

JOHNSTON, SEEING
DEFEAT, IS VICTORCalifornia Tennis Wonder Only Two Strokes From Waterloo in East.

RIVAL ONLY 17 YEARS OLD

Pacific Coast Champion, Outplayed on Ground Strokes, Pulls Self Together When Battle Goes Against Him and Wins.SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 12.— William Johnston, the California boy wonder, finished up the day in the Meadow Club tennis tournament here by furnishing the thrills.He met Leonard Beekman, the Pawling School champion, and the latter took a set from the Pacific Coast youth and was within two strokes of beating him before Johnston pulled himself together and finished the match at 2-6, 10-8, 6-1.This contest closed the day on the courts and the field was drawn down to 17 survivors. Johnston found his 17-year-old rival able to outplay him on the ground strokes, with the result that a reversal was nearly chalked up against the winner of the Longwood and New York state titles.Other results in the third round were:
Alfred S. Dabney defeated William A.
Larned by default; Johnston defeated C. Frederick Watson, Jr., 10-8, 6-1; G.
M. Church defeated W. P. Kuhn, 6-3, 6-2; E. H. Behr defeated Richard Harte, 6-4, 7-5; William J. Clotier defeated G. C. Caner, 6-2, 6-4; Thomas C. Bundy, holder with McLoughlin of the National doubles championship, defeated William McKim, Princeton, 6-3, 6-1; Wallace F. Johnson defeated J.
G. K. Lawrence, 6-1, 6-3; Frederick C.
Imman defeated H. H. McKinnon, 6-3, 6-4; Gustav P. Touchard defeated
G. Kennedy, Jr., 6-2, 6-3; Watson M.
Washburn defeated G. W. Grier, 6-3, 6-1.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Boston 7-9, Chicago 3-3.

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Heavy hitting in both games of a double-header with Chicago gave Boston two victories today. After the visitors had taken a three-run lead in the first game batting rallies by the locals in the fifth and sixth counted seven runs and offended the game. Boston batsmen continued their inspiring performance and drove Stack from the box after four innings, in which nine hits were made off his delivery. Score:

Pittsburg 5, Cincinnati 2.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 12.—Pittsburg won the last game of the series from Cincinnati by winning four runs off

Brown in the first inning. The veteran was touched up for clean singles in succession by Carey, Viox, Wagner, Miller and Wilson. These netted the four runs. Packard went in with only one out and stopped the scoring. Mike Mitchell again started with the bat, having two singles and McGinnis, while Wilson had the game. McGinnis was replaced by Cooper in the fourth, and the young left-hander struck out six men and held the visitors harmless.

St. Louis 7, New York 2.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—St. Louis opened up the series today by defeating

New York in the final game. The visitors drove both Schultz and Fisher off the mound and also hit McConnell hard to the sixth. The New York team could not get their men around the bases with Mitchell at work. Umpire

O'Loughlin ordered Pitcher Mitchell off the field at the end of the fifth inning.

Mitchell made several attempts to get at O'Loughlin and tried to seize his mask. Other players interfered. Manager Stovall tonight wired charges against O'Loughlin to President Ben

Johnston. Score:

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Scott not only pitched fine ball against Philadelphia today, but made a single in the seventh with the bases full and scored two runners and enabled the visitors to win the game 4 to 2. It was Scott's second victory in the series of four games here. Bodie was very prominent in the visitors' attack. He made a home run, giving him three four-bag-gers for the series, scored another run after starting the seventh-inning rally with a single and sent in Berger in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. Scott was at his best with men on the bases.

The struggle for the Chamber of Commerce stake was a battle between Frank Bogash, Jr., and Lesta J. Eachheat was hard fought all the way. In the final round there was a whippingfinish, with the son of Frank Bogash a length to the good at the wire.Veteran Ed Geers made his first appearance of the week behind the wonderful colt, Etawah. In the 2:10 trotPitt against the aged Campaigner, the younger won easily.The fastest of the day, in some of the closest finishes ever seen at the local track, Knight Onwardo, Mollie Darlingand Eddie Dillard each won a heat.
Only the heat winners came out for the final heat. Mollie Darling andKnight Onwardo raced heads apart around the stretch, with Eddie Dil-lard right at their heels. In the lasteighth, Dillard forced Onwardo into a break and won in a common jog, withMollie Darling a poor second. The
