PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18.—Chicago won its fourth straight victory here today over Philadelphia, the score being to 2. The visitors scored all their runs in two innings by bunching four hits. It was learned today from X-Ray examinations that Paskert had broken a finger on his right hand in taking a ball off Schulz' bat yesterday.

Shortistop Bidwell, of Chicago, was notified by President Lynch today that he had been suspended for three days for throwing dirt toward Umpire O'Day, following a decision at the home

SPARRING PARTNER SUBSTITUT-ED IN LABOR DAY BOUT.

Champion to Remain in Vancouver and Fight Freddie Welsh on September 20.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 19,-(Special.)-Ray Campbell, of Scuttle, was matched late tonight to fight Eddie Moy, of New York, in Vancouver next Saturday to decide which shall substitute for Freddle Welsh against Willie he or Frenchie Valse would go on for the Labor day event, but Valse did not appear anxious to come.

Moy is a little fellow, weighing only 128 pounds, but quick. He fought in a preliminary in the last Valse-Bailey bout and made such a fine showing that the fans were of the opinion that he could have licked either of the principals. Moy will go 15 rounds with Ritchie, who will get $5000 for the afternoon's work. The question of weight as between Ritchie and Welsh will not be discussed until Willie sees how he gets along training here. There can be little dispute about this in any can be little dispute about this in any

KRAPP CONSISTENT WINNER

While Beaver Leaders Work Hard, Pitching in 80 Games This Season, Elmer Koestner Is Real Slave With Total of 35.

Eighty games in 15 weeks is the record of Portland's three great winning pitchers—James, West and Higginbotham. Higginbotham has twirled 29 games, James 29 and West 22. All three rank right up at the top, too, in wins and losses, next to Klawitter and Williams, of Sacramento, and Fanning, of the Seals.

Eimer Koestner, the ex-Beaver, is the real slave of the league. Oddly enough, Koestner is about the frailest
