San Francisco Schoolboy and Former Oregon Title-Holder Shows Dazzling Speed, His Drives Proving Unreturnable

BOSTON, July 29 .- G. F. Touchard nd W. M. Washburn, of New York, the latter a Harvard student, won the Eastern championship doubles today from N. W. Niles and A. S. Dabney, of Bos-

N. W. Miles and A. S. Dabney, of Bos-ton, former Eastern champions, 6-2, 7-5, 3-6, 14-12. In the final of the Longwood singles, William Johnston, champion of the Pa-cific Coast and former Oregon title-holder, playing in whirlwind style, de-feated G. P. Gardner, Jr., of Boston, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Formula of P. Gardner, Jr., of Boston, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Touchard was the particular star of the doubles. He sustained the brunt of the attack of his opponents, and his play at the net was a revelation. Johnston, the San Francisco school-boy, played the same game in his con-test with Gardner that prevailed against W. J. Clothier earlier in the tourna-ment. The Pacific Coast champion's speed was dazzling.

There was little or no lobbing, the playing being in the main strong fore-handed strokes by both men, save that Johnston's drives were manifestly bet-ter placed.
