Reports From Vessels.

Admitting that she sold the liquor, but putting the blame on Samuel Coris, who, she said, asked her to sell it, May Conner yesterday caused Coris to be fined $100 in Municipal Court. The liquor was purchased Sunday by Policemen Burke and Sherwood from the sirl in Coris hotel, the Minnesota, on Third street. In his own defense Coris asserted that the woman robbed his rooms to get the best. She denied this and said that after her arrest Coris had falled to furnish ball for her and had allowed her to remain in jail. This, she said, was the reason she "squealed."
