed on base three times, twice on hits and once on being hit by pitcher. #### Chicago 9, Boston 4.

CHICAGO, July 28 .- Chicago and Boson gave a farcical exhibition of baseball today. At the finish the score stood 9 to 4 in favor of the locals, The fielding behind Tyler, who was on the mound for the visitors, was respon-sible for the large score of the home club. As the conclusion to the game Phelan played the famous hidden ball trick on Collins, a pinch runner, and the game was over. In this inning the visitors had scored two men and had a man on second and third, when Col-lins stepped off third base and was

AMERICAN LEAGUE,

St. Louis 4, Washington 1.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—A base on balls to Shotton, a single by Pratt and a home run by McWilliams, all in the first inning, proved Joe Boehling's un-doing in his attempt today to estab-lish a season's record for straight victories in the major leagues. After the first St. Louis got only two hits, but the three-run lead was too much for Washington and the final score was 4 to 1. Until today Boehling had not lost a game this season, and his string of 11 straight won stands as the Amer.

of 11 straight won stands as the American League record and ties that of the National League held by Alexander, of Philadelphia, Score:
