Defence Will Not Deny Trip With Girls

MOTIVE WILL BE EXPLAINED

Oly Chance, Says Counsel, Makes Offence Federal One.

RELATIONS ARE ADMITTED

Defendant is in Mind of Perser-ri-on Flight to Show, in Either to Prevent Relative From News Photographers.

SAYS FRANCISCO, CAL.-Harry O. P. and very fresh trouble is due to it. Leaving the Federal Building about 10:30 o'clock yesterday, she was accosted by a man who asked her if she was Mr. O'Connell's relation. She looked at him and said she was. He then asked her what was the motive for the flight to England. She was not satisfied with his question, and asked him to clear up the matter in the court. The matter is to be explained.

The question was probably put to her by the man who had accosted her.

In a letter written to Comrade O'Connell, from England, he said:

"I have been informed that Mr. O'Connell is not a relation of mine, and that I have no further concern with him.

"I am therefore free from any responsibility in connection with the matter which he has been accused of.

"I am now the head of my own family, and have no desire to take any further part in the political questions which are now before the country."

The letter was written in English, and signed "Harry O. P."

It is understood that the letter was written to Comrade O'Connell, who is in England, and that it is in reference to a matter of a political nature.
