City and country are co-operating successfully in gathering funds for the fresh air outings and in providing places for the poor of Portland to enjoy a Summer vacation in the pure air of the country. Receipts from various sections show that the interest is spreading to all parts of the state. A letter from Mrs. C. H. Castner, president of the Woman's Club of Hood River, says that the citizens of that place are anxious to do their part and that they will either give money or provide places for the children to stay.

Twenty-five children will go to Forest Grove on Friday to be guests of the warm-hearted people of that locality. Mrs. Duncan Matheson Macleod, chairman of the committee at Forest Grove, reports that announcements regarding the fresh air crusade were made in all the churches and that the hospitality of the town will be given unreservedly.

Outfitting Committee Busy.

Newberg and Eddyville also will entertain several of those in need of an outing. Those who went out to Silverton in the first party will return to Portland on Wednesday. The committee from the Junior League, the organization that is providing the youngsters with clothing for their trip, is still busy at work, as it takes an unlimited amount of shoes, dresses, underwear, overalls, trousers and all the things that children need to outfit 50 "kiddies" at one time.

Some of the members of the league are planning to take a trip to Silverton today to see the children at play, enjoying the good time that has been made possible by the generosity of Portland citizens, combined with the open-hearted co-operation of Silverton residents.

Unfortunates Object of Care.

There were several children who couldn't go with the others — not through any fault of their own, but because they were afflicted with tuberculosis—and these little ones have been taken in hand. The Visiting Nurse Association, co-operating with the Associated Charities, is giving them a chance to get well. Open air porches have been built in some cases and cots have been supplied. This work is only one of the many exemplifications of the good that is growing out of this fresh air and sunshine movement that is emphasizing the need of helping those who cannot help themselves. It is the greatest get-together idea that has ever been voiced, and the results are more than gratifying to those who have worked for the success of the fund and the outings.

Letters have been received from several of the children who are enjoying the country. They are quaint, interesting epistles, many of them spelled most grotesquely, but all breathing gratitude and the joy of living.

RECALL WORKERS MEET

Seneca Fouts Heads Deliberation to Perfect Organization.

Seneca Fouts, H. D. Wagnon, Rev. F. E. Coulter, Dr. Mary Equi, Mrs. Mary Schwab, the woman I. W. W. leader, of Chicago, and some of their followers who are advocating the recall of Sheriff Word, held a meeting at 162½ Second street last night.

It was the opinion of Fouts, Coulter, Wagnon, Dr. Equi and Mrs. Schwab that the Sheriff should be recalled without delay, and that they should choose his successor. A committee of 12, with Fouts as ex-officio chairman, was named to perfect an organization. Fouts acted as chairman of the meeting.

Dr. Equi in a speech characterized Mayor Albee as a "hypocrite" and a "liar." She said he ought to be recalled before the Sheriff, in her opinion.

It was declared that the recall of Word would be only preparatory to the recall of Mayor Albee, Governor West and "others."

3500 INVADE NEWPORT

Train and Boat Service Said to Be Totally Inadequate.

NEWPORT, Or., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Newport is crowded to its limit. 3500 persons having arrived during the past eight days, and lack of transportation facilities has become apparent. The trains average one hour late daily and throngs, herded like cattle on boats and barges, pass about an hour on a ride of three minutes and a half across the bay when compelled to go to restaurants. It is said that the boiler on the ferryboat Newport is too small for its engine.

Hundreds of passengers have voiced their complaints but no action has been taken to improve matters, either by the Newport Company or the Southern Pacific.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 4.—Algernon S. Michener, aged 42 years, controller of the Puget Sound Traction, Light & Power Company, was drowned yesterday while trout fishing in the Homa Homa River, near Hood Canal.

JAIL SENTENCE IS GIVEN MAX COHEN

Two-Year Term Penalty of Attorney Convicted of Subornation of Perjury.

LENIENCY PLEA OPPOSED

Thirty Days Allowed for Appeal Under $10,000 Bond—After Court Defendant Charges That Prosecution Is "Frame-Up."

Max G. Cohen, an attorney, yesterday was sntenced to two years at McNeil's Island and to pay a fine of $100 on conviction of subornation of perjury.

Cohen declared he would take the case to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. He was given 30 days in which to prepare his bill of exceptions.

In pronouncing sentence on Cohen, Judge Bean took occasion to condemn in severe language the practices of which Cohen stood convicted.

"When the trial began," said Judge Bean, "I could not bring myself to believe that a man of the defendant's standing in the community and before this court could be guilty of such an act—of persuading a poor outcast woman to perjure herself for the benefit of a wretch who had profited from the sale of her body—but I was convinced by the evidence and believe the defense did not succeed in making the crime appear less than it was."

On being asked if he had anything to say before sentence should be pronounced, Cohen referred the court to his attorney, Ralph E. Moody, who made a plea for leniency.

Leniency Is Protested.

United States District Attorney Reames protested, urging that the trial had been a fair one and that the defendant had been ably defended, and declaring that to allow a man convicted of so grave a crime to escape with a light sentence would help undermine the foundations of justice.

When sentence had been pronounced, Mr. Reames asked that the court increase Cohen's bond from $5000 to $10,000 and, over the protest of Attorney Moody, Judge Bean complied.

The new bond for $10,000, which will give Cohen his liberty for at least a month, was furnished by Cohen, his wife, Grace Cohen, and M. Pallay, a hotel proprietor.

Cohen is a lawyer, well known as a member of the Portland bar. His arrest on a charge of subornation of perjury came as a result of his defense of Jake Gronich, convicted on a white slave charge about eight months ago. During his trial Esther Wood, Gronich's wife, acting, as her evidence in the Cohen trial showed, on Cohen's advice, testified that she had never engaged in immoral practices in any part of the country. She was the principal witness in the Cohen trial, and admitted that she had perjured herself in the Gronich trial. There was much corroborative evidence to this effect.

Prominent Men Testify.

Many prominent people were called by the defense in the Cohen trial to testify to Cohen's good character and standing as a lawyer, among them A. G. Rushlight, then Mayor; D. Solis Cohen, attorney; N. W. Rountree, a real estate man; Robert W. Schmeer, cashier of the United States National Bank; Sig Sichel, cigar dealer; W. M. Cake, attorney; Frank Collier, former assistant district attorney; Ted Lansing, a newspaperman; B. F. Boynton and James F. Kerchem.

Cohen was tried in Circuit Court before Judge Morrow in January, 1912, on a charge of having offered, as acting Municipal Judge, to dismiss a case on the payment of $150 by the defendant. He was acquitted, his attorney, Ralph E. Moody, arguing that, inasmuch as his offer had not been accepted, he had committed no crime.

Esther Wood, whose evidence convicted Cohen of the charge of subornation of perjury, was held in the County Jail on a perjury charge for eight months before Cohen's trial began. Her trial was held after the conviction of Cohen June 4 last, and she was sentenced to 30 days, which she has served, making about nine months in all that she spent in jail for having taken Cohen's advice in the Gronich trial.

Cohen Makes Charges.

After he had been sentenced yesterday and was in the hall outside the courtroom Cohen declared that his prosecution was a "frame-up" and that he had the affidavits to prove it. He referred to the fact that Esther Wood had been held without trial on the charge of perjury committed in the Gronich trial for eight months so that her testimony against him would be valid. Had she been tried before Cohen and been found guilty, her evidence against him would not have been admitted.

The Cohen case was District Attorney Reames' first case after taking office June 1.

Good Roads and Intense Farming Needed, Says Banker.

COURSES IN VOCATION IDEA

William G. Edens Says Better Highways and Agricultural Methods and Education Essential to Nation's Future Welfare.

Good roads, vocational education and intensified farming are the three hobbies of William G. Edens, assistant secretary of the Central Trust Company, of Illinois, and president of the Illinois Highway Improvement Association, who visited Portland yesterday on his way to the Washington State Bankers' convention at Bellingham, which opens tomorrow.

These three subjects, says Mr. Edens, are closely related to one another, and in them, he firmly believes, lies the principal hope for the future substantial progress of the Nation.

Mr. Edens is a "constructive banker," one of a class that is growing in numbers of late and with delightfully refreshing results. He believes that the banks can best serve their own interests by seeking to improve the condition of the people in the territory which they serve.

Bankers' associations in all parts of the country, but in Illinois and in Oregon in particular, have taken an active interest in the last few years in good roads legislation. Mr. Edens has had an active part in this wholesome work in his own state.

"Good roads are absolutely essential to the development of the rural communities," said Mr. Edens yesterday. "There is little hope of increasing the total annual production from the farm without good roads and there is little chance of cutting down the high cost of living without more farm products every year.

"This is where our vocational education and our agricultural experiments get in. We must restore the interest of the boy and the girls in farm work. We must employ experts in our schools to teach the children the simple methods of farming.

"Instead of training the country boys to become professors or lawyers or doctors or business men we will teach them to become farmers. There is no use in setting our schools on a standard that has for its only aim the training of children to enter college when less than 5 per cent of them ever enter college. Fewer college students and more educated farmers is the need of every state.

"In Chicago and the 27 high schools in Cook County outside the city, we are teaching farming. In one of them the boys are engaged in the practical and the actual work of caring for a 40-acre fruit orchard. They will get the profits. This keeps the boy interested. It makes them want to go to school.

"In this work we have the co-operation of the trades unions, of the farmers and of the social workers of the cities."

Mr. Edens will speak to the Washington bankers on these subjects and will go from Bellingham to the Montana bankers' convention.

KNISPEL'S CHANCES SLIM

Rockpile Superintendency to Be Filled by Civil Service.

Probability that Julius Knispel would be put in charge of the Linnton rockpile with the rank of superintendent, waned yesterday when Mayor Albee, after further investigation, virtually decided that the appointment would not be made. The Mayor indicated that he might give Knispel a job as guard at the institution.

In any case, the appointment of Knispel would be but a trial, to extend not longer than 30 days. Even this aroused so much protest from citizens who know the past record of the man, that it probably will not be done. Eventually the position will be filled by Civil Service examination, as the charter requires.

Hooray! Blood Free of Impurities

Eczema Gone! Acne, Tetter, Rash, Pimples, Carbuncles, Boils—Banished!

The under layer of skin is a fine network of tiny blood vessels in which the famous blood remedy, S. S. S., works with remarkable activity. This is why S. S. S., the best known blood purifier, has such a positive action in the skin. There is one ingredient in S. S. S. which peculiarly stimulates cellular or glandular activity to select from the blood or from this fine network of blood vessels in the skin, those elements which it requires for regeneration.

Under the influence of S. S. S. this fine network of blood vessels in the skin is constantly taking from the blood the nutrition required for healthy tissue, and the cause of disease is just as constantly becoming removed, scattered and rendered harmless. These facts are more fully explained in a book on skin troubles sent by The Swift Specific Co., 190 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. Get a bottle to-day and banish all skin afflictions.

Y. P. C. SERGEANT-MAJOR GIVES EMPHATIC VIEWS

Well-Known Portland Lady Who Has Tried Plant Juice Tells What She Thinks of It.

Mrs. Charles Meierhaus, who resides at 619 Ramona avenue in this city, and who is Sergeant-Major of the Young People's Corps here, has the following to say about Plant Juice:

"For a number of years I have been a great sufferer with stomach trouble and nervous debility. Gas would form on my stomach and cause me great distress, and at times I could not retain my food at all. I also suffered a great deal with headaches and had some catarrhal trouble of the throat. I heard of Plant Juice and purchased a supply; it seemed to give me almost instant relief for my throat and head. Since I have been taking Plant Juice I sleep better, my appetite is good and my food seems to agree with me. It seems to have toned up my entire system, for I feel better in every way. I am glad that I tried this remedy, for I had tried so many things and none of them seemed to do me any good. I can heartily recommend Plant Juice to any one."

If you have indigestion, a feeling of weight in the stomach, headaches, heartburn, sour stomach, coated tongue; if you sleep poorly, have no appetite, wake in the morning tired and worn out, have poor circulation, dizzy spells, nervousness and are run down generally, try Plant Juice. It will bring back your appetite and color to your cheeks. For sale by The Owl Drug Company.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "what is a four-flush?" "Why do you ask?" "Mother used the term in conversation this afternoon and I couldn't make sure whether she was talking about you or a game of cards."—Washington, D. C., Star.
