Beavers Pile Up Enough Runs to Cinch Game in Second Inning. Charley Chech Is Given Poor Support.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Southpaw Harry Krause had the Angels' swatters running around in circles yesterday, and, as a result, Portland turned the tables and captured the second game, 4-1. Charley Chech was plugged fairly hard, but poor supwas plugged fairly hard, out poor sup-port was accorded him by the Angelic infield. Doane starred at bat with three blows and a walk in four trips. Krause kept his five hits well scat-tered and only once did the 2000 fans have anything to worry about. Howard opened the ninth by a double past third and Johnson went safe on a wide throw and Johnson went sale on a wide throw to first by Rodgers.

Uneasiness vanished in a chorus of good-natured taunts, however, when Art Krueger struck out while acting the role of ye puichritudinous pinch hitter. Arbogast and Ellis were easy

Portland scored three runs in the second inning and led to the finish. Four of the 11 biffs the Beavers accumulated in this strenuous stanza, yet two of the three tailies counted on a wide heave by Third Baseman Metzger. In detail Lindsay ambled to first after being hit on the knee by Chech. Doane bunted and registered a scratch hit when Chech threw too late to second. Johnson mussed up Kores' grounder.

when Chech threw too late to second. Johnson mussed up Kores' grounder through short, which same was put down as a hit, and Lindsay scored, Doane being nabbed at third base.

Berry then grounded out and Krause took up his trusty bludgeon, His effort was a grounder to third Metzger scooped it, tried to tag Lober, who dodged, and then threw several yards over Moore's cranium, Kores and Lober scoring.

The Angel infleid put up a holler to Umpire Finney, basing their protest on the charge that Lober had run out of line, but Finney laughed at the kicks and the scores were put down as offi-

Doane drove in the fourth run in the seventh frame, following a walk to Rodgers and some poor co-operation between Moore and the keystone guardians. The Beaver captain was caught flatfooted off first but Bill reached serond mainly because when Moore threw a trifle high, neither Johnson mor Page so much as tried for the ball. The visitors' lone tally accrued in the sixth when Wotell doubled to deep centerfield, waltred to third on a wild pitch and crossed on an infield out.

The day furnished perfect baseball weather. Lober had the satisfaction of driving out two hits against his old teammates. The score:

Reause twirled a steady, heady game and sentified to much credit.

Page negotiated another stellar play when a robbed Derrick of a third hit. The litter second sacker got in the way of a drive last looked good for a single to right.

Claude Berry was kept busy pulling down igh files. He is a bear in that depart-sigh files. He is a bear in that department.

West will likely pitch today, his first tame for nearly three weeks. Perritt will likely be the Angel choice.

Berry was doubled on a hit-and-run play in the fourth when Chad lined out to Wo-ell. Claude turned and retreated as soon is it was apparent that Wotell had the sall, but he was out yards to spare.

Hari Maggart will be subject to draft his Pail, and Chicago's apprisumanship in cerustiting him to remain is liable to prove eatly. Chicago's chances are now no more aright than any other of the 1s clubs in he major lengues.

Al Carson may not report to the Colts. He is after a better contract than W. W. McCredie has offered him. Stanley pitched his last game for the Colts yesterday and was bumped by the Hees. He is alated to join the Beavers Friday.

Baseball Slang Is Losing Favor

C HICAGO, Aug. 19.— Slang as a means of the proper description of baseball games in the newspapers came out a little behind straightforward out a little behind straightforward English, according to the verdict of several thousand readers in a test vote taken by a Chicago newspaper. Of a total of 2930 ballots recorded, 2904 declared for the English prescribed by the dictionaries and 1936 were in favor of the use of slang.

The figures in favor of the pure English were qualified by several thousand voters who expressed themselves in favor of the use of a moderate amount of snappy, deacriptive phrases, not limited necessarily to dictionary words, however. Many voted in favor of slang, but advocated the elimination of nicknames.
