

SOCIETY BOWS TO PROMINENT GUESTS

Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, of Washington, is Honor Guest at Brilliant Affairs.

VIRGINIA MATRON FETED

Mrs. Philip Johnson and Daughter to Be Entertained at Bridge Party Today—Mrs. Foster, of Bridgeport, Conn., is Honored.

The presence of distinguished visitors in Portland this summer has been the inspiration for much elaborate entertaining at which the society matrons of the city have made the visitors welcome. The most brilliant affairs of yesterday were those at which Mrs. Franklin K. Lane was honored.

Mrs. Philip Johnson, of Richmond, Va., who with her daughter, Miss Mary Scarborough, is passing several weeks here, is being widely feted. Today she will be the guest of honor at a bridge party at which Mrs. William C. Alvord will entertain at her attractive home on Taylor street.

Mrs. H. M. Esterly has as her houseguest her sister, Mrs. Della Norcross Foster, of Bridgeport, Conn. A recent function in compliment to Mrs. Foster was a tea given by Mrs. J. E. Dickson. The artistic home of Miss Addison C. Jewell on Prospect Drive was the scene of the festivity. The rooms were decorated with ferns, vines and baskets of roses. Miss Jessie Murch poured tea and Mrs. Leroy H. Walker served loaves.

Mrs. Allison, wife of General James Allison, of New York City, is another visitor in Portland who will be entertained extensively. She arrived on Friday to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Whalley. Later, Mrs. Allison will visit Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Mrs. Bert C. Ball and Mrs. William T. Muir, of Portland, and Mrs. H. F. Huson, of Cornelius. Mrs. Allison is a gifted writer, several of her short stories having appeared in the leading magazines.

Miss Isabella Gauld will be hostess today at an informal tea at her home on King street. A number of the younger matrons and matrons will share her hospitality.

Mrs. E. Mahaney entertained recently for Miss Edna Dunn, of Salt Lake. A luncheon at the Avalon apartments was the honor planned for the visitor. Another hostess who complimented Miss Dunn was Mrs. Jay Buckingham, who presided at a breakfast at which covers were laid for Miss Dunn, Mrs. Alice Hillier, Mrs. W. H. Nunn, Mrs. Younger, Mrs. Mahaney, Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. K. C. Banks, Mrs. William McKenny, Mrs. Harry Hale, Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Mrs. Fred Bailey and Mrs. Buckingham.

Miss Helen Wortman will go to Philadelphia next month to attend Miss Baldwin's school. She will be accompanied on her Eastern trip by her mother, Mrs. H. C. Wortman. Miss Alberta Bair is another charming girl who will attend the same exclusive finishing school.

Miss Louise Casswell will leave about the same time to enter Miss Williams' school at Providence and her cousin, Miss Alice Louise Jones, will go East to college.

Miss Alice Hillier and Miss Mary Hillier are sojourning at Estacada at "The Wilderness," the W. H. Nunn's country place. Miss Henrietta Henderson, of Astoria, and her cousin, Miss Alice Louise Jones, will go East to college.

Miss Mary Frances Iacono has as her guest Miss Clark who is being entertained at "Spendiff," Miss Iacono's cottage at Neah-kah-nie.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Underwood Howell have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Bernard Catton at the latter's home in Walnut Park.

Mrs. Samuel Rosenheim, of San Francisco, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Bloch, 729 Hoyt street, has returned to her home in California.

Mrs. L. Bronson Salmon has returned from Southern California after a several months' absence from the city. She was extensively entertained by friends in the South.

Mrs. Ricka Breslauer and daughter, Miss Mamie Breslauer, of San Francisco, and David L. Breslauer, of Chico, Cal., are being entertained by friends and relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Catherine Covach Frederick will be at home at 840 Division street on the first Monday of each month from 3 to 5 o'clock.

AT THE THEATERS

Orpheum.

FAR surpassing her act of last season is the dramatic sketch Blanche Walsh brings this season to the Orpheum to headline the bill. In intensity of acting, strength of plot and value as a vaudeville enlightenment in art, Miss Walsh's sketch "Counters Vadine," is of premier importance. She is particularly suited to the role, that of a handsome Russian woman of high station seeking vengeance for the murder of her husband.

The actress brings all the repressed emotion she is noted for to bear upon the few tremendous big scenes in the playlet. The story is dependent upon its surprising climax for its biggest punch, and to disclose it would be unfair to those who have not yet witnessed it.

A knock-out number is that of Ed Flanagan and Neely Edwards in their new act, "Off and On," which is a sequel to "On and Off," mentioned for its fun. This one has three splashes, an awakening on the morning after a grand big night before—a sidewalk dialogue—and a dancing act as splash 2.

The Pels Trio are musical vagabonds who obligingly wander along the paths of grand opera with grateful side trips into harmonious ragtime by means of half a dozen musical instruments. Charlotte Rustenroff sings in a clear, well-trained soprano the while she "fiddles up" on her violin and makes one of the bright spots on the bill.

Rosalind pounding the pie out of the trap drum, offer an aeroplane hooping-rolling act that holds interest. The weekly events, canned in motion pictures, completes the bill.

Lyric.
DAN MALONEY wanted to marry the "widdler," Mrs. O'Connor, who was already engaged to Val Blatz, saloon-keeper extraordinary. Along comes Kitty Blatz, who chucks Dan under the chin just as "widdler" O'Connor arrives on the scene, and then Maude Skinner, "a cute little thing," somehow or other manages to get into the limelight.

EMPRESS.

EMPRESS patrons get their money's worth this week. They are permitted to get their eyes full of Fay King—vivacious, rose cheeked, flashing of big velvet eyes—with her slim little figure clad attractively in a black charmer and girdle. She flashes out on the stage like a little humming bird, gay of plumage and busy.

To a running fire of satire and little jokes, mostly about pugilists in general and her own husband in particular, Fay King Nelson draws lifelike cartoons. These she changes in subtlety and brings excitement when she rolls at full length down a broad flight of stairs. The pantomime is so splendidly done that it hardly needs the explanatory synopsis of the act attached to the programme. Molasso is himself a versatile dancer, but it is Miss Kremsler that rivets attention with the grace, subtle charm and brilliancy of her art. In the act Serino Molasso as a "soused" housemaid has a gay little dance.

20 POOR CHILDREN WILL GO TO DALLAS

Oswego Comes Now With Offer of Outing for Youth of Portland.

TRIP GIVEN TIRED PARENTS

Newberg Has 50 and McMinnville 65 Little Ones, While All of Silverton's Visitors Have Returned From Vacations.

Twenty of Portland's poorest children are going to Dallas on Thursday for a fresh air outing. Oswego has sent in a call for a party. Fifty are being entertained at Newberg and 65 at McMinnville, while nearly all of Silverton's 150 have come back to town.

A poor heart-hungry mother, weeping for her dead boy, was found in a miserable home on Saturday by the Junior League. She was befriended immediately and an invitation for her to visit in the country was secured and now she is being cared for and given a chance to get strong and in a measure happy so that she will be able to take up the battle of life again and work for her other children.

Work Done Systematically. Another instance of the good being done by the fresh-air committee is the case of a mother of six children. This woman works "by the day" and in all her married life she has never had a holiday. She and her little ones are being entertained at McMinnville. The committee at this place has arranged everything systematically.

Rev. H. T. Macey met the party on the train on Saturday and provided every member with a beautiful lunch. From the station at McMinnville the youngsters were taken in autos to the Methodist Church, where they were assigned to their various hosts. Mrs. Thomas Rogers, president of the Civic Improvement Club, Mrs. Kuns, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Macey and others assisted in receiving the children. Mrs. Kuns has several tents put up in her yard and is entertaining a large number. She is accompanied by her daughter who amuses the children and takes them for outings. Mrs. M. Thoroman, of the Associated Charities who chaperoned the McMinnville party was the guest of Mrs. W. T. Macey.

Youngsters Appear Proud. The local physicians have greatly assisted the fresh-air committee. On Saturday Dr. J. Lorne Manion and Dr. Robbins gave their entire day to the work. One of the members of the Junior League passed through McMinnville on Sunday and returned with a number of air youngsters going to Sunday school proudly wearing their yellow sash badges and looking extremely happy.

EAST SIDE PLAN COSTLY

HEARING ON DOCK-RECREATION PARK PROJECT HELD.

After Debate Before City Commission Further Hearing for Thursday is Ordered.

Figures and statistics on using docks as recreation places were hurried back and forth between East Side interests and the Dock Commission yesterday morning in the City Hall, with the Mayor and Municipal Commissioners acting as umpires. The game was a tie, so the commissioner called another conference for 10 A. M. next Thursday.

The members of the Dock Board did not particularly oppose the general idea of the East Side Business Men's Club of utilizing the roofs of the proposed docks for band concerts, dances and the like, but they declared it would cost at least $100,000 in addition to build the docks so as to allow for the recreation features. The present plans call for structures of slow burning milling, which in one or two places would be the docks would have to be of fireproof material.

The Dock Board asserted that it did not have the additional money and the City Commission was quite sure it hadn't either. President I. M. Lepper, of the East Side Business Men's Club, waged a valiant fight for that organization's pet plan. It was shown that the space on the roof of the larger of the proposed docks will be 100 by 510 feet, and the assertion was made that this is altogether too much area to go to waste. Plans were gone into, showing how a roof could be built over the dock roof—so as to protect the flooring for dancing. It was asserted that dances, band concerts and other social events on the tops of the docks would prove a great advertisement for the city and figures were presented showing how much local people who have read of the doings of the suffragettes in London and elsewhere will be given an opportunity of contrasting the feminine leaders of 1913 with the historic militant of five centuries ago.

This season's piece de resistance of the Ringling programme is a great wordless play depicting the dramatic doings of the suffragettes in London and elsewhere will be given an opportunity of contrasting the feminine leaders of 1913 with the historic militant of five centuries ago.

RIVAL UNION MEN FIGHT

LONGSHOREMAN LEADERS CARRY ROW INTO BANK.

Charles Tillbury, Held on Charge of Assaulting A. F. Schaub, Says Trouble Was Provoked.

Into the lobby of the United States National Bank, the fight between opposing unions of longshoremen penetrated yesterday, when A. F. Schaub, business agent of the independent concern, took refuge there and was pursued by Charles Tillbury, of the older union.

It is charged that Tillbury, who is a large man, was beating and kicking Schaub on the tile floor of the lobby when ex-Police Captain Bailey, the bank officer, and Cashier R. W. Schmeer, interfered. Detectives Maloney and Swennes took the union man in custody and Schaub swore to a complaint on which Tillbury was held.

Tillbury justifies his action by the assertion that Schaub had applied abusive epithets to him. Schaub made an appeal in Municipal Court yesterday morning to have three members of the Longshoremen's Union, charged with assaulting him previously, disposed of promptly, as he said he feared for his life. The case went over. When Schaub left the courtroom, members of the opposing faction boarded the same car with him, and Sergeant Rupert sent a motorcycle officer to trail the car and see that no trouble occurred.

HEIMRICH ESTATE VALUED

Late Railroad Magnate's Holdings Invented at $547,069.66.

An inventory of the estate of John Heimrich, who was president of the Great Southern Railroad Company, was filed in Probate Court yesterday. The value is given as $537,069.66. The will, in which bequests are made to various relatives and charitable institutions, was filed nearly two months ago.

The inventory, submitted by W. P. Smith, George R. Funk and Frank Bolan, appointed appraisers by Judge Cleeton, shows innumerable notes for amounts ranging from $1000 to $12,000 and secured by mortgages, $12,745.05 in cash, 325 acres in Nebraska, valued at $4745; a lot in Irving Harbor View Addition valued at $5000, and 575 shares of stock of the Great Southern Railroad Company valued at $19,165.96; 286 first mortgage bonds of the same corporation valued at $27,323.32; a note of the Centennial Milling Company, of Seattle, for $50,000; two notes executed by J. G. Heimrich aggregating $99,

MEMORIAL WILL BE HELD

Fiftieth Anniversary of Quantrell Massacre to Be Commemorated.

The fiftieth anniversary of the massacre at Lawrence, Kan., by Quantrell and his band of guerrillas will be Thursday. Lawrence will observe the day with memorial services, for which elaborate preparations have been made and to which survivors of the raid will return from all parts of the country. The survivors of the raid living in Portland, and others who formerly lived in Lawrence will hold a memorial meeting at the Oaks on Thursday from 12 to 4 P. M., at which those who were in the raid will relate their experiences of that day. A picnic dinner will be a feature of the meeting. All who formerly lived in Lawrence are urged to come and bring their baskets. Those wishing further particulars may communicate with Mrs. W. W. Brotherton, 465 East Twenty-sixth street; Mrs. Ass Sleeth, 1025 Michigan street; or F. Eggert, 129 Third street.

Good Time Now for Blood Health

Blood Disorders Gone to Stay. A few doses of that wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S., will start activities in the cellular tissues of the body and soon show decided changes in the skin. The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of these cells. Certain it is that in a surprisingly short time any skin eruption shows a most remarkable change; it begins to dry up, the skin scales off in tiny flakes, and soon a layer of clear, healthy and firm tissue results. The reason for this is in the peculiar stimulation of S. S. S., which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutrient it requires for regeneration.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store, if you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something "just as good." S. S. S. is prepared by the Swift Specific Co., 150 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for their illustrated book on skin diseases.

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery

"I am an old man—and many of my troubles never happened."—ELBERT HUBBARD

THE white hair and wrinkled faces of our busy men and women tell of doubt, fear and anxiety—more than disease or age. Worry plays havoc with the nervous system—so that digestion is ruined and sleep banished. What oil is to the friction of the delicate parts of an engine—

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery is to the delicate organs of the body. It's a tonic and body builder—because it stimulates the liver to vigorous action, assists the stomach to assimilate food—thus enriching the blood, and the nerves and heart in turn are fed on pure rich blood. Neuritis "is the cry of starved nerves for food." For forty years "Golden Medical Discovery" in liquid form has given great satisfaction as a tonic and blood maker.

Now it can be obtained in tablet form—from dealers in medicine or send 50 one-cent stamps for trial box. Write R. V. Pierce, Buffalo.

DR. PIERCE'S PLEASANT PELLETS Relieve constipation, regulate the liver, and bowels. Easy to take as candy.
