Sacramento-San Francisco Game Is

Slow and Listless.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 6.—The hottest day of the local playing season was directly responsible for a ragged game, devoid of features and all but devoid of any great exertion on the part of the ballplayers.

San Francisco survived the heat better than Sacramento and won, 5 to 2. Kinsella was relieved by Lively after the damage had been done in the first four innings. Lively after the damage had been done in the first four innings. Lively after the ball inning by Decanniere was the only chance for the locals, and this netted only three runs.

-as long as most men have been smokingwe staked our reputation on Tom Keene Cigars-and made them our leader-because we knew the manufacturers would never juggle with the quality—if there is any difference-Tom Keenes are better than they ever were-we don't see how a cigar could be any better than is now-for they are positively all long filler, selected from Tobaccos grown in the great "Mano" district and wrapped with the best imported sumatra-try one todaysmoke carefully and get that distinct yet mild blend peculiar to Tom Keene for 5 cents.
