Employe of Manufacturers' Association Confirms Part of Mulhall's Story.

MUCH SECRECY OBSERVED

Witness Says Marshall Cushing Resigned Rather Than Tell What He Did With Money in Littlefield Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—The internal workings of the National Association of Manufacturers were explained to the House lobby committee today by James L. Ewell, formerly manager of a trade publication issued in connection with the organization. The witness went at great length into several internal dissensions that disturbed the organization and attacked rather bitterly some of its officials, particularly J. P. Bird, who he declared treated him unfairly in discharging him from the employ of the association.

Little of Ewell's testimony bore on the legislative activities of the association, although he did describe two conversations between Mr. Bird and Colonel Martin M. Mulhall, at which he was prosent.

Mulball Short of Money.

"On one occasion," he said, "I know there was a tremendous fight on in the district of Representative Hughes, of New Jersey. I was talking to Mr. Elid when Mr. Mulhall came into the room. In his characteristic way he shouted: 'Well, I could have done better if I had more money. I didn't have enough money. There were pienty of Democrats over there and I didn't have enough money to buy them. I think I did damn well with the money I had, don't you""

On another occasion Ewell said he heard Mulhall demand $2500 from Bird "for work in Washington." Bird promised him the money, the witness declared.

Ewell told the committee of the circumstances of the resignation of Marshall Cushing as secretary of the National Association of Manufacturers. He said that Cushing declined to tell the officers and directors the details of the expenditure of money in a campaign to re-elect Representative Littlefield, of Maine.

Robert McCarter, for the National Association of Manufacturers, questioned Ewell about an unsuccessful suit which he prosecuted against the National Association of Manufacturers for $1500, which he asserted was due him when he was discharged.

"I lost the suit through the false testimony of Mr. Bird and his counsel, A. Parker Nevin," he ahouted, and the committee cut off that line of examination.

"They wanted to know just what he did with the money he had," said Ewell. "He said that he thought that it wouldn't do him or the directors any good if he told them. He told me he went the limit to secure Littlefield's election. He wouldn't tell the directors, so he resigned."

Discussing the dismissal of E. A. Cooley and the appointment of F. F. Parter, in charge of the association's campaign for membership, Ewell quoted Cooley as saying that Porter could get the money, but that he didn't like his tactics.

TRADE WITH CHINA LOST, SAYS SENATOR

Sherman Contrasts Dollar Diplomacy With Bryan Grape-Juice Variety.

Warren of Wyoming Says Underwood Tariff Bill Forces Competition on Farmer and Taxes Him on His Purchases.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 .- Democrats nade slow progress today in advancing the new tariff bill. An opposing speech by Schator Warren, Republican, a sharp debate between Senators Stone and Lip-pltt over the making of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, and attack by Senator Sherman on provisions of the metal schedule took up much of the day.

Senator Sherman opposed the 15 per cent rate on carwheels in the bill, saying it meant ruln to American manufacturers for the benefit of those in England and Germany. Reviewing ex-ports of wheels from this country last year, he said:

year, he said:
"Not a dollar's worth was exported to China in 1912, and it is reasonable to suppose that not a dollar's worth will be exported in 1913. Instead of dollar diplomacy in the Far East, with thousands of dollars' worth of goods sold there now, we have grape juice diplomacy and the sale of nothing."

Lippitt's Activity Recalled. Senator Stone brought up the question of who furnished the facts for the cotton schedule of the Payne-Aldrich bill. He quoted at length from a speech in May, 1909, of the late Senator Dolliver in which it was charged that Senator Lippitt—not then in public life—had come to Congress representing the New England cotton men with the statement that they wanted no inscreases and had gone way with material increases.

creases and had gone way with material increases.

"According to the declaration of one of our great war leaders, 'war is hell,' said Senator Warren, discussing the agricultural schedule. "This never has been denied, and therefore I beg the liberty of saying that this bill is to be indeed hell, so far as the farmer of the Northwest is concerned.

"About everything he has to sell, the use of his capital and labor, the product of both, with but few exceptions, must meet the competition of the world with its cheap, peon, pauper labor, while everything he has to buy, barring certain occasional purchases, is taxed."

Alluding to declarations of the Democrats that the Republican Senate leaders, through their tariff speeches, were trying to bring on a panic, Senator Warren said:

"Sometimes, when one doubts the successful outcome of a proposed enterprise or policy, he throws out hedges in the way of straw men or bogey men, laying the blame beforehand on the other fellows for what he fears might happen to his policy. Can it be possible that our Democratic friends are thus hedging?"

An amendment for an "anti-dumping clause" to replace the provision struck out by the finance committies was introduced by Senator Penrose. The provision would prevent foreign countries from "dumping" surplus goods in the United States at low rates. Farmer Taxed Two Ways.

This sentiment was emphasized in a short talk given by W. H. Martin, vice-president, of Ritzville, in his address, for which he selected a verse from the Bible on which he based his remarks:
