

DEMAND ON SULZER IS SET FOR TODAY

Glynn to Assert Authority Formally.

BOTH MEN NOW IN OFFICE

First Clash Comes Over Requisition for Prisoner.

VIRGINIANS ARE PUZZLED

Mrs. Sulzer's Condition Requires Services of Two More Specialists, but She Is Reported Somewhat Improved.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 14.—Lieutenant-Governor Glynn will make a formal demand on Governor Sulzer tomorrow for possession of the executive chamber at the Capitol and thus bring to an issue the question as to who is Governor of the State of New York. This was announced tonight by friends of the Lieutenant-Governor.

Governor Sulzer, it is said, will refuse to relinquish possession of the chamber and in anticipation of such a demand he is understood to have already prepared a letter flatly declining to accede to it.

What further action will then be taken by Mr. Glynn was not indicated tonight, but the general expectation was that the rival claimants to the Governor's chair would resort to the courts for a final case under an agreed statement of facts.

The question who is chief executive of the State of New York—William Sulzer or Martin H. Glynn—was still unsettled when the lights went out in the Capitol tonight. Both the impeached Governor and the Lieutenant-Governor still contended they were acting the machinery of government and both spent a busy day in their respective offices with counsel and friends formulating plans to maintain their authority.

Mrs. Sulzer Improving. Meanwhile the Governor's wife, who is expected to be the star witness at the trial, lay in a critical condition in the executive mansion. Her nervous collapse of yesterday, which was accompanied by hysteria, grew so serious this morning that the Governor sent to New York for two more specialists and her condition was reported as somewhat improved tonight.

With the situation thus complicated various departments of the state government marked time today and with one exception made no open announcement of their attitude toward either claimant. Lieutenant-Colonel Edward B. Howard, of the staff of Adjutant-General Hamilton, called on the Lieutenant-Governor today and formally recognized the authority of Mr. Glynn by asking if there were any orders he cared to transmit to the Adjutant-General, who was about to leave town. Mr. Glynn had none.

Great Seal May Be Glynn's. Secretary of State May was also reported by one of Mr. Glynn's friends to have recognized the claims of the Lieutenant-Governor, and it was said that he would refuse Governor Sulzer access to the great seal of the State of New York, which is kept in the Secretary's office.

Governor Sulzer made no effort today to resist service on him of the Assembly's articles of impeachment and the summons of the Senate calling upon him to appear before the court of impeachment on September 18.

Mr. Glynn, in the capacity of Acting-Governor, Senator Wagner, as Acting-Lieutenant-Governor, and Stephen Smith, sitting as the board of trustees of public buildings on Monday next will open bids and award contracts for work in the Capitol involving about $300,000. The exclusion of Mr. Sulzer from participation in this matter is expected to result in an attack by his supporters on the legality of these awards.

Sulzer Signs Requisition.

The first clash of authority between Sulzer and Glynn came today over an application for papers for the extradition of James Molloy, who is held a prisoner in New York charged with the larceny of $106 from a bank at Martinsburg, W. Va. The outcome was that the officers, after a turbulent day, left for New York with papers signed by Mr. Sulzer, as Governor, Mr. Glynn having refused to attach his signature on the ground that they came to him signed by some one not in authority and therefore were not in proper form.

D. O. Bartles and E. B. Gardner, Deputy Sheriffs of Berkeley County, West Virginia, applied for the extradition papers at the Executive chamber.

W. L. Lamborn, of Governor Sulzer's Executive staff, pronounced on them and after consulting his chief informed the visitors that everything would be ready for them at 5 o'clock. Congratulating themselves on the celery with which the wheels of official procedure moved in the Empire State, the officers sought the hospitality of a nearby tavern to break the tedium of waiting.

Capitol Employee Breaks News.

"Governor Sulzer sure is some swift on the move," remarked Bartles. "There ain't no such thing as Governor Sulzer," interjected a Capitol employee, who happened to overhear the remark. "You mean Governor Glynn."

SCHOONER BLAZES IN ELECTRICAL FOG

FIRE SHOOT'S FROM MASTS AS FLASHES BOMBARD SHIP.

Angular, Zig-Zag and Forked Lightning Courses Down Rigging for More Than One Hour.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—All sorts of weird and unusual experiences at sea have been the lot of masters of vessels in the over-ocean and coastwise trade, but the most interesting to a scientific standpoint, occurred to the steam schooner Wasp, Captain A. Sunderberg, which piles between Seattle and California.

In a report made to the Hydrographic Office, Captain Sunderberg says that at 10 P. M., August 7, when six miles east by south of Point Conception, his vessel ran into a thick fog bank which hung close to the water. Without the fog raising in the least, a violent electric storm broke and for one hour and 14 minutes the blanket of heavy mist was pierced continually by discharges of atmospheric electricity and vivid flashes of angular, zig-zag and forked lightning. At 12:15 A. M., August 8, the steel foremast of the Wasp became charged with electricity from the top down to the spring stay. Captain Sunderberg says this was not the usual display of St. Elmo fire, as the mast gave out loud reports, as if from a powerful wireless apparatus.

While the vessel was bombarded by lightning, which coursed down her main mast, her officers and crew did not venture on deck.

MEN OUTNUMBER WOMEN

Majority of Births in State Boys, but Fewer Girls Die.

How long will it be before the population of Oregon is equally divided between men and women? A report of the State Health Officer White propounds the question after reviewing the vital statistics of the commonwealth for the last three months.

The United States Government figures say there are 100,000 more men in Oregon than there are women. In the last three months 4225 male babies were born in the state and 1150 female babies. In the same length of time there were 1033 deaths of males and 708 deaths of females. In other words, 75 more boys were born than there were girls and 326 more males died than did females.

How long?

YOUNG BABE NO SALVATION

Contractor Snow Ordered to Jail Five Days for Speeding.

Despite the fact that he has a wife and a young baby, Robert J. Snow, a building contractor, was sentenced, in Municipal Court yesterday, to five days' imprisonment for speeding his automobile. He was the sixth person upon whom a prison sentence has been imposed by Judge Stevenson in the six weeks of his incumbency.

Complaint against Snow was pressed by Norman A. Buiet, a boy of 13 years of age, acting in the absence of his father. The testimony was that the defendant had traveled at the rate of 40 miles an hour at Knott and East Seventeenth streets.

This was Snow's second appearance for speeding. He gave notice of appeal.

CALIFORNIA BAITS BONDS

Commission of 10 Per Cent Offered for Sale of Harbor Paper.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 14.—An bait to attract investors to buy state securities, State Treasurer Roberts is authorized tomorrow by special act to offer 10 per cent commission on the sale of $3,000,000 in 3 per cent San Francisco Harbor bonds.

Under the terms of the harbor bond issue the bonds cannot be sold less than par. Because of this and because of the low interest, the state has found trouble in selling the securities. To pave a way for easy sales the last Legislature appropriated $500,000 to pay commissions on the sale of bonds.

COAST WALK WAGER LOST

Minnesotans to Hike to Pacific as Result of Billiards Bet.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 14.—Because Bert Sullivan, of Stillwater, lost two out of three games of pocket billiards to Edward Costello, of Chicago, he must walk from here to San Francisco.

The two men were discussing the recent walk of Edward Payson Weston from New York to Minneapolis, when Costello proposed a walk for the two to San Francisco, to be completed by 12:15. Sullivan demurred but finally agreed that if Costello could defeat him in two out of three games of pocket billiards he would make the trip with Costello, Sullivan lost.

STORM SWEEPS WINNIPEG

Wind and Rain Wreck Thoroughfares of Canadian City.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 14.—A wind storm of almost cyclonic proportions, accompanied by a cloudburst, struck this city tonight.

Great havoc was wrought along the main thoroughfares, plate glass windows being smashed and many buildings damaged. Electric lights were put out of commission in many parts of the city and telegraph and telephone service is badly demoralized.

The rainfall was the most severe in years.

JUROR CAUSES DIVERSION

Intimation Given That Prosecution Has Not Presented All Its Evidence—Photographer Fined, Plates Confiscated.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Lola Norris followed Marsha Warrington on the witness stand today and repeated, virtually unchanged, but in even stronger terms, the story of seduction, intimidation and elopement from Sacramento to Reno, on which the Federal Government bases its prosecution of Maury I. Diggs and Drew Caminetti.

The day was punctuated by a series of sharp minor surprises. Juror Bilas showed a disposition to question the good faith of the Government in withholding from evidence a transcript of the story told by Marsha Warrington to the Assistant District Attorney of Sacramento County on the way home from Reno after the arrests, which is now in the possession of the prosecution. He was instructed by the court that the jury would take cognizance of nothing except what came regularly before it.

Jury Cautious Emphatically. Curiosity as to his state of mind increased when, after the noon adjournment, he was 15 minutes late, but Judge Van Fleet accepted slyly his statement that he had misunderstood the instructions as to when to return. Juror Bilas is married and has one daughter.

In dismissing the jury tonight the court repeated the usual caution, and at the same time explained the particularly emphatic admonitions he gave yesterday.

"I don't want to be understood," said the judge, "as having implied yesterday that there was any well-founded suspicion as to the integrity of this jury. The suggestion I had in mind came from one of my own attendants, but it did not mean that anyone knew anything of a sinister nature of anyone on this jury. It was suggested that one looking like a member of this jury had been seen talking with someone connected with the defense of this case."

Movies Invade Courtroom.

During a 10-minute recess in the afternoon session photographers and moving-picture men invaded the courtroom, and there was a flurry among the principals in the case and the women spectators, all of whom covered their faces. One photographer was arrested with debris.
