Y. M. C. A. LEADER Tages Trup.—General Secretary Stone, of the Young Men's Christian Association, and State Secretary Rhodes left for Astoria Inst night to attend to business of the association. Secretary Stone has just returned from the conference of employed officers of the Y. M. C. A., which was held at Deland, Wash. Officers was held at Deland, Wash. Officers from British Columbia, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon attended the conference, which was the largest gathering of the kind ever held in the Northwest, Assistant General Secretary Wonacott and R. R. Perkins, religious work director, have gone to Cascadero, Cal., to attend the employed officers' conference of Northern California. The Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is being over-hauled and will be open again Septem-

Assessor Reed in-formed his callers at the end of the conference that his views had not been changed but he promised to look up some legal authorities on the question which Mr. Teal cited.

which Mr. Teal cited.

COURT DEMANDS PUBLICITE.—When two attorneys came before him yesterday seeking to secure orders for the publication of summonses in divorce suits in small trade and class publications published in Portland, the statement was made by Circuit Judge McGinn that it will be his policy to allow publication only in daily newspapers of general circulation and which handle general news. He said that publication in papers which reach only certain classes is a subterfuge and not the intent of the statute. There was small chance,

Dancing on Dock Considered.—To dance or not to dance on the roofs of the proposed public docks— that is the question. The East Side Business Men's Club says, "Yes." Monday at 1 P. M. the City Commission and the Public Docks Commission will discuss recreation on the docks. The dock board has written the City Commission that the material from which docks 1 and 2 will be constructed will be of heavy milling instead of fireproof material, and therefore the dock board is disinclined to favor using the roofs for recreation purposes. Also it is said that STABLE FLOOR IS ISSUE.—Whether horses should stand on earthen or concrete floors is a question which is dividing the Oregon Humane Society and the City Health Bureau, according and the City Health Bureau, according to the plea made in Municipal Court yesterday by Attorney F. S. Grant. C. F. Wagner, proprietor of a laundry, was on trial for maintaining an unsunitary stable, and his defense was that the concrete floor required by the health officials, while more sanitary, is inhumane to the horses. To permit a test of the question, the court imposed a fine of $25 and an appeal will be taken. be taken.

FIREMEN EXTEND THANKS .- With its fund for sending the Firemen's Band to New York fatter by $3500, the mem-bers of the department, through Bat-tailon Chief Stevens, extend thanks to all who made the police-firemen's concert at the Armory, Thursday night, a glowing success. The necessary funds for sending the bandsmen to attend the meeting of the National Fire Chiefs' Association at New York is still insufficlent, and appeals are to be made to citizens who will appreciate the ad-vertising value of the trip. The band leaves one week from today.

Proneer's Funeral Held.—The funeral services of L M. Norcross, a pioneer of 1850, who died August 13 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary McLean, 347 Grand avenue, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the Portland Crematorium by Washington Lodge, No. 46, A. F. and A. M., of which he was a member. He was 88 years of age. He came to California in 1849, and thence to Oregon in 1850. He is sur-vived by his daughter.

MRS. Alpertina Modrow's Fungral-HELD.—The funeral of Mrs. Albertina Held.—The funeral of Mrs. Albertina Modrow, who died August 13, was held yesterday from Dunning's chapel and the interment was made in the Mount Scott Cemetery. Mrs. Modrow was 56 years of age, and is survived by a widower, John Modrow, and was the mother of Mrs. A. Grone and David F. Modrow, of Kalama, Wash.; George, Albert, Mrs. E. Lucas, Dorothea and Charles Modrow. Charles Modrow.

Paston Adopts Innovations.—Rev. J. R. Knodell, pastor of the Laurelwood Congregational Church and long identicongregational Church and long identi-fied with the temperance movement here, has introduced an innovation in his church in combining in one service the Young People's Endeavor lesson with the evening sermon. Another new feature is the "Year Book of Sermon Texts," in which the owner records the text of each of Mr. Knodell's ser-mons.
